

BETTY LEE MERRILL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Merrill, was a beautiful bride when she wed William Ganong Jr. The couple was married at the First Presbyterian church on July 10. Above they are shown as they were leaving for the reception following the rites. Above, right, the two are shown at the altar.

—Gudertian.

Heat Leaves Doings Undaunted

Talk about those summer days is weddings, parties and the various methods of escaping the heat. Swimming in any available spring is still the foremost thought in the minds of the younger set, but the oldsters are leaving for the coast and the nearby lakes.

Speaking of weddings, a lovely one recently was that of Betty Merrill and Bill Ganong. Both families are well known in this city and the Guy Merrills, who are pioneers in this area, even have a town named after grandpa.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mainhardt (Janice Bubbs) visited in Klamath Falls over the holidays. They are en route to Los Alamos, New Mexico and stopped here for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bubb on High street.

The Mainhardts plan to stay in Los Alamos for two months. On their trip they plan to visit Janice's sister, Virginia, and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Payne in Bakersfield, Calif.

Another group of summer time vacationers are Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Robinson, and son and daughter, Willard and Sally. The four left recently for a 10-day trip in Victoria, B. C.

The Fred Heilbronner family is really Scout minded. Mrs. Heilbronner has recently sent a number of the members of her Roosevelt Girl Scouts to the summer camp at the Lake of the Woods, including her daughter, Carrie. Son, John is spending the summer at Crescent lake as a member of the Boy Scout camp staff.

Visiting at the coast for a few days are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drew. Mrs. Drew's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Moore, of Portland, are visiting in this city with the Drew children while their parents vacation at Neskovin.

Mrs. Moore plans to remain for a few days longer after her daughter returns.

(Continued on Page 6)

A CANDLELIGHT CEREMONY was the scene of the wedding of Moya Ball and Fred S. Eyerly Jr., July 3. Moya is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ball of Lakeview, and Fred is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eyerly Sr., of San Mateo, formerly of Klamath Falls.

THOMAS RADCLIFFE took as his bride recently Betty Ruth Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen A. Butler. The two were married at St. Paul's Episcopal church before a small gathering of close friends and relatives.

Vows Read In Candlelight

At a candlelight ceremony performed by Rev. Kenneth Stafford and Rev. Omer Idso, Moya Maridene Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ball of Lakeview, became the bride of Fred S. Eyerly Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Eyerly Sr., of San Mateo, Calif., formerly of Klamath Falls.

The double ring ceremony was read in the auditorium of the First Methodist church of Lakeview on July 3 before banked white gladioli, gardenias and red roses. White taper candles lighted the church. The pews were marked with white gladioli blossoms and white tapers tied with bows of wide white satin ribbon. The bridegroom and his best man waited at an open garden gate, which was part of the decorations, for the arrival of the bride where she was given in marriage by her father.

Preceding the 8 o'clock ceremony, Soloist John Dalen sang "At Dawning" and "Through the Years." The accompanist was Ruth Briscoe. She later accompanied Orles Wiman of Lakeview, as she sang "The Lord's Prayer" from the balcony while the bride and groom knelt at the altar.

Moya was lovely in her all lace, rose appliqued, princess styled gown, with full length sleeves pointed over the wrists. Tiny nylon covered buttons decorated the sleeves as well as the back closing of the gown.

The court style train swept from the waistline and the full-length nylon lace veil was held by a coronet of hand embroidered roses and ribbon on a nylon lace base. Her bouquet was an arrangement of gardenias, stephanotis and a white orchid corsage. The bride carried a white lace trimmed handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Lottie L. McCarty.

Mrs. E. C. Ruebsamen of Lakeview, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a frock of white nylon. A matching picture hat and short mitts of appliqued nylon lace and an arm bouquet of gardenias and red roses completed her costume.

The bridesmaids were Stella Gotoler of College Park, Maryland, Mrs. Pat Parrish of Napa, Calif., and Mrs. Parma Lee Baker of Lakeview, sister of the bride. Their ensembles were identical to that of the matron of honor.

Little Ronda Ruebsamen, niece of the bride, wore a frock of the same material as the bride's gown. Greg Baker, nephew of the bride was ring bearer, carrying the wedding rings on a ruffled lace trimmed nylon pillow.

Serving as candlelighters were Mrs. Art Lange of Milwaukie, Ore., Miriam Ferrin of Lakeview.

Earl Reynolds of Corvallis, a high school and college associate of the bridegroom, was best man. Escorting the guests were E. C. Baker and E. C. Ruebsamen, both of Lakeview and both brothers-in-law of the bride, and Charles Roffe and Charles Foster, both of Eugene.

Mrs. Ball, mother of the bride, chose a gown of aqua lace crepe complimented with brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Fred S. Eyerly of San Mateo, was attired in a rose beige dress with matching hat and chocolate brown accessories.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors, which was beautifully decorated with the same color scheme which was used in the church auditorium.

