Klamath Nine Squares Off Against Pitt

Gems Run Victory String To Six As Vallejo Battered

Klamath Falls and Pittsburg clash head-on tonight at Gems stadium in their highly-anticipated rassle for leadership in the Far West league. A three-game series—tonight, Sunday afternoon at 2:15 and Monday night—could put one or the other in solid.

Last night the Gems won their sixth straight game by defeating Vallejo 11-2 and Pittsburg made it a clean sweep of three over Medford with a 4-3 victory. The Gems are half a game out front with a 42-24 (636) record, while Pittsburg has a 44-27 (.620) rating.

Stan Gilson is slated to pitch for the locals in the series opener.

Last night Chuck Schildmeyer blew fast balls at the Vallejo Chiefs while the Gems played airtight ball behind him until he came into the ninth inning with a three-hit shutout. But in the top of the ninth he walked Nick Mutti and gave up singles to Lou Veselich, George Logorio and Jim Hughes for Vallejo's only runs.

The win was Schildmeyer's third against no defeats.

TWO FOURBAGGERS

Big guns in the Gems' assault were Gordon Hernandez, who had an inside-the-park homer in the fifth inning, and Pinky Reese who put one over the right field boards in the eighth with Ken Jensen on base.

Hernandez' blow hit far up on the scoreboard in centerfield and bounded straight back almost in behind second base while the speedy Gordon was circling the bases in something near record time.

Bill Reese, Bob Cassell and Hernandez had three hits each. Dick Piedmont, starting Vallejo pitcher, bore the brunt of the assault for a little over six innings and was the loser.

In the sixth stanza the Gems pulled the Brooklyn trick of having two runners on one base, inadvertantly. With Morrie Nordell on second base, Jensen bounced to the pitcher who turned and trapped Nordell as he started for third. While the rundown was going on, Jensen pedaled down to second and was standing there when Nordell eluded his pursuers and dived back for the bag. Jensen started backtracking for first but was tagged out.

An oddity: The three-game series with Vallejo produced almost identical scores. Klamath won 11-3 Wednesday night, 11-2 Thursday and 11-2 again last night.

The Northern California baseball league goes into its ninth round tomorrow, with the local team—the Klamath Falls Pioneers—scheduled to play at McCloud.

The Pioneers and Dunsmuir lead the circuit with seven wins and a single loss each.

Dunsmuir will play the third place Hilt team at Hilt; Weed is at Mt. Shasta and Yreka tackles the weak Shasta Dam team.

Robinson On Stand

WASHINGTON, July 8 (AP)—The house un-American activities committee has invited Baseball Star Jackie Robinson to "give the lie" to Singer Paul Robeson's comments on the loyalty of American Negroes.

Robinson, and other prominent Negroes, have been asked to testify next week, starting Tuesday.

Chairman Wood (D-Ga.) told reporters:

"I think the principal purpose is to give the lie to the statements of Robeson that American Negroes wouldn't fight in case of a war against Russia."

Negroes themselves, he said, have asked the committee to set up a forum so they could refute Robeson. During a recent European tour, Robeson said he loved the Russians and that American Negroes would refuse to fight a war against the Soviets.

Long Beach—Billy Graham, 141½, New York, outpointed Jimmy Sanders, 147½, Pittsburgh, 10.

RIGHT OFF THE BAT—The camera, catching the impact of bat against ball, sees the ball as a flat blur as George Logorio, Vallejo outfielder, puts his shoulders into a swing. Despite the depicted effort, Logorio grounded out as the Gems defeated the Chiefs. The catcher is Klamath's Ralph Mohler and the man in blue is Umpire Tibbs.

Braves Nip Phillies, 4-3, In Sixteen-Inning Marathon Tilt

Good old night baseball. How the customers love it.

A full scale program of eight night games yesterday brought a bumper crop of 198,170 paid admissions into the treasury.

Even at 1 o'clock in the morning they love it in Philadelphia where some 11,238 watched the Boston Braves wrangle a 16-inning decision from the Phillies, 4-3, in a 4 hour 16 minute struggle.

It looked as though the Braves and Phils never would finish before the deadline but they finally managed to wind up matters on Rookie Catcher Del Crandall's fly ball, scoring Marv Rickert from third base. No inning can start after 12:50 a.m., local time.

Boston's Shortstop Alvin Dark was carried off the field after he was hit on the head by a ball thrown by Gran Hamner in the 13th inning. His physician said his condition was not serious.

