

Ellsworth Raps Slash In Call Pay

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 13 (AP)—Representative Ellsworth (R-Ore.) said Tuesday that western congressmen are "taking it on the chin" under a new house rule which puts a limit of $500 yearly on telephone calls and telegrams.

Previously all telegrams sent by house members on business were paid out of the legislative appropriation but members had to pay for their telephone calls. That ended July 1 under a resolution fixing the $500 limit for each member from the legislative appropriation.

"The result," Ellsworth said in a letter to constituents "was to limit the west coast members to three or four telegrams a week because each of them cost an average of $3.

"The scheme is merely a redistribution of communications cost with the nearby members gaining and the members from a distance taking it on the chin."

Ellsworth said the new rule was adopted "one dull afternoon when most members were in committee or attending to office work."

"The good old days when western members of the house could make prompt reply by telegraph to urgent inquiries or requests from constituents is ended," Ellsworth said, "unless we pay most of the telegraph bills out of our own pockets."

LONG TRIP
CORDOVA, Alaska, July 13 (AP)—In an outrigger canoe powered by an outboard motor, Pat Murphy, Fairbanks carpenter, put up to the Cordova dock Monday after a 106-mile trip from Valdez.

He plans to continue to Seattle, a voyage he figures will take about three months.

The tropical bread-fruit tree has many uses: Its fruit is a dietary mainstay; its wood is used for canoes; its inner bark, for the manufacture of cloth; and its juice for glue.

STEINKE'S OCCUPATION
KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (To the Editor)—Your news story on the election of Paul C. Steinke as commander of Klamath post No. 8, the American Legion, commenting on his occupation as bookkeeper for my insurance agency. That is dead wrong.

You have heard the definition of an executive which is "a man with a worried look on his assistant's face." Steinke is the man in our office with the worried look although he wasn't wearing it when you photographed him.

Would appreciate a little publicity for this correction in the interests of justice.

Respectfully,
M. L. JOHNSON.

Taku Glacier To Be Studied

JUNEAU, Alaska, July 13 (AP)—A study of ice and snow formations in Taku glacier will be started about midweek by 18 geologists who have established bases on the glacier's surface.

Maynard Miller is field director of the survey, sponsored by the American Geographic society.

Army and navy planes have dropped more than six tons of supplies and equipment on the three camps already set up by the members of the expedition.

The temperature on the glacier was reported Monday morning at 44 degrees, only 12 degrees lower than Juneau.

Careful observers assert that "sorcerers" frequently bring about the death of their victims by "sorcery" when those victims believe in the power of the "sorcerer" to kill.

Unemployment Figures In Oregon Gain This Summer

Seasonal declines in unemployment, after continuing uninterrupted since the February cold spell, were halted during late June by a lull in farm activity, temporary let-downs in lumbering, and additions of many students, migrants and housewives to the labor force.

The number of those actively seeking work, July 1, as reported to the state unemployment compensation commission from 26 local offices, increased to 42,400 as compared with 39,600 a month before and 30,500 a year ago.

For the first time in more than eight years at this season, labor surpluses were reported from every agricultural area. Bean picking in the Willamette valley will gain headway later in July, grain harvests are picking up in Eastern Oregon, while gathering and processing of hops and late fruit and vegetables will absorb thousands of in-migrants, families and students during August and September, but it seems doubtful whether summer employment will reach the 1948 peak.

Industrial jobs also were expected to increase during the summer, but the number of unfilled openings reported by local offices fell off again—indicating a quick acceptance of offers from employers. Local office placements for June reached 46,394, of which 3844 were in non-farm activities.

The Portland tri-county area continued to account for more than half of the unemployed with 22,300, but Salem with 3700 and Eugene with 3300 both reported increases. Astoria with 1500 and Toledo with 600 had more out of work than for 60 days past.