The newlyweds cut the traditional first slice of the three tiered wedding cake, after which Mrs. Forrest Cooper of Lakeview, continued serving. Pouring were Mrs. Mabel Winston, dean of women of Southern Oregon college, Mrs. Louis Orner, a former college instructor of the bride at Corvallis, and Mrs. Bess Wilson, aunt of the groom, from Los Angeles, Calif. The guest book was presided over by Mrs. Zelta Rodenwald, of Washington, D. C.

Serving were Mary Arnold of Hermiston, Mrs. Edna Besson of Lakeview, Joan Howell of Klamath Falls, Marie Doherty of Lakeview, Mrs. Marilyn Robinson of Heppner, Janet Johnson of Portland, and Marilyn Carr, Corvallis.

Little Ronda Ruebsamen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ruebsamen, and Terry Linecum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Linecum of Lakeview, passed the groom's cake on which was printed the home address of the couple.

Sylvia Wingard played the piano background music during the reception. A special number was a ballet solo by Ronda Ruebsamen.

The new Mrs. Eyerly chose for her going away ensemble a light gray beige suit with dark gray shoes, purse and gloves and a royal blue hat and neck scarf. On the lapel of her suit jacket was pinned the detachable orchid corsage from the bouquet.

Mrs. Eyerly Jr. was graduated from the Lakeview high school and Oregon State college. She did a year's post graduate work in the Danforth fellowship at the University of Maryland at College Park, Md. She was a member of Mortar Board, senior honorary, and she was Senior Honor Girl.

Fred was graduated from the Klamath Union high school and Oregon State college. His honoraries are Phi Kappa Phi, and Blue Key. He was a member of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity.

The young couple are at home at 2681 Ramona street, Palo Alto, Calif., where Mr. Eyerly owns a home appliance store.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Marr and daughters of Redding, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eyerly Sr., of San Mateo, Calif.; Mr. Bess Wilson of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. John Weiman and daughters of Portland, Mrs. Zelta Rodenwald, Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Horner, and daughter of Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Lange of Milwaukie, Alice Nicholson of Portland, Marilyn Carr of Corvallis, Mrs. Don Robinson of Heppner, Stella Gotoler, College Park, Maryland, Earl Reynolds of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roffe of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Winston of Ashland, Joan Howell of Klamath Falls, Janet Johnson, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ireland, Oakland, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foster, Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Shearer of Madras.

Double Ring July Ceremony

In a lovely summer ceremony on Sunday afternoon, July 3, Fonda Rose Parsons became the bride of Harry Mauch. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Parsons, Klamath Falls, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mauch, Tulelake.

The double ring ceremony was read at 2:30 o'clock in Sacred Heart church by Father P. J. Lunham.

Preceding the ceremony, Colleen Creswell sang "Ave Maria" with Barbara Vandenberg at the piano. Miss Vandenberg also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white eyelet embroidered organdy dress, made with full skirt ending in a train, leg-o-mutton puffed sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. Her elbow length gloves matched her gown.

The net veil was caught beneath a Dutch cap of ruffled net. She carried a cluster of pink rosebuds on a white Bible. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mary Mauch, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Lillian Mauch, another sister, and Kathleen Peugh were bridesmaids. Mary was in yellow, Kathleen in orchid, and Lillian in aqua. Their frocks, fashioned like the bride's, were of pique with eyelet yokes, outlined with little ruffles and a deeper ruffle of the same material at the hemline. All wore large matching sheer straw picture hats, wrist length gloves and carried nosegays of summer blooms.

Con. Dugan, Tulelake, was best man. Ushers were Joe Mauch, brother of the groom, and William Bailey.

The wedding party stood before massed salmon and white gladioli. Pews were marked with flowers and satin ribbon.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Parsons chose an aqua ensemble with a yellow and white hat. Her corsage of yellow roses was pinned at the shoulder. Mrs. Mauch chose navy and white print with a white rosebud corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 2858 Altamont drive, where the new Mr. and Mrs. Mauch cut the first slice of their four-tiered wedding cake. The cake was ornamented with fresh sweet peas. Donna Hansen served the cake. Serving at the punch bowls were Doris Dean and Holly Franklin.

Mrs. Ralph McLeod was at the guest book and gift table.

For traveling Mrs. Mauch chose a white strutter cloth suit with pink hat and her rosebuds at the shoulder.

Following a honeymoon north to Portland and Washington, the young couple will live here.

Betty Merrill Married Sunday

In a lovely summer setting of Esther Reid daisies, Betty Lee Merrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Merrill, became the bride of William Ganong Jr. at the First Presbyterian church Sunday at 1 o'clock, July 10.

The two repeated their vows as Rev. David Barnett read them before the altar which was flanked by baskets of white daisies and candelabras.

The bride, who walked down the aisle on the arm of her father, was gowned in white lace over satin. The dress was styled with a Peter Pan collar outlined with seed pearls. A similar seed pearl design was sewn on the short lace sleeves. White satin buttons held the fitted bodice.

The satin threaded lace material was also used in the elbow length mitte. Her veil was of illusion net with a double rounded crown holding it in place. She carried a bouquet of daisies with a white orchid in the center.

