

Nuptial Mass Read Last Saturday

Mary Kay Gallagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Gallagher, became the bride of Leon Wallaert of Estacada, Oregon, at a nuptial mass on July 16 in the Sacred Heart church with Reverend Father Timothy P. Casey officiating.

The bride, who was escorted down the aisle by her father, wore a beautiful gown of white marquisette with a long train trimmed with ruffles of the same material. Her fingertip length veil fell from a Juliet cap of seed pearls.

She carried a white orchid surrounded by white stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls which were the gift of the groom.

The maid of honor, Helen Triska of Burns, wore a white organza over pale green satin gown with a green sash. A coronet of white sweet peas was in her hair and she carried a colonial bouquet of white sweet peas and roses.

Kathleen Gallagher, sister of the bride, and Mary Margaret White of Ashland, the bridesmaids, were gowned in white organza over pale yellow and pale orchid, respectively. The two wore coronets of sweet peas and carried bouquets of the same flowers.

Little Margaret Rae Gallagher, niece of the bride, wore white over pale pink and carried a basket of rose petals for her duties as flower girl. The ring bearer was Jackie Gallagher, nephew of the bride. He wore a white gabardine suit and carried a heart-shaped pink satin pillow trimmed in lace.

Best man was Vern Gratton, friend of the groom from Estacada. Ushers were Julius Gratton and Marcel Wallaert.

Soloist for the wedding was Patricia O'Leary. She was accompanied by Patricia Clark.

Following the double ring ceremony, a reception was held in the banquet room at the Wusema hotel. Receiving with the bride and groom were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher and Mr. and Mrs. Honor Wallaert.

Mrs. Gallagher was dressed in a dark blue satin and Mrs. Wallaert, mother of the groom, of Estacada, was gowned in a pale blue suit. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Raymond Reeves, Mrs. George Rogers, Mrs. Robert Ross, Mrs. P. L. Bilgich, Mrs. Bernard Johnston, Mrs. Richard Gallagher of Corvallis, Mrs. Lawrence Gallagher of Portland, Mrs. Carl H. Deering of Seattle.

Following the reception the young couple left for a brief honeymoon at the Oregon Caves and the coast. Mrs. Wallaert was lovely in her going away costume which was a dusty rose suit with white accessories.

The two will be at home following the honeymoon in Estacada, Oregon.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jay McKeel of Gresham, sister of the groom, Elaine Callaghan of Portland, cousin of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wallaert, Mr. and Mrs. Jan Wallaert, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Gratton and Mrs. Gratton, all of Estacada.

Patty Stafford, Burns, Micki Hall, Chilouini, Mary Caroline Gersh, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Deering and Michael and Susan of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gallagher and children, Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gallagher and Jackie, Portland, and Mrs. B. G. Shurtlett of Payette, Idaho.

SOCIETY

By Joan Foulon

MR. AND MRS. LEON WALLAERT receive best wishes and congratulations by wire at their wedding breakfast. The two were married on July 16 at the Sacred Heart church. At the left are Mary Kay and her father, John H. Gallagher, as they entered the church for the ceremony.

—Guderian.

Summer Rites Unite Couple

At a pretty summer wedding the afternoon of July 7, Martha Cleveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cleveland of Pasadena, became the bride of William Abbey, the groom is the son of Mrs. Lois Abbey of this city.

Relatives and intimate friends attended the rites which were performed at 3 o'clock at the Cleveland home. Dr. William Roberts, associate pastor at Pasadena Presbyterian church, officiated.

The bride advanced to the altar in a crisp white organza dress. The skirt was made in ballerina fashion with the fullness trimmed at the bottom with tucking. With the gown she wore a white horsehair hat and carried bridal flowers of white orchids.

Her sister, Georgette Cleveland, was the bridesmaid and attended at 3 o'clock at the Cleveland home. Dr. William Roberts, associate pastor at Pasadena Presbyterian church, officiated.

The bride advanced to the altar in a crisp white organza dress. The skirt was made in ballerina fashion with the fullness trimmed at the bottom with tucking. With the gown she wore a white horsehair hat and carried bridal flowers of white orchids.

