All Church Picnic To Be Held Sunday

The third annual all church picnic will be held by the congregation of the First Presbyterian church at 12 noon next Sunday. The picnic will be held on the Donald Hunt tract on Lakeshore drive. The congregation and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Each family is asked to bring a contribution of food and table service. Inasmuch as the morning church service is held at 9 o'clock, the picnic will get underway by 12 o'clock or as soon thereafter as possible. Those who need transportation may secure it by coming to the church a few minutes before noon.

Morning worship at 9 o'clock will be led by the pastor, Rev. David Barnett Jr., with Mrs. Elbert Vestich at the organ. The sermon topic is selected from the first verse of the 24th chapter of Joshua, and is entitled, "They Presented Themselves Before God."

The sermon will deal with the vital necessity of making God the central point of reference in all thinking. A vocal solo will be sung by Myra Lien, entitled, "Ye Shall Know the Truth," by W. B. Oaks.

Sunday, July 31, marks the first Sunday in the pastor's vacation period. Three laymen and two ministers have been chosen to conduct worship and preach during his absence. This type of pulpit supply should prove to be of vital interest to the congregation and to the community. Each week detailed announcements will be made regarding these lay preachers. On July 31 the Rev. D. F. Barnett, of Rogue River, will preach and conduct worship.

Evangelistic Service Ready

Rev. D. B. Anderson will speak on the subject "Power Through Weakness" at the 11 a. m. worship service Sunday at Klamath temple. Sunday school classes convene at 9:45 a. m.

The regular evangelistic service is at 7:45 p. m. When Rev. Anderson will present the message "What Wait I For?" The Overcomers classes meet at 6:30 p. m.

Daily Vacation Bible school will start Monday morning and continue for the next two weeks. Classes will be from 9 a. m. to 12 noon, Monday through Friday. The church bus will make its regular round through Stewart-Lennox addition every morning. Theme will be "The Atonement." A cordial invitation is extended to all children between 5 and 13 years old.

The regular Klamath temple broadcast is heard at 7:30 p. m. Saturday on KPFL.

Rev. Swope Plans Two Sermons

Rev. C. W. Swope's topics for his morning and evening sermons at First Christian church this Sunday are, respectively, "Saying 'Lord, Lord'" and "Rock of Ages."

The morning service of divine worship and communion will be at 10:30 a. m.

Christian Endeavor is at 8:30, and the evening preaching service is at 7:30. Mid-week worship and Bible study are Wednesday at 8 p. m.

Merrill Services Schedule Told

MERRILL, July 22—Services at the Merrill Presbyterian church for this Sunday, July 24, are announced as follows: Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; 11:00 a. m. church, "A Sail on the Distant Horizon." Sunday evening at 8:30 there will be a Christian Endeavor picnic at the Warren Ochs home. Each one attending is requested to bring sandwiches and one covered casserole dish.

St. Helens Minister Is Guest Speaker

In the absence of Rev. Kealey C. Prinslow, who is vacationing with his family in California, Rev. Beauford P. Miller of St. Helens is filling the pulpit of the Assembly of God church.

Rev. Miller was pastor of the local church 14 years ago, and is enjoying renewing old acquaintances on his visit here. All are welcome to hear his last sermon at the Klamath church this Sunday. He will also speak at the revival service at Chiloquin Friday evening and at the open air service on Main street in Klamath Falls Saturday evening.

Sunday's schedule includes a radio broadcast at 9 a. m. on KPFL, divine worship, 11 a. m.; evening service, 7:30. Rev. and Mrs. Prinslow will return next week.

Zion Lutheran Sunday School

"What Does Our Baptism Involve?" will be the sermon topic of Rev. Victor A. Schulze, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church, eleventh and High, in the regular service of worship on the sixth Sunday after Trinity beginning at 11 a. m. The Sunday school and Bible class will meet at the regular hour, 9:45 a. m. The Zion Lutheran League youth organization is making plans to hold a picnic outing at Tub springs on the Ashland highway. The group will leave directly at the close of the morning services to attend this joint outing at which the Walthers League from Medford, Grants Pass and Dunsmuir will also be present. Arrangements for the Zion Lutheran League are being made by Audrey Braatz, secretary. All young people and the parents are cordially invited to attend. A cordial invitation is also extended to all services of the Zion Lutheran church is extended.

Peace Memorial Rites Slated

The service of morning worship at the Peace Memorial Presbyterian church will feature a group of the church's young people speaking on their impressions of summer camp.

Three people who were delegates to the Junior high camp at Fir Point will speak on "A Typical Day at Camp." "What the Camp Meant to Me" and "Why I Want to Go Next Year." These three are Shirley Crawford, Marlene Moore and Barbara Simmonds.

Marilee Crawford will tell of her experience at choir school at San Anselmo, Calif. and Stanley McClellan will report on youth synod which was held recently in Portland.

LEAD SERVICE—The Melodiars of LaVerne college, Calif., will lead the service of divine worship at 11 a. m. this Sunday of the Community Church of the Brethren, 4273 Bristol. All are welcome.

Male Quartet To Be Big Feature Of Church Rites

The Melodiars, La Verne college male quartet, will lead the 11 o'clock morning worship service at the Community Church of the Brethren, 4273 Bristol service (off Sunday later).

Members of the quartet are Sherlo Shively, Bakersfield, Calif.; Stan Sutphin, Waterford, Calif.; Gerry Pence, Medford; and Dale Ott, Live Oak, Calif. Assisted by Mrs. Pence and Mrs. Shively, the group will give the full hour worship service including prayer, scripture and a short devotional talk.

This will be one of more than 40 sacred concerts to be given by the Melodiars during July and August as they tour the Pacific coast in the interest of La Verne college, La Verne, Calif., one of five Church of the Brethren colleges throughout the United States. It is the second tour the boys have made of the Pacific coast. During the past year they made 101 public appearances stringing in Y.M.C.A.'s from Phoenix, Ariz., to Seattle, Wash.

Kollenborn To Speak On Sunday

In the absence of the Rev. Martindale Woods, who is attending a Methodist pastor's seminar at the College of Puget Sound in Tacoma, Wash., Cecil Kollenborn, local Y.M.C.A. secretary, will speak at the morning worship service in the First Methodist church on Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. John O'Connor will again be at the console of the organ providing the incidental music for the morning services at the church. The Methodist Youth fellowship will meet in the church parlor at 7 o'clock. Hugh Paul is the adviser of the group.

'Man With 4 Faces' Is Sermon Title

MR. LAKE, July 22—Rev. J. R. DeLap will give the sermon, "The Man With Four Faces," at the 10:45 a. m. worship service at the Mt. Lake church Sunday.
