Gems Assume Point Bulge In Far West

Hesse Knocks In Winning Runs As Pittsburg Loses

An eventful time was had by the Gems and a near-capacity crowd of fans last night out at the stadium and when the air had cleared from two last-inning rallies Klamath Falls had defeated the Marysville Braves 12-11 and also had taken over a tentative first place in the Far West league.

The Gems moved around the Pittsburg Diamonds as the Diamonds lost 6-1 to Willows, breaking a 10-game winning streak. Klamath Falls is three points ahead in percentage and half a game back in games won and lost.

Five hundred orchids handed out by the Gems to lady customers last night went fast, so a good portion of the crowd was feminine. The girls were treated to a rough and tumble game that the Gems finally won on Pinky Hesse's sharp single to left center in the bottom of the ninth.

Earlier the Gems almost gave it away. They were leading 10-7 as the Braves came to bat in the top of the ninth and the fireworks began. Johnny Lopeman struck out the first Brave, hit Don Maddern with a pitch and got Rex Carr to pop up. Ben Jeffey singled to right and Max Anthony singled to center, scoring Maddern.

Outfielder Jack Sherratt then slammed a triple to left center to tie up the game and when the throw from the outfield went past Catcher Dick Descalso to the stands Sherratt headed for home. Lopeman retrieved the ball while Descalso covered the place but the catcher muffed the toss and Sherratt was safe. Marysville led 11-10.

BUNT STRATEGY

In the bottom of that inning Butch Faller batted for Lopeman and walked. Nordell bunted and Faller slid into second safely. Then Jack Buick bunted down the third base line and the bases were loaded.

Hesse took a couple of pitches and then broke up the game by slicing a single into left center to score Stan Gilson and Nordell. Gilson ran for Faller.

The game was marked by four errors on each side but some remarkable fielding anyhow. Ben Jeffey and Hesse, rival centerfielders, made strictly big-league catches several times. Bill Ashley, Braves' first baseman, robbed the Gems of two hits with his remarkable work on grounders and Jack Buick stole a hit from the Braves on one catch in "Texas league" territory.

Lopeman went all the way for the Gems to gain his thirteenth victory of the season. Charlie Smith worked seven innings for the Braves, replaced by Russ Raymond and later by Herb Hamilt in the eighth. Hamilt was the loser.

Bill Reese hit his twelfth homer of the season in the fourth.

HOMER RECORD

He'll have a hard time catching Ray Perry, though. Perry hit No. 38 last night, with the bases loaded, at Redding whipped Vallejo 7-3. Any the Redding manager hits from now on sets a new league record. He had 38 last season.

Medford further humiliated Santa Rosa last night 26-2, with home runs by Chuck Cheshier, Bill Pinckard, Ken Millberger and Milt Lindberg.

Lee Freese, lanky righthander of the Willows Cards, was the Pittsburg stopper. He held the Diamonds to three hits.

The Gems and Marysville meet on the diamond again tonight at 7:45, have a split doubleheader tomorrow at 2:15 and 7:45.

ALLEN ABNER shines club preparatory to blasting those long drives in the county golf tournament which got under way today.

Tourney Started

First round games of the Klamath county golf tournament were being fired this morning and afternoon over the Reames Country club layout and a full day of play is scheduled tomorrow.

The tournament, sponsored by KFJI, is a 72-hole affair with golfers getting in 36 holes this week-end and their other 36 next Saturday and Sunday. Top prize and the toga of the county champion will go to the entrant carding the lowest medal score over the 72 holes, and a similar trophy goes to the handicap or low net winner.

Other merchandise prizes being offered during the tourney are for bogey shots including the drive nearest the pin on No. 3 and No. 7, lowest net total for nine holes and the like.

Sunday pairings and tee time:

8:00—Gus Anderson, Jack Howard, Bill Bratton, Wes McNee Sr.
8:05—John West Sr., Dan Gilbert, L. Stippich, Bill Perrin.
8:15—Carl Woods, Lloyd Peters, John Penny, Paul Landry.
8:15—John West Jr., Adolph Zamsky, Alan Abner, Harley Hull.
8:25—Ray Beeber, Norman Moty, Ken Robertsen, Moon Mullis.
8:30—Willis Wood, Frank Hall, George Brosterhous, Virgil Stewart.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

Hollywood, Calif.—Turkey Thompson, 211½, Los Angeles, knocked out Big Bill Petersen, 213, Seattle, 2.