Betty's only jewelry was a heart-shaped locket given her by the groom. She wore a blue garter which has been worn by close friends at their weddings, and the traditional penny in her shoe.

Betty's two sisters preceded the bride down the aisle through the white daisies and maline bows which marked the pews. Jean Merrill, who was maid of honor, wore a printed yellow organdy gown. A wreath of white daisies was in her hair and she carried a fan shaped bouquet of the same flowers.

Ruth Merrill was attired in an aqua gown which was styled the same as that of the maid of honor. Yellow daisies in her hair and in her bouquet completed her costume.

Best man was Frank Ganong, brother of the groom, from San Jacinto, Calif. Ushers were Craig Olson, Seattle, cousin and fraternity brother of the groom, Dick Beane, Jerry O'Callagan, another fraternity brother, and thirteen-year-old Jimmy Merrill, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Merrill chose a grey crepe suit with a horse hair hat adorned with purple and pink flowers. A purple orchid was pinned at the shoulder. Mrs. Ganong was attired in a blue crepe suit with grey accessories and she carried a purple orchid.

Mrs. George McIntyre played the nuptial music and accompanied Athena Lampropoulos as she sang "How Do I Love Thee." Elizabeth Barrett Browning's poem set to music.

Following the ceremony a garden reception was held on the spacious lawn at the Merrill home on Melrose. The house was open for the viewing of the gifts.

The young couple, their parents and the wedding party received by the gate under three large blue and orange garden umbrellas. Other large umbrellas sheltered the wedding cake and the punch and tea tables.

Chinese lanterns were strung above the lawn, giving a gay atmosphere.

At the punch table were Mrs. Harold Dryden, Mrs. Van Landrum, and Barbara Roskamp. Serving the cake after the young couple cut the first slice were Virginia Ellen Smith and Mrs. William Townes. Mrs. James Smith poured at the lead tea table.

Assisting were Mrs. Lawson Kandra, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. Ernest Bubbs, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Harry Dickerson, and Mrs. Ray Michels, Mrs. J. L. Olson and Mrs. H. M. Parkhurst, aunts of the bride.

The bride's book was handled by Carol Michels, cousin of the bride.

For her going away ensemble, Mrs. Ganong Jr. chose a blue linen dress with white accessories.

The white orchid from her bouquet was pinned at her shoulder.

The two left after the reception for Puget Sound in Washington. On their return to this city they will stop for the wedding of Betty's cousin, Gene Olson, in Portland.

After their honeymoon they will be at home on Lincoln street. Bill has a law practice here with his father, William Ganong Sr.

Bill was graduated from the University of Oregon law school a year ago. He was affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi fraternity and the law honorary, Phi Alpha Delta.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olson, Portland, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Ganong, Frank Ganong, San Jacinto, Calif., brother of the groom; Craig Olson, Seattle, cousin of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Parkhurst and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Olson, Portland, aunts of the bride.

H. E. Roska, cousin of the bride, Vivinus Gene Olson, Eugene, cousin of the bride, Vivinus Odishaw, Eugene; Mrs. E. Handwerk, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Favell, Lakeview; Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Merrill, uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Worth, Ashland; Mrs. William Townes, Portland; Virginia Ellen Smith, Eugene; Mrs. Leo Sagehorn, Ft. Bidwell, Calif.; Jerry O'Callagan, Ft. Bidwell; Mildred Thompson, Oakland, Calif.; Mrs. Meredith Dickerson, Olympia, Wash.; and Mrs. C. B. Howard, Ashland.

Couple United In Church Rites

At a quiet ceremony attended by only members of the immediate families and close friends, Betty Ruth Butler and Thomas Radcliffe were married recently. The rites were read by Rev. Frederick Wissenbach at St. Paul's Episcopal church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Glen A. Butler. She wore a navy suit with pink accessories for the affair, and she carried a white prayer book with a white orchid. A pink feather hat with a pink veil completed her ensemble.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Alvin B. Schriever of Tulelake, was attired in an aqua suit with white accessories. Her bouquet was of red and white carnations.

The church was decorated with mixed summer flowers formed in bouquets at the altar and matching candelabras.

Best man was Robert Grafe, brother-in-law of the groom. Mrs. Grafe (Helen Radcliffe) was organist.

Mrs. Butler wore navy and white for her daughter's wedding. A white carnation corsage was pinned at the shoulder. Mrs. Radcliffe was gowned in a flowered silk dress. She wore a navy hat decorated with flowers. A pink and white carnation corsage was pinned at the shoulder.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Butler. Assisting was Mrs. Bertie Cross. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the tiered cake, the bride's mother continued to serve.

The young couple left immediately after the reception for a honeymoon trip to Canada. On their return they will reside in Klamath Falls.

Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Heber Radcliffe of McCloud, Calif., formerly of this city. The Radcliffes lived here for many years and are well known in this area.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stuts (Mary Radcliffe) and son of Madison, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grafe, Berkeley, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Heber Radcliffe, McCloud, Calif.

Another brother, Bill, was unable to attend the wedding.