With a new benefit year just getting under way, 17,318 new claims were on file at the commission's central offices—55.4 per cent more than a year ago. Meanwhile compensable claims the last week of June were 13,715 as compared with

Martha Shops and Shops

of the earth are PRECIOUS stones. Amazing too, is the collection you'll be finding at RICKYS if you'll take a few vacation minutes to peep at them. We were entranced with the complete display and the chance to do Martha copy on them, for we're always drawn to that showcase like a moth to a flame.

If you're thinking of a birthday gift for someone, here is the answer, the perfect remembrance, a birthstone ring... for instance a genuine ruby for July, the garnet for January... amethyst for February... bloodstone, March... diamond, April... emerald, May... pearl, June... sardonyx, August... blue sapphire, September... opal, October... topaz, November and the zircon for December.

You'll see exquisite jade in breathtaking handmade antique gold settings... starting at $125.00... a genuine Oriental cat's eye... of the chrysoberyl species... the third hardest stone known to man... a mysterious gem, beautiful beyond description... a 2 1/4 carat ring will cost you $199.50.

Star sapphires enhanced with diamonds at $375.00... a genuine pearl as big as a pea in a stunning rugged setting designed especially for RICKYS... the gem cupped by a dragon with a rosebud in its jaws... translucent moonstones... shining topaz... shadowy lapis lazuli... changeable opals... black opals that are really blue or green or red... we saw one of these an inch long, glowing with fire, mounted like a grasshopper with a diamond eye... another RICKYS masterpiece to be worn as a lapel pin... white opals... gorgeous blue aquamarines... light green peridots and dusky onyx.

All the fabulous gems of a maharajah you'll find right here at RICKYS, already set in distinctive mountings or loose to be used as YOU dictate.

The flawless beauty of these GENUINE gems is unsurpassed we're sure in THIS town and the gems in THIS collection are NOT synthetic.

If you enjoy just looking at precious stones RICKYS will be happy to have you drop in. You'll find a welcome at 700 Main street RICKYS.

News flash from the cosmetic world via Eleanor Kairalla: Charles of the Ritz in New York is so impressed by the two new and exciting perfumes perfected by Christian Dior, that an exception was made and the perfumes, Miss Dior and Diorama will be presented as an integral part of the Charles of the Ritz line. Dior selected and blended 62 varieties of blossoms for the new scents. "Miss Dior" contains the light, delicate magnetism of a flower garden in full bloom, while "Diorama" has a rich, dark, heady glow. Ask for these at your favorite beauty bar.

Up In The Air

about CANDY for vacation nibbling? Well, don't soar about town looking for the BEST when the thermometer is flirting around 90... just drop into the PELICAN CANDY JAR and pick up a box of Roger's vacation mix... meaning cool chews or jelly centers... an assortment of flavors... all individually wrapped... a "no close association" idea that you'll find welcome in warm weather... priced at $1.50 a pound.

Or—Floradora Twirls... which translated means fancy toffees, caramels, nougats and other equally toothsome centers... these too, individually wrapped... no sticky fingers... boxed at 85 cents a pound.

We never get in and get out of the PELICAN CANDY JAR without "grating" over to the SPICE ISLANDS shelf.

Here are some hot weather tips on good eating we picked up that will make you shiver with gastronomic satisfaction... add a teaspoon of Spice Islands TARRAGON VINEGAR to the apples for your pie. Serve thinly sliced cucumbers or onions in Spice Islands ESCHALOT VINEGAR and a dash of CRACKED BLACK PEPPER.

With an assortment of SPICE ISLANDS seasonings you can do ANYTHING with food and what you can't do with that man in your life with a dash of CARDAMON from Ceylon, a bit of ROSEMARY or a hint of OREGANO... well... You'll be agreeably surprised at the small prices charged up on SPICE ISLAND seasonings... the flavor is so true that a little goes a long way. Honestly, you'll love 'em. Tak' home some from 722 Main street.

THE PELICAN CANDY JAR.

Sheer misery—as you watch a snag slowly ladder up the knee of your sheer nylons—may be a thing of the past. A new bottled liquid product promises to make even the finest dress hose highly resistant to snags and runs. A colorless chemical, it can be sprayed on with your own atomizer after washing. The chemical settles into a tough invisible film that won't wear or wash out. Does not affect the color or sheerness.

