

Illinois Rites Unite Couple

LANGELL VALLEY—A lovely wedding was solemnized on June 11, at 8 p. m. in the Amity Lutheran church in Lena, Illinois, when June Irene Schulz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schulz of Pearl City, Ill., became the bride of Eric Romivodi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andre Romivodi of Bonanza.

The Rev. C. C. Warfel officiated at the double ring ceremony. Large baskets of peonies, white gladioli, palms and ferns were used in the decorations for the candlelight ceremony. Pews reserved for the families were marked with tulle bows and huckleberry foliage.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Bride Feted

A miscellaneous shower was given recently for Betty Merrill by her cousin, Mrs. Ray Michels. A clever motif for the affair was pink balloons and arrows that were hanging from the lights.

Musical games were played during the evening. Prizes went to Jean Merrill and Mrs. Van Landrum.

Guests were Jean Merrill, Mrs. Guy Merrill, Mrs. Ralph Schouboe Jr., Mrs. Ray Merrill, Mrs. William Ganson Sr., Mrs. Harold Dryden, Mrs. Carl Michaelson, Mrs. Van Landrum, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. Ernest Bubb, Mrs. Leo Burke, Mrs. Loyal Lutz, Mrs. Gertrude Wiggins, Mrs. F. W. Mosk, Mrs. John Selby, Mrs. Ray Reeves, Mrs. Edna Book, Mrs. H. S. Stone, Mrs. Tony Molatore Sr., Mrs. Helen Mueller, Mrs. Maude Holey, Mrs. Charlotte Martin, Mrs. Fred Schallack, Mrs. H. C. Borgman.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were Ruth Merrill, Mrs. J. L. Olson, Mrs. H. M. Parkhurst, Mrs. Tom Kalmes, Mrs. John Zarosinski, Mrs. Michael McAuliffe, Mrs. Victor O'Neill, Mrs. O. E. Schupp, Mrs. Jessa Dickerson and Mrs. Rollin Thompson.

Bridge

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Dewey Horn entertained the Bonanza Penny Bridge club at her home on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Ed Gowen won high prize for the evening, and Mrs. Owen Pepple received the traveling prize.

Square Dancing

The Malin grange has scheduled an old-time dance at the Broadway hall in Malin, Saturday night, July 23. The strangers are planning an evening of true old-time hospitality for this public dance.

The Old-Time orchestra from Langell valley will furnish the music to which a number of square dancers are expected to dance. Dancing will be from 10 p. m. to 2 a. m.

Arrangements have been made with the Malin Square Dance club to give instructions to beginners who wish to learn the square dance. These instructions will be given from 9:30 to 10 before the dance begins.

Church Potluck

Members and friends of the First Christian church are invited to attend an all church potluck supper, Friday, July 15 at 6:30 p. m. The occasion of the supper is to welcome Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Swope. Rev. Swope is the new permanent minister of the church. He has been serving the church since Rev. Howard Hutchins left in February, and the church board has voted unanimously to ask him to be the new minister.

Mrs. John Selby is in charge of the supper arrangements and Mrs. Stanley Kendel is in charge of the program which will follow. There will be a special table for the children.

Auxiliary

A meeting of the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars was held in the library clubroom Thursday evening, July 7, with Ruby Bowman presiding, and Lena Blinkman presented her resignation as secretary, and the president appointed Betty Kufner to complete the term.

Dora Lohrey was installed as guard, Mabel Brochtrup as conductor and Jennie Arnold as the three-year trustee. A picnic to be held during the summer months and a membership drive were discussed. The next meeting will be July 21, and the auxiliary will serve refreshments to the post following the meeting.

Traveling

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Shaddock, who have resided at 627 Mitchell street for the past two years, have sold their home and have just returned from a trip to Tulsa, Okla., where they purchased a new large house trailer.

The Shadducks plan to make the house trailer their home and will spend their time traveling. They will leave Thursday for Portland to spend the next two months and then plan to go south for the winter. Mr. Shaddock is a retired Southern Pacific engineer.

Lodge Meet

Lucille Bold, noble grand, presided over the regular meeting of Prosperity Rebekah lodge held in the IOOF hall Thursday evening, July 7. Following the business session, Martha Hurd, program chairman for the evening, presented an amusing little skit. The next meeting will be July 21. The district convention will be held in Klamath Falls on August 6.

Vote Aid

LANGELL VALLEY—The Associated Women of the Langell Valley Farm bureau met at the home of Mrs. Bob Colwell on Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was directed by Christine Brown. The women voted to support the campaign for research on multiple sclerosis.

Mrs. Pfeiffer demonstrated aluminum and hammered brassware.

The next meeting will be at the home of Ruby Paramore on July 27.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Colwell to Christine Brown, Ruby Paramore, Ethel Jones, Agnes Pfeiffer, Mae Gale, Peggy Wynant, Alma Embrey, Bonnie Fernlund, Joan Marchant, Harriett Gamage, Helen Derry and Mrs. Paramore Jr.

Women's Council

The Women's Council of the First Christian church will hold its regular meet Thursday, July 14 beginning with the executive board meeting at 10 a. m. All of the new officers are urged to be in attendance at this executive meeting. The general business meeting will be held at 11 a. m. followed by a sack lunch at noon. Reports of the delegates who attended the Turner convention will be given, and the youth dele-
