

Young Couple Will Live Here

Theresa Thauscher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thauscher, of Maxwell, Calif., became the bride of Jack O'Connor on June 25 in a double ring ceremony in the Sacred Heart Catholic church in Maxwell. Rev. Stephen Stack officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white marquisette with small tucked cap sleeves, a tucked bodice and a Peter Pan collar. A cummerbund waistband ended in a large bow falling from the waist over the full hooped skirt.

The illusion veil of fingertip length fell from a crown of lace, which was borrowed from the bride's sister, Mrs. Olga LaGrande.

The bride's flowers were a showy bouquet of stephanotis and carnations with a white orchid. She carried a rosary over 50 years old, which was a present to the bride's mother on her wedding day. The bride wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

The matron of honor, Mrs. LaGrande, sister of the bride, wore a gown of yellow chiffon and carried a shower bouquet of lavender gladioli with a band of the same flowers in her hair.

Daniel O'Connor, brother of the groom, was best man.

Jerome Stevens sang "Ave Maria" and "Pans Angelicus," accompanied by Mrs. Erasa LaGrande.

The bride's mother wore navy blue with white accessories and a lavender orchid pinned at the shoulder. Mrs. O'Connor, the groom's mother, wore a beige gown with an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe LaGrande. Janice Lausten and Josephine Thauscher served. The rooms were decorated with pink and white gladioli.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor left for a honeymoon trip to Washington and Canada. For going away, the bride chose a white eyelid dress with brown and white accessories. The white orchid of her corsage was pinned at her shoulder.

The couple is at home in Klamath Falls.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. O'Connor of this city and Maxwell. He attended the Sacred Heart academy here.

WED IN MAXWELL, CALIF. on June 25 were Theresa Thauscher and Jack O'Connor. The couple is at home in this city. Theresa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thauscher of Maxwell, and Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. O'Connor of this city.

Appointments

MERRILL—Women of the Merrill Moose chapter 18 met in regular session Tuesday, July 5, in the recreation hall with Maggie Adams, senior regent presiding. Reports were read and approved by chairman of the membership, Moosehaven, home-making, publicity, library and Mooseheart alumni committees. Anne Alvarado, Lucy Johnson and Helen Cushman were elected to membership and will be initiated at the next meeting.

Olga Bradshaw was appointed as drill captain, and Lela Bult will be the assistant. Moose sisters were drawn for the new lodge year. Louisa Irenbee was the lucky winner of the year's dues given each year.

Lodge closed in regular form and the women joined the Loyal Order of Moose for refreshments served at the Moose hall. Serving on the refreshment committee were the newly-installed officers, Maggie Adams, Rose Spolek, Beatrice Jones, Bessie West, Vivian Fox, Betty Hodges, Millie Fotheringham, Rose VanMeter and Lillian Geaney.

The Academy of Friendship meeting will be held in the Moose hall Friday, July 18, with Susan Williams, Gladys Taylor, and Doris Winebarger as hostesses.

The committee chairman will have a meeting and receive their instructions on Wednesday, July 13, at the home of Olga Bradshaw.
