Women To Have Wide Range Of Fabrics

This fall American women will have greater choice in fabrics than they have enjoyed since before the war. Olive Smith, New York fashion co-ordinator for Montgomery Ward, told fashion department heads.

The fashion meeting, held last Thursday in the Multnomah hotel, was attended by Margie Jaskiewicz, local Ward fashion head. Representatives from Ward stores in Washington, Idaho and Montana were in attendance along with Oregon salespeople.

Miss Smith reported that lower prices for fall will make it easier for every woman to be better dressed for less money. Suit and coat prices will be 15 per cent less, while a dress which cost a customer $12.98 and $15.98 last year will cost her only $10.98 this year.

Chain Gang Called 'Cruel, Inhuman'
 TACOMA, July 20 (AP)—A 23-year-old youth, who has twice escaped from a Florida chain gang, opened his fight against extradition proceedings in superior court here Tuesday, on grounds that he received "cruel and inhuman treatment" while imprisoned in that state.

Charles D. Seiber of Clinton, Tenn., was released last week from the McNeil island federal prison after serving 11 months for a car theft during his second escape from a Hillsberg county road gang.

His habeas corpus plea is based on charges that the state of Florida inflicted inhuman treatment upon him during his imprisonment.

California Boat Wins Ocean Race
 HONOLULU, July 20 (AP)—Kitten, a sleek little sloop from Newport Harbor, Calif., won the 1949 Los Angeles-Honolulu yacht race last night—standing off a valiant, last-minute spurt by the San Francisco Sea Witch.

The 46-foot handicapped Kitten, sailed by Owner Fred W. Lyons and a crew of six, beat 22 other entries and covered the 2225-mile course in the corrected time of nine days, 10 hours, 24 minutes and 49 seconds.

The Kitten also won the class B trophy race. The Kitten crossed the finish line three days ago, but the handicaps time for the Sea Witch—the last remaining contender—ran out last night.

23 Years Ago

Monday, July 19, 1926—Instead of importing catchers who are an unknown quantity, from a great distance, as was done by the Klamath Pelicans Sunday for their Algoma game, Klamath fans are wondering why Jack Franey of the Concrete Tile Company has been passed up all this time. Algoma won by the score of 17 to 4 and Franey slammed out 4 hits out of 4 trips up, leading the winning club for hits.

Tuesday, July 20, 1926—Jack McAuliffe and two sons, Patrick and Joe, left this morning for Lakeview where Mr. McAuliffe will transact business for several days. He drove his own motor car, which is the first he has been able to drive since his serious accident of nearly a year ago.

Wednesday, July 21, 1926—The most destructive forest fire in this section is raging in the Lakeview district, according to a message received today by Jack Kimball, head of the Klamath Forest Protection association. 10,000 acres of timber has already been swept by fire, with a loss of fully 80 per cent.

Thursday, July 22, 1926—It was learned in Klamath Falls Tuesday that the dog which had bitten Frances Ballin, 6-year-old daughter of Charles R. Ballin, about ten days ago, was suffering from rabies, and the little girl has already started to take the Pasteur treatment.

Friday, July 23, 1926—Mrs. Ida Hamilton with her two sons plans to leave this week-end for Vancouver, B. C., where she will reside. Mrs. Hamilton has been employed in the infants' department at Moe's.

Saturday, July 24, 1926—Martin Adams is expected home this coming week-end from Southern California, where he has been attending summer college. He will return for the month of August and in early September will leave for Philadelphia to attend the national convention of the Theta Chis.