The Phils tied the score with two out in the ninth when Richie Ashburn singled and raced home on Hamner's double. Both tallied in the 11th before the Braves finally pulled it out for Reliefer Bob Hogue. Schoolboy Rowe, who came on in the 12th, was the loser.

Largest and most enthusiastic night crowd was at Pittsburgh where 36,366 saw Bill Meyer's "darkhorse" Pirates of last spring ring up their seventh straight victory, 2-1, over Chicago.

Vic Lombardi, the half-pint southpaw, earned his fourth straight important victory with a six-hitter that defeated Dutch Leonard.

While the Pirates continued their delayed climb, Brooklyn and St. Louis carried on their savage battle for the lead. Both contenders won, leaving the Dodgers with a two-game edge.

Brooklyn just escaped with a 4-3 edge over the slugging New York Giants by using three strong-armed pitchers to whip Clint Hartung for the first time. The Giants' "phenom" never had lost to the Dodgers until he bowed to Reliefer Rex Barney before 34,468, largest Ebbets field night crowd of the year.

Howie Pollet, enjoying his greatest year since 1946, posted his 11th triumph. He yielded 10 Cincinnati hits but allowed only one run in a 6-1 Cardinal triumph. Ewell Blackwell yielded nine hits and four runs before he was lifted for a pinch hitter in his second starting job of the year. Blacky was the loser.

Joe Page's 12th inning single backed up a fine job of relief pitching for a 4-3 edge over Washington that boosted the New York Yankees American league lead to six games. The Yankee stadium crowd numbered 35,845.

Page came through following infield singles by Bil Johnson and Gene Woodling and an infield out.

Back in friendly Fenway Park, Vern Stephens banged his 20th homer in the Boston Red Sox' 7-1 romp over the Philadelphia A's. Joe Dobson pitched the Sox to their fourth straight before 34,276 fans with the help of three snappy double plays.

Cleveland, now only a half game back of the second place A's, staved off two St. Louis Brown rallies to escape with a 6-5 decision. Larry Doby's two-run homer in the first inning of Cliff Fannin supplied the victory margin for the Indians who have won seven of their last eight.

Young Walt Pierce of Chicago turned in a five-hit game against his old Detroit mates for a 3-1 win. Bob Swift's homer in the third was the only Tiger score.

Lone California Hope

Bassett Challenged By Portland Netmen

PORTLAND, July 9 (AP)—Glenn Bassett, Los Angeles, remained the only California hope in the men's singles of the annual Oregon tennis tournament today.

Arrayed against him in the semi-finals are two Portland players, top-seeded Emery Neale and unranked Hugh Findlay, both of Portland, and Jack Lowe, Seattle.

Lowe, who will meet Neale today, advanced to the round-of-four by ousting Jack Shoemaker, Los Angeles, 7-5, 9-7. Findlay, pitted against Bassett, scored an upset by eliminating fourth seeded Clyde Knox, Portland, 7-5, 11-9. Neale and Bassett reached the semi-finals earlier.

San Diego clinched the women's singles crown when Carol Deim and Jean Boyle, both of that city, moved into the finals. June Merserau, Portland defaulted to Miss Diem because of an infected foot. Miss Doyle easily defeated Mary Green, Vancouver, B. C., 6-1, 6-4, in the semi-finals.

The men's doubles narrowed down to the semis, with Bassett and Shoemaker going up against Sam Lee and Claude Hockley, Portland, and Len Clark, Portland, taking on Jim Kroesen and Jim Livingstone, San Francisco.

The Yakima duo of Helen Kukay and Marge Maskell defeated Sue Iversen and Kathy Marlette, Portland, 9-7, 4-6, 11-9, to reach the finals of the junior women's doubles.

Rooster Goes Back To Suds

SEATTLE, July 9 (AP)—Schuster the "Rooster" will be back at his old shortstop post for the Seattle Rainiers tonight.

In a straight-across swap, the Rainiers late yesterday traded Infielder Bobby Sturgeon to Los Angeles for Bill Schuster, who was a key figure in Seattle's 1940 Pacific Coast league pennant drive. As one wag put it: fowl for fish.

Sturgeon was purchased last winter from the Boston Braves. Schuster, 35, was with Seattle in 1940 and then was sold to Los Angeles in midseason of 1941. He has been there since, with the exception of two war years when he was with the Chicago Cubs of the National league.