We're Ready To Gamble

that you're in for a treat from the PINE STREET MARKET this week if you'll order Swift's premium CANNED HAMBURGERS... yep, pre-cooked, all beef, seasoned with onions and dripping with natural juices. This is a "quickie" idea for lunch... separate the patties... no fat needed, place in cold skillet and heat slowly 'til a crusty brown... thicken the broth for gravy and pour over the patties... garnish with minced parsley... "swelegant" cold for sandwiches.

Other hot weather meats... Armour's corned beef hash... spiced ham... m-m-m... this IS good, we've tried it... whole chicken canned... 3 pounds of meat, ready to serve... what a boon on a hot day when it's an effort to just move... there's a good supply this week of fancy whole butter clams and rounded pink shrimp for salads.

If you're in the mood for "jamming" we found a plentiful supply of pineapple, frequently hard to find, for pineapple and apricot marmalade. The end of the apricot season is in sight, don't wait too long. The PINE STREET MARKET gives S&H Green Stamps, too, so shop by phone by dialing 2135 or drop into Seventh and Pine, the PINE STREET MARKET.

The stem-slim wool dress that moulds a figure and bares 13 inches of leg has an up-and-coming rival in fall collections. It's the stem-slim corduroy that does just as much for a gal. Watch for subtle detail. There's a tucked midriff, to cite one unusual trick, which corrects the middle in a girde of pleats. Peg tops are also showing up in both frocks and coats, another designer sweetheart.

There's A Penalty

for abusing your looks during the long summer days but you CAN "right-about-face" and do something about it by going to the STUDIO OF BEAUTY on the mazzanine at Whytal's and asking for a re-conditioning treatment. The operators there know just what to do to counteract the punishment you get from wind, sun and water... they'll turn you loose looking like a wood nymph after applying the three essentials of hygienic hair care... cleanliness, massage and stimulation... plus a few little tricks to add glamour to your curls.

A planned hair program will do wonders to maintain a healthy scalp and to rejuvenate one that has had improper care. Don't be "skittish" about it... few of us there are who do NOT neglect our crowning glory.

Drop in and talk about your troubles. It helps to get them off your chest. The trained operators will be glad to advise you at 9th and Main, the STUDIO OF BEAUTY.

At a barbecue last week we were brash and took a second helping of crisp lettuce hearts topped with the best dressing we have sampled for many a day. The recipe says to use one cup sour cream, 2 green onions or scallions, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, 2 or 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/4 ounces or 1 foil wrapped triangle, Roquefort type cheese, salt and freshly ground pepper to taste. Chop onions or scallions fine, add to cream and other ingredients and allow to "mellow" for several hours. Name? Ranch dressing.

Cool Your Beauty

with Helena Rubinstein's "Water Lily" CLEANSING CREAM from CURRIN'S, the Friendly Drug Store. Consistent use of this soft, new petal-light cream will chase away that leathery look that creeps up unaware after exposure, to sun, wind and water. This cool-aid to hot-weather beauty keeps your pores crystal clear... gives a dewy look to your skin... chases wrinkles... you can afford to use "gobs" of it for you get a jumbo sized jar for only $2.00... the smaller size, nice to tuck into the bag with your swim suit at $1.00. There's the usual cosmetic tax of 20 per cent... This is on special so Polly at CURRIN'S tells us to hurry.

Scads of Klamath Folks who have been introduced to the SUN and WINDPROOF cream, also Rubinstein's, are dashing back for more... it does a marvelous job of safeguarding your beauty against old man weather. This may sound technical but it contains ultra-violet screen and emollients to protect you from the burning rays of the sun... cover the exposed areas of your body, be moderate as you tan and you'll have no sunburn to tussle with. This cream doubles effectively as a make-up foundation for dry skins... it's non-greasy, pleasantly fragrant, easily absorbed. You'll find it at 9th and Main, CURRIN'S.