Miami, Fla.—Chuck Taylor, 146½, Coalport, Pa., outpointed Glen Hendershot, 147½, Miami, 10.

Stock Car Injures 11

WESTBORO, Mass., July 23 (AP) A "stock" car went out of control and hurtled into a crowd, injuring 11, during a race at Westboro stadium last night.

The car, driven by Peter Read, 30, of Marblehead, plunged through a guard rail, went over a nine-foot wire mesh and landed in a section of wooden bleachers.

None of the injured was reported seriously hurt at Memorial hospital in Worcester. Read escaped with a rib injury.

Oregon City Drops Dayton

PORTLAND, July 23 (AP)—Dayton was dumped from the state semi-pro baseball tournament last night, the first team to fall out of the running.

Oregon City turned in four runs in the seventh to win 6 to 3 and push the Dayton outfit off the diamond.

Earlier, a big ex-Reedsport high school athlete, Clyde DeWitt, pitched a one-hit game to give Reedsport a surprise 4 to 0 shutout over the usually strong Portland Reliance team. DeWitt had a no-hit, no-run game until the top of the seventh when ex-Portland Beaver Bill Carney beat out a bunt after two outs.

In the first game, Dallas-Valsetz scored four in the seventh to win, 7 to 3, over Norgan's Beavers of Portland.

Day Steps Out

PORTLAND, July 23 (AP)—Declaring he was dissatisfied with the boxing setup in Portland, Jack Day resigned yesterday as city boxing commissioner.

He expressed particular displeasure over a decision in a week-end main event, in which Referee Jim Maloney awarded Dick Wolfe, Portland, the nod over Paul Kennedy of Longview.

Dodgers, Cards Head Toward Photo Finish

Munger Clips Bums Lead With 3-1 Five-Hit Victory

By the Associated Press

Separated by only one and one-half games with 10 full weeks to go, the one-two clubs appear ready for another long scramble to the wire. Boston still is in the race and the Phillies and New York Giants have an outside chance, but it figures to be either the Dodgers or Cards at this stage.

George (Red) Munger clipped a full game off the Brooks' slim lead last night with a 3-1 victory in the opener of the year's first "crooshul" series in the National. The Cards could leave town in first place if they could sweep the set ending Monday afternoon.

Munger could mean the difference between these two closely matched clubs. His five-hitter that snapped Preacher Roe's seven-game win streak was his third straight over Brooklyn.

BRAVES MOVE

The Braves moved within six games of the Dodgers by downing Pittsburgh, 5-3, but their victory may have been costly. Vern Bickford was carried off the field with an injured left instep after being struck by Clyde McCullough's line drive in the seventh. As Bickford is the defending champs' top winner with 12, his absence for any extended period would be a vital blow to their chances of repeating. Eddie Stanky was blanked after hitting in 19 consecutive games.

Robin Roberts saved a win for Russ Meyer by taming Cincinnati with the bases loaded and none out in the eighth inning for a 2-1 Phil triumph. Roberts couldn't hold Meyer's shutout but escaped with the decision by allowing only one run on a force play.

CIRCUIT CLOUT

Hank Sauer's nineteenth homer with a man on helped Chicago down the New York Giants, 6-5, as Johnny Schmitz survived 11 Giant hit to go the route. Sam Webb, who relieved Monte Kennedy in the fifth, dished up the home run ball to Sauer in the seventh to suffer his first loss.

Tommy Byrne tamed Detroit with five hits, 8-2, protecting the New York Yankees' 5½ game lead over Cleveland in the American league. Byrne's fourth success against the Tigers this season was the Yanks' sixth win in 10 starts in the current western trip.

TUCKER STARS

Thurman Tucker, Larry Doby's replacement in the Cleveland outfield, drove in both runs in the Tribe's 10-inning 2-1 squeaker over Washington. His second single scored Pitcher Mike Garcia with the tie-breaking run in the tenth. Garcia was superb with a fine six-hitter to make his record 8-3. It was his second straight six-hit victory.

