

Juanita Stevenson Recent Bride

and Dorris Porterfield, Dorris.

The little flower girl was three-year-old Carol Ann Stevenson, niece of the bride. Train bearers were Jerry Noakes and Louise Kattiff and the ring bearer was Kaul Goode, cousin of the groom. The little girls wore pastel frocks similar to those of the honor attendants, the boys, summer suits.

Best man was Howard W. Beck, Mt. Hebron.

Ushers were J. C. Stevenson Jr. and Archie Milligan, Dalton Forkum, Dorris and Jack Darley, Anderson, California.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Goode and members of the wedding party received in the church annex following the ceremony.

The young couple cut the first slice of the three-tiered cake which was served by Mrs. F. J. Hoetsel, San Francisco, and Mrs. J. R. Ratliff, Malin, aunts of the bride.

Punch was served from an heirloom cut glass bowl by Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Pierce, Milwaukee, Wis., uncle and aunt of the bride. At the coffee and tea services were Mrs. R. H. Stevenson, Malin, and Mrs. R. L. Wray, Los Angeles, the latter, sister of the bride.

The guest book and gift table were in charge of Mrs. V. A. Walker, Malin and Mrs. H. D. Stevenson, Yuba City, cousin and sister-in-law of the bride.

For traveling Mrs. Goode wore a two-piece ensemble of pink faille. Her orchid from the bridal bouquet was at the shoulder. The bridal flowers were caught by Beverly Forward.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Stevenson chose powder blue with navy accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Goode wore gray with black accessories and red rose buds at the shoulder.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Pierce, Milwaukee, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zevely, Miami, Florida, Mrs. R. L. Wray and son Larry, Los Angeles, Mrs. F. J. Hoetsel, San Francisco, Edward J. Hoetsel, Burlingame, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Stevenson, Yuba City, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. Bertha Kaudy, Mrs. Don Gordon, San Jose, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Noble, Eva Jeffcoat, Red Bluff, Juliette Ithaburn, Susanville, Eloise Oruelles, Hilo, Hawaii, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Winter and son Stanley, Applegate.

Following a honeymoon up the Oregon and Washington coasts to Canada Mr. and Mrs. Goode will be at home in Dorris.

Meeting
Members of the Eagles auxiliary held a regular meeting Tuesday evening in the FOE hall. Reports were given on the Pendleton state convention.

The auxiliary voted on a resolution to change meeting time to Wednesday evenings. This must be passed also by the grand aerie. Members are to be notified if the meeting night is changed.

A shower for Mrs. Pauline Stamler is planned for July 12 after the regular meeting.

Flower Meet
Plans are under way for the summer Flower Show, scheduled for August, which is being sponsored by the Klamath Falls garden group. Mrs. Hugh O'Connor is chairman.

No flower show has been held in this city since the prewar days.

The July meeting of the group will be devoted to discussions and display of flower arrangements. Mrs. G. A. Krause will tell of some of the basic principles of good arranging and Mrs. O'Connor will give the schedules for the flower show.

Members of all garden clubs in the Klamath area are invited to attend this meeting which will be in the city library on Monday, July 11.

The next meeting will be a lawn party at the home of Edna Pinney.

Vows Read

At a candlelight ceremony performed by Rev. A. C. Grimes of Chiloquin, Bonnie Lee Sweeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Sweeney of Lakeview highway, became the bride of John McCullough at the home of the bride's parents, recently.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely white satin gown with a marquisette yoke. The veil, which was borrowed from her cousin, was fingertip length. It was held in place by stephanotis.

The gown was fashioned by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Blanch Moteschenbacher. The bride's bouquet was of lilies with luscious green streamers.

Hanotia Homer, the bride's attendant, wore an aqua net gown and carried a bouquet of pink gladioli. Assisting the groom as best man was Robert Perabee.

Robert Moteschenbacher, cousin of the bride, lighted the tapers. Shirley Hawkins was in charge of the guest book.

A reception was held following the ceremony. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of cake, Mrs. Moteschenbacher continued serving. Mrs. Harlow poured at the coffee table.

The groom is the son of Mr. Arthur McCullough of Lewiston, Montana.

For going away Mrs. McCullough chose a royal blue suit with navy accessories.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Roy Harlow of Lakeview, Pauline Sweeney of Crescent City, Calif., and Mrs. Marie Sweeney of Fort Bidwell, Calif.

Delphians

The Delphians, one of the oldest study groups in the United States have recently been reorganized in Klamath Falls. The Delphians are composed of women who wish to study various subjects on a college level.

The study group is enrolled for a three year course and they will study such things as psychology, political economy, and the cultures of various countries. Plans have been made for speakers for the group also.

The meetings will be conducted as seminars.

The first meeting will be held at the First Congregational church Thursday. At that time, Mrs. Francis Portner of Los Angeles, who has been organizing the group will speak on the big three of Delphi.

An interesting note concerning the group is that this particular chapter is one of two oldest in the U. S. It has been in existence for 25 years.

Members are Mrs. Don Zumwalt, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. George Goering, Mrs. George C. Filcraft, Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, Mrs. R. E. Monteth, Mrs. James Pinney, Mrs. J. M. Hilton, Mrs. C. to the ladies!

By Louise Reinhart

Klamath Falls, July 9 — Congratulations and best wishes for a happy life to Betty Merrill and Bill Gannon Jr., who are to be married tomorrow. And the same thoughts to all the other brides and grooms in the Klamath area.

Summertime is a good time to have your jewelry checked, cleaned and repaired, if necessary. Many of our customers have agreed that this is a good idea, since they aren't planning on getting "all gussed up" for fancy social functions at this season. As a result The Bossman is busy at his drawing board making smart and beautiful designs for stones that deserve the best of backgrounds. He charges nothing for designing, cleaning or appraising and his special order prices will surprise you pleasantly.

Look at your rings. If you can detect signs of wear your stones are in danger. Bring them to Reinhart's, 519 Main, for a thorough inspection, and you always get S & H Green Stamps on repairs.