Her sister, Georgette Cleveland, was the bridesmaid and attended at 3 o'clock at the Cleveland home. Dr. William Roberts, associate pastor at Pasadena Presbyterian church, officiated.

The bride advanced to the altar in a crisp white organza dress. The skirt was made in ballerina fashion with the fullness trimmed at the bottom with tucking. With the gown she wore a white horsehair hat and carried bridal flowers of white orchids.

Her sister, Georgette Cleveland, was the bridesmaid and attended at 3 o'clock at the Cleveland home. Dr. William Roberts, associate pastor at Pasadena Presbyterian church, officiated.

Candlelight Vows Read Recently

At the First Baptist church on June 18, Jimmie Fae Modisett became the bride of Everett J. Bostwick of Ashland. The two were united in a candlelight ceremony read by Rev. S. L. Tidwell before the altar flanked by baskets of pink and white gladioli, palms and candelabra.

Jimmie Fae, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Modisett, was given in marriage by her father at the 7:30 ceremony. The bride wore an ivory satin gown with full train. The dress was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and a fitted bodice. Her full length veil was held in place by a bandeau of white bouvardia.

She carried a white Bible upon which rested a white orchid. White satin streamers fell from the bouquet. She wore a single strand of pearls.

Matron of honor was Mrs. J. T. Modisett, Portland, sister-in-law of the bride, who was gowned in pink. The two bridesmaids, Mrs. L. A. Phillips of Ashland, sister of the bride, and Evelyn Rowland, were gowned in aqua and blue, respectively. All of the attendants carried colonial bouquets and wore white bouvardia bandeaux in their hair.

Flower girl for the wedding was Shirley Rae Tillman of Susanville, Calif., niece of the bride. The little girl, who was gowned in yellow, sprinkled rose bud petals before the path of the bride.

Before the ceremony, L. A. Phillips, brother-in-law of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." Organist was Mrs. Larson.

Gene Morris of Ashland was best man and ushers were T. J. Modisett of Portland, brother of the bride, and Don Wolf of Ashland. The ushers also lit the candles before the ceremony.

Mrs. J. J. Modisett, mother of the bride, who was attired in aqua with black accessories, wore a yellow rosebud corsage. Mrs. Everett Bostwick, mother of the groom, was attired in blue with black accessories and wore a yellow rosebud corsage also.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Serving the cake were Mrs. George Hillman, sister of the bride. Pouring were Mrs. Ola Phillips of Ashland and Mrs. Clifford Cahill of Portland. Assisting were Mrs. Roy Miller, Tulelake, and Mrs. L. W. Rowland.

For her honeymoon trip the bride wore a navy blue suit with white accessories. The white orchid from her bridal bouquet was pinned at her shoulder. The young couple went to San Francisco, Berkeley and Lake Tahoe, and they are now at home here.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Modisett and Cheri, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cahill, all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bostwick and Norma, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Phillips, Mrs. Ola Phillips, Don Wolf, Gene Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Steiler, Clansy Plymell, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wolff, all of Ashland.

Mrs. Roy Miller and Susan of Tulelake, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wade of Sacramento, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. George Tillman, and Gary and Shirley of Susanville, Calif.

Weddings Fill Season

INVITATIONS ARE IN THE MAIL for several weddings scheduled for August. Jerry O'Callaghan, son of Mrs. Leo Sagehorn of Fort Bidwell, Calif., is to be married on the sixth to Florence Sheehan at Hartford, Conn. The parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sheehan of that city.

Plans have also been made for the nuptials of Lois Cada, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cada, and George Long, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Long. The rites are planned for 3 o'clock, August 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kent have been off seeing the ocean for the past few weeks. The two have been relaxing at Ocean Lake, a lovely spot on the Oregon coast. Daughter Joy has been skipping around the countryside, too. At present she is in Coronado, Calif., with a sorority sister, Nannette Burroni, for a 10-day outing on the beach.

A YOUNG COUPLE well-known in Klamath Falls, Lettie and Dick Hicks, have moved to Bend. Dick was graduated in June from the University of Oregon and he has now taken his wife and young son, Brent, to Bend where he will manage the Hicks Grocery service.