Vern Stephens hit his 24th homer and Ted Williams blasted No. 23 in Boston's 4-2 verdict over the St. Louis Browns. Mel Parnell gave up eight hits to six off Ned Garver in registering his thirteenth win. Dom DiMaggio ended his consecutive game hitting streak to 17 with a single.

Chicago routed the Philadelphia A's 12-0, scoring eight runs in the first inning. Connie Mack let Carl Scheib take a beating. Scheib pitched the complete game, giving up 18 hits and eight walks while the A's were blanked by Randy Gumpert. It was Gumpert's fourteenth route-going job. The Mackmen have lost 13 of their last 16 starts, eight of 11 in the west.

New PCC Comish

LOS ANGELES, July 2 (AP)—Albert S. (ABB) Curtis of Fort Worth, Tex., for 20 years a football and basketball official in the southwest, is the new supervisor of Pacific Coast conference officials in those sports.

Curtis, referee in six Cotton Bowl games, was named yesterday by PCC Commissioner Victor O. Schmidt.

Aussies Need Split

MONTREAL, July 23 (AP) — Australia's Davis cup tennis players need merely split today's two singles with Canada to reach the finals of the American zone competition.

Thanks to a doubles conquest yesterday, the stoutly favored Aussies gained a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five semifinals tie. Veteran John Bromwich and young Frank Sedgman, Australia's singles king, easily defeated Canadians Brendan Macken and Walter Stolhberg, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2. Fine team work, volleying and net play featured the victors' play.

City Tennis Tourney Adds Consolation

Something new has been added to the city tennis tourney, which gets under way tomorrow morning on the Moore park courts, with the addition of a consolation bracket in men's singles, Activity Director Loren Hughes announced Friday.

In addition to the trophy that will go to the number one and two in the men's singles, the first place consolation winner will also be the recipient of a trophy.

Pairings will not be made until late today, with the signing deadline set for this afternoon.

Pairings will be posted early Sunday morning and participants are urged to be at the park early.

First seeded player is Eddie Dent, followed by Ken Karnes, Raymond Tice and Bill Crawford.

Hughes said that as many elimination rounds in the men's singles as is possible will be run off tomorrow because of the large field and the adding of the consolation bracket will necessitate more matches.

At noon Friday 22 men had signed for singles play.

First round losers will remain in the running for the consolation prize.

Other brackets to see action all of next week, working up to the Sunday, July 31, finals are women's division, where eight have signed, mixed doubles, junior boys and girls (15 to 19 years of age) and youngsters, both boys and girls between 12 and 14.

Portland Duo Reach Finals

SEATTLE, July 23 (AP)—It will be down to cases today in the Washington state tennis championships as semi-finals are completed in the major divisions and titles are decided among the young contestants.

The state's only hope of capturing the men's singles crown lies with Fred Fisher, University of Washington collegiate doubles champion, who meets Bob Lewis of Salt Lake City at 3 p. m., in the round-of four.

Fisher already had advanced to the semis. Lewis got there yesterday by defeating fifth-seeded Jack Lowe, Seattle, 3-6, 6-4, 6-4.

In the other semifinals match at 1 p. m., Jim Kroesen of San Francisco takes on Jack Shoemaker of UCLA, who was idle yesterday. Kroesen came from behind to oust unseeded Herb Suhr, San Francisco, 2-6, 6-4, 6-4.

The Portland duo of Emery Neale and Stan Anderson reached the finals of the men's doubles with a 6-4, 6-4, 7-9, 3-6, 6-3, triumph over Shoemaker and Glen Bassett, also of UCLA.

Battle Of Birdies

Snead, Metz Lead Inverness Play

TOLEDO, O., July 23 (AP)—Masters and PGA Champion Sam Snead and Dapper Dick Metz, his partner, looked natural today atop the $15,000 Inverness four-ball standings as the battle of birdies banged into the fourth of seven rounds.

The terrific twosome owed a tip of the hat to Freddie Haas and Dave Douglas, however, for the latter pair mussed up the 6858-yard Inverness layout with a best ball 72, one over par, in yesterday's third round to drop a four-down decision to the leaders.

