

HST Speaks Out For U. S. Leadership

CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—Struggling democrats had President Truman's assurance today of United States leadership to provide "enough force" to maintain peace in a world he said is endangered by broken Russian promises.

With the United Nations charter signed and the collapse of Japan, he said, the peace for which the world had prayed "didn't come—it didn't come."

"For we found that we had an ally, an ally whose habit it is, and whose habit it has been since 1917, to make agreements for the purpose of breaking them," he declared. "Now it is absolutely necessary that we assume the leadership among the democracies of the world, so that there will be enough force in this world to maintain the peace."

Mr. Truman's remarks were delivered off the cuff at a Shrine dinner at the Stevens hotel last night following a formal address earlier in the day at Soldier Field. At the big lake front stadium he reported an apparently increasing "tension and conflicts" behind the iron curtain.

Third Speech
The dinner address, his third of the day, climaxed his attendance at the diamond jubilee session of the Shriners of North America.

Talking to 2000 nobles and their ladies, he said if the United States had stayed out of the United Nations "the only thing left for us would be to crawl into our shells and prepare for the destruction of the world, and ourselves with it."

Contrasting current expenditures with those of the war, Mr. Truman said the 1948 fiscal year budget called for spending $103,000,000,000. He said that the month after Japan folded up in September, 1945, he cancelled $60,000,000,000 in war contracts "and made a recession in expenditures of $63,000,000,000."

He thought spending could be brought down to "where we could stand it," he said, and "then came the cold war"—and the European recovery program.

All he has asked, he said, is that the country spend less than one-third of the $60,000,000,000 in war contracts "and revive Europe and Asia for peace."

NEW BOSS—Joseph I. Hall, native Oregonian and graduate of Oregon College of Education and University of Oregon, has just taken over his new duties as director of curriculum and publications for the state department of education in Salem, Mr. Hall has been assistant professor of education at University of Maine in Orono. He replaces Dr. Robert Anderson, who resigned in September to accept a similar position in California.

Big Fish Proves Costly Catch

GAINES, Pa., July 20 (AP)—Fisherman Raymond R. Cole was so proud of catching a 28-inch brown trout with his bare hands that he mounted the catch and hung it in a local tavern.

A postcard-maker took pictures and sold photos of the fine catch. Cole's fame as a fish catcher spread far and wide—even to the ears of Roger Stevens, Gaines justice of the peace.

Yesterday Stevens arrested Cole and fined him $20 and costs for the catch. Catching fish with your hands is illegal in Pennsylvania.

KF Teachers At School

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, July 20—Three Klamath Falls educators are attending the University of Oregon school of education this summer. Paul D. Angstead, 1208 Pacific Terrace, vice principal of Klamath Union high school, is studying for the master of science degree. Karl Farden, 927 Lincoln, Klamath high school librarian, is taking an education course. Charles B. McLin, 714 E. Main, is studying for the master of education degree. Instead of dividing the summer session into two short terms, as has been the practice in the past, the university scheduled one eight weeks term this summer. An enlarged education curriculum was scheduled because of the large number of teachers and veterans enrolled this summer. The American black bear has disappeared from most of the plains states.

CHEST TOTAL. PORTLAND, July 20 (AP)—Oregon community chest fund goals for 14 statewide social agencies in 1950 total $525,823. Eleven of the agencies provide care for homeless, dependent and delinquent children. The USO, with a fund goal of $65,000, will be listed in drives in seven counties.