Acquaintances about town have been receiving postcards from Eva Burkhalter who is in Boston now. Miss Burkhalter has been attending the National Education association convention as a representative of the city district. She plans to travel in the East before returning here.

Mable Carter lit the candles on the cake Wednesday for her husband's birthday. Harlan and the neighbor next door, Herb Berry, joint guests of honor, celebrated their July 20 birthday together.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Green of New Brunswick, N. J., were here a few days ago to visit with relatives in Klamath Falls. Dr. Green, who is the brother of Mrs. Helen Mueller, is on his month's vacation from the research department of Squibb, Inc., where he is with the chemistry department.

HERE FOR A VISIT with her parents has been Mrs. Clayton Adams, (Barbara Beane), Barbara dropped by for a few days before going to Santa Rosa where she and her husband are moving. Mr. and Mrs. Adams have been living in San Lorenzo, Calif.

Back after a trip to Lake Tahoe are Mr. and Mrs. George Brostehous and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Erlanson. The two couples took a few days to see the Nevada landmark.

PLAYING HOSTESS to her two sisters recently is Mrs. John Martin. Mrs. James Caley, from Grafton, N. D., and daughter, Kathleen, were house guests for two weeks. During their visit they were taken to see our local landmarks, such as Crater lake.

Another sister, Ann Heffner, of Los Angeles, is visiting now at the Martin home. Ann will remain for several weeks also.

Other visitors here are Mrs. Paul Donnes and Ann Igl who are spending the summer visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Schomaker at their home on LeRoy street.

Mrs. Victor O'Neill also has a visitor, Miss Gertrude Bartoo, of Pasadena, Calif. Miss Bartoo is a cousin of Mrs. O'Neill.

Friends bade goodbye this week to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Harvey, Jimmy and Lynn, who left Friday afternoon for Fresno, Calif., their new home. He has been here the past two years with the bureau of reclamation office of land management on the big job of World War II homestead drawings, and is transferring to the California city with the bureau. Friends at the USBR office gathered for a potluck supper in their honor Thursday evening.

EXPECTED TO RETURN this week-end on the Shasta Daylight are Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wood and their daughter, Mrs. John Yadon, who have been visiting for some time in Alaska. They left here June 27, and spent some time in Portland before going by boat from Seattle to Juneau, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Schultz, another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woods.

While in Juneau, Mrs. Yadon met the retiring president of the League of Women Voters there, and was quite interested in discussing league problems and ideas with her. She also attended a League of Women Voters tea at the governor's mansion in Juneau. Mrs. Yadon is a member of the state league board.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bogatay and children, Richard, Bobbie and Jo Anne, left last week for Seattle and Yakima to visit relatives and do vacation in the northern spots.

The George McIntyre family and the L. A. Murphys spent the week-end at Lake o' the Woods. While there the Murphys visited their daughter, Jackie Mae, at Scout camp. For the visit Jackie managed to acquire a sprained ankle. However, it wasn't serious enough to warrant a trip home.

TWO 75-YEAR-OLD visitors stepped off the plane recently for their first visit in Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Simons of Cherokee, Iowa, are here visiting with their sons, and families, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Simons and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Simons.

The young Simons plan to show them Crater lake while they are here. At the present Mr. and Mrs. Simons are visiting Lorne at Lindley Heights.

Mrs. Alice Hershberger and daughter, June, were passengers on the Daylight this week, bound for Portland to be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Reich, and son, Clarence, June's fiance. The wedding will be next month.

Charlene Harmon Married In Eugene

Ivy and white tapers and tall baskets of white gladioli decorated the Central Presbyterian church in Eugene June 26 when Bennie Charlene Harmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harmon of Eugene, formerly of Klamath Falls, became the bride of LeBron Camp Preston of Roseburg.

The vows were read to the couple by Rev. Paul S. Mellish at the three o'clock double ring ceremony.

Gowned in white slipper satin, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her dress was made with a fitted bodice and long sleeves. The skirt was trimmed with tiny ruffles of satin and lace fashioned over hoops.

She had a full court length train, and the illusion net veil was held in place by a starched lace Dutch cap dotted with seed pearls. The headpiece was borrowed from Nadine Palmerton Hanks, and her white satin ballet slippers were loaned by Peggy Bishop O'Conner.