The 72 was the poorest round in 12 years of Inverness matches, not a birdie being scored by the Haas-Douglas duo. The Snead-Metz performance wasn't too hot, the winning 68 score being tested by every other team in the tourney except the victims.

Haas and Douglas had a tough day, losing both of yesterday's matches by four holes, one with a 67 to Lloyd Mangrum and Johnny Palmer.

The Snead-Metz pair is 20 under par, and has scored 20 birdies, in winning its three matches. However, Mangrum-Palmer and the Bob Hamilton-Chick Harbert twosome have counted 26 birdies each and are 26 under par, but are deadlocked in second place, four points off the pace.

Dr. Cary Middlecoff, National Open champion, and Partner Jim Ferrier, the Australian-born former PGA champ, have matched the 20-birdie, 20-under par performance of the leaders, but are 11 points back in sixth place with a minus three rating.

H'wood Falters, Sacs Up

By the Associated Press

The big double-play question batting around the Pacific Coast league today is: What's happened to Hollywood and Sacramento?

The movietown lads, far in front most of the season, suffered their seventh trimming in nine starts last night. They've dropped four of their five games in the current series with Los Angeles, the loop's cellar club.

On the other hand, the Sacramento Solons, among the tail-enders most of the way this year, scored their fifteenth win in their last 17 starts last night. The Solons have a firm hold on second place—only four and a half games back of first place Hollywood.

ANGELS WIN

In their latest go, the Angels pounced on three star hurlers for 16 safeties to win 10-3. Six Angel tallies materialized after two outs in the fourth frame, three on Clarence Maddern's eleventh homer. Don Carlsen went the route with a seven-hitter.

Sacramento trimmed San Diego 10-3, with Max West's 34th circuit smash good for two of the loser's runs. The Solons scored six times in the first frame on three singles, three doubles and a hit batter. Orv Grove was the winning hurler. Sacramento leads the series four games to none.

BEVOS LOSE

Seattle snapped a three-game losing streak to shade Portland 6-5. Tony York's long double scoring Heinz Becker with the winning run in the final frame. York starred at the plate, collecting a homer and a brace of singles besides his double in five trips. The Beavers still lead the series, three to two.

Oakland broke a 4-4 deadlock by erupting for nine runs in the eighth to whip San Francisco 13-4. In the wild eighth, the Acorns batted more than once around to come within one run of equalling their own coast league mark, set earlier this season, of nine runs scored before an out was made. Nine hits and one Seal error turned the trick.

Seal Brooks Holder and Acorn Goldsberry each homered during the fracas. The Oaks have a three-two series bulge.

Today's schedule:

San Francisco (Con Dempsey 11-9) at Oakland (Charley Gassaway 10-7).

Portland (Tommy Bridges 9-7) at Seattle (Guy Fletcher 16-7).

San Diego (Xavier Rescigno 7-9) at Sacramento (Tom Rose 2-4).

Los Angeles (Brooker McDaniels 5-4) at Hollywood (Willie Ramsdell 11-4).

(All night games except San Francisco at Oakland.)

KC Whips Kalpine

Cracking Ki Carrier blasted a home run and a triple last night in Merrill to lead his Knights of Columbus mates to a 9 to 6 victory over the faltering Kalpine team.

In the nightcap the Eagles finally dropped their first game, but it was a non-league affair. The Ashland Oak street Tankers exploded for five runs in the ninth inning after the score was deadlocked, 6-6, at the end of the regular seven, to win, 11-6.

Short scores:	R	H	E
K. C.	9	9	4
Kalpine	6	8	9

K.C.: Kujack and K. Carrier; Kalpine: Zimmerman and Fett.

Tankers	11	14	0
Eagles	6	8	6

Tankers: Flink and Riggs. Eagles: Ashby and J. Derrah.

Steele Busted

SEATTLE, July 23 (AP)—Though he once earned thousands in the ring and the movies, Freddie Steele, former world's middleweight champion, is virtually broke.

His financial condition was thus described yesterday when he appeared in superior court on a show-cause citation in connection with a separate maintenance suit filed by his estranged wife, Evelyn, on behalf of herself and their two children, Sharon, 7, and David, 10.