Wagner Chilled

ROSEBURG, July 9 (AP)—Babe "Hardrock" Gordon, Roseburg heavyweight, knocked out Keller Wagner of Salem in the first round of a scheduled ten-round boxing bout here last night.

Gordon drove a left hook to the fact, followed by a left to the stomach to send Wagner through the ropes in 1:40 minutes.

Davey Ball, 160, Bakersfield, attempted an iron-man stunt and came a cropper. He won a technical knockout over Dick Collie, 152, Winchester, in the third round of a scheduled four-round preliminary. That was as a substitute for a fighter who did not appear.

But when he tangled with Al Cliff, 155, Portland, in a scheduled six-round semi-final, he got a nasty cut over the eye, and became a technical knockout victim himself in the fifth round.

Other results: Tommy Weathers, 149, Camas valley, TKO over Melvin Woodall, 142, Redding (3); Lyle Wescott, 138, Roseburg, decision over Pete Collins, 138, Salem (4).

Photogenic Gals Tee Off

SEATTLE, July 9 (AP)—The photogenic Bauer sisters from Los Angeles—Alice and Marlene—will be among the favorites when the women tee off at the Broadmoor Golf club Monday in qualifying rounds for the Pacific Northwest Golf association women's championship.

Other prominent feminine links invaders are Former Champion Mrs. J. C. Herron of Portland, who won several titles under her maiden name of Marian McDougall; and another Portlander, Mrs. Lyle Bowman, who used to cut a fancy golfing pace under the maiden name of Babe Friese.

Gracie De Moss of Corvallis, Ore., Mrs. Irene McCracken and Babs Davies of Vancouver, B. C., Veva Butler of Pomeroy, Wash., Winnifred Blakely of Portland, Rose Eva Montgomery of San Francisco and Mrs. J. H. Todd of Victoria are other contenders.

Moylan Gets Upset Try

SPRING LAKE, N. J., July 9 (AP) Eddie Moyland, the only man who's ever beaten Frankie Parker in a Spring Lake invitation tennis tournament, gets a chance to do it again.

If the stocky Irishman from Trenton, N. J., upsets Parker in the semi-finals of the 41st Spring Lake tourney, it will be his second surprise win in as many days, and also will provide a strange parallel to the 1947 event.

Moylan, who yesterday upended the fourth-seeded Gardner Mulloy of Miami, Fla., 6-3, 6-4, won the tournament two years ago by startling upsets over Parker and Mulloy.

The other semi-final matches National Champion Richard (Pancho) Gonzales of Los Angeles, seeded first, against Billy Talbert of New York, rated third. Parker, of Los Angeles, is seeded second and Moylan is unseeded.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

Southpaw Hurls No-No

DALLAS, Tex., July 9 (AP) Carence Iott, a southpaw whose wild arm has kept him traveling baseball's trails, hit the jackpot for his first victory in a Beaumont uniform—a no hit, no run game.

The big lefthander, peddled by Dallas to Beaumont a short time ago, last night blanked Shreveport, 2-0, in the seven-inning first game of a Texas league doubleheader.

Joe Brown was stingy with hits last night—in fact, he didn't give the Bureau of Reclamation one snip—and the Merrill Billiards went on to their fourth consecutive county softball loop victory on the Merrill diamond, 11 to 1.

Meanwhile, the high-riding Bills were whacking out eight bingles with the bureau's R. Hafar serving them up.

Brown whiffed nine batters during the lop-sided win. Tom Perkins added to the barrage in the fourth inning when he leaned into one for a circuit clout.

In the opener, the Finnigan nine dangerously near the top of the league, went on a batting spree to slap the Stewart-Lennox team, 22 to 6.

Nichols, Schortgen and Everett were the big stickmen for Finnigan.

Monday night the Eagles who share the league lead with the Billiards, will tangle with the Merrill VFW team in the 7:30 opener. Kalpine and Finnigan's tangle in the nightcap.

Quartet Of Tee Leaders Set For Morse

SEATTLE, July 9 (AP)—Two present and two former Walker cup golfers step to the tee at the Seattle Golf club this afternoon, getting the Pacific coast's first Morse cup matches under way.

Paired in the opening two-ball foursome are Harry Givan of Seattle and Jack Westland of Everett against Johnny Dawson and Bruce McCormick of Los Angeles.

Givan and Westland both are ex-Walker cup players. Dawson and McCormick are on the 1949 squad.

The Morse cup competition today and Sunday is patterned after the cup matches which annually pit the U. S. amateur standouts against Britain's best.

