Cooper's drive in. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Millap and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Claypool and family of Prineville, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kingstrom of Ashland, spent the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Robinson and family.

Susan Jane Farris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin L. Farris, was united in marriage Sunday at the First Baptist church to Kelton E. Vincent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Vincent.

The church was crowded to capacity, and the altar was beautifully decorated with flowers. Mrs. Betty Smith sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Daisy Fleming on the piano.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the Grange hall where 100 or more persons enjoyed the beautiful occasion, made more impressive by the surprise shower tendered the young bride, following the dinner. The young couple received a beautiful array of useful gifts. Dorothy Fleming sang a series of appropriate and pretty songs during the dinner hour.

The bride, being called upon for a few words, expressed her sincere thanks to those present and also those who sent gifts and could not attend, for their kind generosity and the many beautiful gifts they had given them. The groom, being called upon for a speech also, said, "That goes for me too."

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wells and daughters, Ferrel and Toni, and W. H. Juhuke from Medford are visiting at the home of Howard Wells for a few days.

Merrill

Mrs. Anna Howard was elected president of the American Legion auxiliary at the last meeting, June 28. First vice president is Bessie West, second vice president is Connie Hughey, historian is Lorraine Mahaffey, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. O. J. Harris; sergeant-at-arms, Mae Shapp. The auxiliary will meet again on July 26, when a potluck dinner will be served at 7 p. m.

Warren and Ellis Ochs have returned from Deep River, Iowa where they were called by their father's death. Their mother and sister returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Paschall Hodges, Janice and Gary, drove to Portland over the holiday.

City Marshal Lloyd Hughey was called to Tillamook by the illness of his mother.

Mrs. Murray Howard went to Longview to get her grandson, Eddie Parker, who will spend the summer here. Mrs. Howard made the trip north with Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Wilson. Wilson attended a meeting of Masons in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Howard visited for a few days in Mouthout with the C. H. Howards, parents of Murray, and in Rickreall, with his sister and family.

Lloyd Hughey, chairman of the Fourth of July celebration, extends sincere appreciation to the following for their donations: Ben Franklin store for balloons, Loat River and Crater Lake dairies for the ice cream, Jones grocers for cold drinks and to the Merrill Lumber company Reeves Hardware and Electric, Merrill pharmacy, Ben Franklin store and Shuck Brothers for the prizes given for races and other events. F. D. Curle of the Oregon Trading Post was in charge of the advertising.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Carson have returned from a vacation trip to Nampa and Caldwell, Idaho. They returned home via Prineville, Redmond and Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Hodges and daughter, Sherry, drove to San Francisco, Calif., for the holiday week-end.

Fort Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vaden and children returned last week from a three-weeks' trip to Texas, where they visited relatives. They had intended to stay a month in Texas, but the extreme heat prevailing there cut their trip and visit short.

Jerry Sisemore returned home Thursday from the Klamath Valley hospital in Klamath Falls, where he had been a patient for over a week for observation and medical care. He is much improved as a result of his stay in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Belden of Vines, Calif., are here for the Fourth of July vacation, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loren L. Miller Sr., and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Loren L. Miller Jr. and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Van Wormer and two small sons, accompanied by George Woodley, left Friday for San Jose, Calif., for the Fourth of July holiday, during which they will visit Mrs. Van Wormer's mother and other relatives. On their return trip to Fort Klamath, her mother and sister, Mrs. Anna Peters and daughter, Bernice, plan to accompany them to their home at Crater Lake park headquarters for a visit.

James Legget arrived home Friday night from Richland, Wash., to spend the holidays with his family here. He is employed at the atomic bomb plant at nearby Hanford, Wash.

Among graduates of Oregon Technical institute who received their diplomas following the recent commencement exercises held at Klamath Falls were Don Gray, and Weston Engle.

Chiloquin

Mrs. Andy Ortis, her two sons, and her sister, Mrs. Clarence Jenkins of Sprague River, left a week ago Tuesday to spend several days visiting with relatives in Redding, Calif. On Friday Mrs. Ortis and the boys met Ortis, and the family continued to Port Orford to visit a sister of his. They visited in Crescent City, Oregon Gaves and various other points of interest, returning at the close of the fourth of July holidays.

New Pine Creek

Although the crowd was not quite so large as last year, a large group of grange members enjoyed a good old fashioned Fourth of July picnic with the traditional frolic of games and foot races that go with it.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Lenkert and children arrived by plane Friday for a 10-day visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lenkert. They were accompanied by Eleanor Roach and Robert Helem.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Croxton and family of Lebanon arrived last Thursday for an overnight visit with Mrs. Croxton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cogburn. They left Friday morning to visit Croxton's parents at San Francisco. From there they will go on down to Los Angeles, Calif., to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Alexander. In all, they will be gone about two weeks.

The daughters of Mr. and Mrs.

Otman Vincent of Loftus, Calif., arranged a surprise family reunion at New Pine Creek for their parents over the Fourth, it being the first time the family has been together for 10 years, and the group surely had a grand time.

There were 21 present at the reunion, their names being as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Cooper and sons, Jimmy Jr. and Richard; Albert Cooper and wife, Geneva, with children Billy and Dottie, of Sonora, Calif.; John Penhall, wife June and sons, Billy and Danny of Campbell, Calif.; Robert Garnes, wife, Rose, and children, Tyline and Oliver, of Manteca, Calif.; Walter Rowland and wife, Alice, of Cedarville, Calif., and Otice Vincent of Loftus, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Otman Vincent have been married 30 years. As the men folk in the group enjoyed a lot of good fishing, a chicken and trout dinner was served the Fourth at
