BEGGAR GETS JEWEL FORTUNE CAIRO, July 5 (AP)—A ragged beggar who pleads for alms in the shadow of the pyramids had a fortune in stolen jewels. But he didn't know it. Police for months had been hunting $80,000 in gems taken last summer from Mrs. Nahas Pasha, wife of the Wafdist party leader. Finally they caught the thieves.

After holding out until the police fed them a chicken dinner, they admitted they had given many of the jewels to a beggar named Bahuk. The jewels were wrapped in a package and the beggar didn't know what they were, they said. He had been instructed to hide them.