The SFB Morse cup, put up for the first time this year, brings the cream of California's amateur crop against the finest talent the Pacific Northwest can muster.

In the three other foursomes today it will be:

Ronald Clark of The Dalles, Ore. and Scotty Campbell of Seattle vs. Eli Bariteau and Ernie Pelper Jr. of San Jose.

Ray Weston of Spokane and Guy Owen of Cutbank, Mont., vs. Ed Lowery and Dr. Jackson Bean of San Francisco.

Dave Doud of Tacoma and Bill Mawhinney of Vancouver, B. C., vs. Buc McKinney and Ralph Evans of Los Angeles.

In Sunday's singles matches, it will be Givan vs. Dawson, Westland vs. McCormick, Mawhinney vs. Bariteau, Campbell vs. Lowery, Weston vs. Pelper, Clark vs. Evans, Glenn Sheriff, Seattle, vs. McKinney, and Lou Stafford, Portland, vs. Beard.

Most of the Morse cup contestants will remain here for the Pacific Northwest amateur tournament over the same course next week.

Twinks Bloat Lead To Ten Large Games

Helser Humbles Flores As Bevos Topple San Diego

By The Associated Press

Hollywood, first in movies and usually near the last in the Coast league, is blowing its top today.

Fred Haney's ever-hustling Stars zoomed to a new altitude—10 full games above the pack—with a come-from-behind 5 to 4 win last night over San Francisco's saddened Seals.

The way they did it was typical of the new regime.

Trailing 4-2 because of Walt Judnich's three-run homer, the Stars rapped out four hits in the last of the eighth for three tallies. Mike Sandlock, a .253 hitter, drove in two runs to tie the score. Then little Johnny O'Neil, batting .209, won the game with a single.

Con Dempsey, going the route, was tagged with his ninth loss, while his Pinky Woods, fourth Hollywood pitcher, checked the Seals in the final two frames for his 13th win.

OAKS SECOND

Oakland took a bookkeeper's hold on second place—.5192 to .5189—over Seattle. The Oaks edged Los Angeles, 8-7 in 10 innings, while the Rainiers were dropping their sixth straight, 3-1, to Sacramento.

Relief hurler Forrest Thompson won his own game for the Oaks with a 10th inning single scoring Billy Martin. Thompson held the Angels fairly well after homers by John Ostrowski and Cliff Aberson had routed Rex Cecil. Another four-bagger by Ostrowski and one by Nels Burbrink forced the game into overtime. Cookie Lavagetto homered for the Oaks.

Orval Grove's neat four-hitter and Ralph Hodgin's two-run lease were Sacramento's main weapons against Seattle's Denny Galehouse. The Rainiers tallied in the first, drew blanks from then on.

BFLSER WINS

Portland knocked San Diego into fourth place with Roy Helser besting Jess Flores, 3-1. Helser's double Deo Thomas' single and steal, and Johnny Rucker's tingle provided the winning margin.

Tonight's games:

San Francisco (Manny Perez 5-3) at Hollywood (Willard Ramsdell 10-3).

Los Angeles (Booker McDaniel 4-1) at Oakland (Charlie Gassaway 10-5).

San Diego (Dick Barrett 6-3) at Portland (George Diehl 4-3).

Must Give Approval

Fish Outfit Ponders Deschutes Dam Plans

SALEM, July 9 (AP)—The state hydroelectric commision has ordered the Northwest Power Supply company to get approval of the state fish commission before the company can get permission to build its $12,000,000 power dam on the Deschutes river.

If the fish commission is satisfied that the company's plans to build a hatchery are sufficient to maintain fish life, then the hydroelectric commission would consider granting a preliminary permit to build the dam.

The hydroelectric commission order said that the dam, 150 feet high, would be too high for fish ladders, and that a hatchery would be the only solution.

The fish commission has opposed building the dam, asserting it would harm the Columbia river fisheries and plans to rehabilitate them.

The hydroelectric commission said:

"The fish commission in its discretion is authorized to grant such a permit if the company builds a hatchery and hatchery residence constructed according to plans prepared by the fish commission, and conveys the land upon which the buildings are located to the state."

The hydroelectric commission also advised the company it would have to maintain a steady flow of water below the dam, asserting a fluctuation of the water flow would endanger human life and injure young fish.

Both commercial and sports fishermen opposed the dam. They failed in their attempt to get the recent legislature to block construction.
