PORT KLAMATH—The third annual picnic and reunion of old friends was held on Sunday at Union creek, when 44 people, including former and present residents of Fort Klamath and the Wood River valley gathered for the day.

Before separating in the late afternoon, those present completed plans for a similar picnic next June. An invitation is extended to persons wishing to attend the annual get-together. The only stipulation is that they must be either present or former residents of Fort Klamath and the Wood River valley.