Her flowers were a cascade of stephanotis centered with a white orchid. She carried a lace and linen handkerchief loaned by Mrs. E. D. Hamacher, Medford, and her Jobs Daughters prayerbook.

Three sorority sisters of the bride were Charlene's attendants. Maid of honor was Shirley Mason, who wore orchid marquisette made with a bustle back. She wore long marquisette mitts and an arrangement of white carnations in her hair. Her bouquet also was of white carnations.

Mary Havens and Barbara Osburn wore frocks similar to that of the honor attendant and carried bouquets of white carnations.

Jean Young, Eugene, another sorority sister of the bride, sang "Because" and "I Love Thee." Preceding the ceremony the organist played a medley of Tau Kappa Epsilon sweetheart songs.

Jack Rickell, Roseburg, was best man, and ushers were John Braun, Wenatchee, Wash., and Ted Ranlett, Spokane, Wash.

Mrs. Harmon wore a floor-length gown of mauve chiffon over satin with a matching orchid headpiece and orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was gowned in grey crepe with a matching grey and orchid headpiece and an orchid corsage.

A reception was held in the Mirror room of the Eugene hotel. Mrs. Ralph Fence presided at the reception. Mrs. James D. Nally Sr. of Nashville, Tenn., aunt of the bride, Mrs. James Burrows of McMinnville, sister of the bridegroom, and Jane Weber of Portland served the cake.

Eleanor Thomas presided at the punch bowl and Jean Young had the guest book.

The couple drove to Seattle for their wedding trip. For traveling the bride chose a light blue suit with grey accessories and an orchid from her bouquet. They are now at home in Eugene.

Both bride and groom were graduated from the University of Oregon last June. Charlene was affiliated with Sigma Kappa sorority and the groom with Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

LeBron is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Preston, Roseburg.

Catholic Church Wedding Scene

In a simple ceremony at Sacred Heart Catholic church, Norma Lee Sanda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Ashlock of Englewood, Kas., traded vows with Thomas Allen Frey of Tulelake.

The nuptial mass took place at 9:30 Wednesday, July 6, with Rev. Father Timothy P. Casey officiating.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Frey of Tulelake.

White stock and other summer blossoms decked the church. Organist was Susan Vandenberg, who played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Ellen O'Keefe, soloist.

For her wedding the bride chose a white suit of soft light wool, made in dressmaker fashion. Her white bonnet-type hat was trimmed with matching veiling. The prayer book she carried was marked with satin streamers and a single white orchid.

Maid of honor was Katherine Ashcraft, a close friend of the bride, who was attired in a suit of aqua with white accessories. A pink rosebud corsage was pinned at the lapel.

Best man was Arlin Anderson, and ushers were John Bailey and Stanley Bradbury.

The bride walked down the aisle escorted by Clark Fensler.

A reception and buffet breakfast followed in the Pelican party room, where a three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the newlyweds. Serving were Mrs. J. B. Brown and Mrs. Louise Fenning. Mrs. Stanley Bradbury passed the guest book. Mrs. E. W. Staunton played incidental piano music throughout the reception.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Frey have returned to Tulelake where they are at home following a wedding trip to the Oregon coast.

CHARLENE HARMON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harmon of Eugene, formerly of this city, became the bride of LeBron Camp Preston of Roseburg in Eugene, June 26. The two are now living in Eugene.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Birthday

Jim Case was honored recently on the occasion of his 31st birthday at a party given by Dolores Steele at the J. R. Steele home. The guests were treated to an outdoor dinner after which Jim opened his gifts.

Guests at the affair were Steve Stone, Milton Thompson, Mary Lou Case, John Epley, Malcolm Epley Jr., Helein Jackson, George Greenwood of Berkeley, Calif., Lois Lee Kandra, Ronald Newton and the honored guest.

Games were played during the evening and entertainment was furnished by Steve Stone on the piano and Ron Newton with his guitar.

MRS. WILLIAM ABBEY, who was Martha Cleveland before her marriage, July 7. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cleveland of Pasadena, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Lois Abbey of this city. After the summer in Eugene, the young couple will go to Hood River where Bill will be a coach.

—Fehly, Eugene.