

Diamond Lake YMCA Camp Work Slated

Ground is being cleared and construction started as the first steps in establishment of a district YMCA camp at Diamond Lake.

One hundred acres on the southwest edge of the lake have been obtained from the forest service as a camp site and YMCA chapters participating include Grants Pass, Roseburg, Ashland, Medford and Klamath Falls.

Construction work has started on a dining hall, for which a portion of $1600 is available. Part of the $1600 will go toward a hospital building. In addition, $5000 has been earmarked for building of a lodge.

Because of its local building program, the Klamath YMCA chapter is not stressing cash donations toward establishing the camp. Instead the Y is asking for volunteer labor and building materials which are badly needed.

A record of materials, labor and funds being donated by each of the five communities is being maintained, and any which has not contributed its full share will be assessed an additional fee added to the regular fee for each child participating in the camp until the difference is made up.

Ten members of the local Y hope to go to camp Monday to help with the work, however transportation and food are needed for them. Also, any skilled carpenter able to go with them would be extremely valuable. They will be gone two weeks.

Any additional information or contributions may be made by calling the Y office, 9279.

HOW MANY WOULD YOU SAY?—Technicians Albert Miller and Tommy Thompson, here with the state board of health mobile laboratory last week made bacteria counts from swab samples taken from dishes and cutlery in use in local eating establishments. Four cups, four glasses and four forks were taken from each restaurant in the test which is part of the overall board of health sanitation check made annually.

Early Days Logging Tale Told To Group

The story of early-day acquisition of huge stands of timber by the big operators of those days was related by H. Brown, old-time timber cruiser and representative of the Walker interests at Canby, in a talk to the Modoc Council of Natural Resources in session at Canby last night.

Brown told how individual timber claims were purchased and big stands of timber obtained by use of "script" issued when the government took over a large area in Arizona and issued such script to the dispossessed owners of land there, the script being good for acquisition of United States timber elsewhere.

This script became commodity on the market and was the basis of a number of the big timber acquisitions. T. B. Walker, world-renowned for his big timber holdings, acquired 900,000 acres of pine stands in Northern California, the backlog for such big operations as that of the Red River Lumber company at Westwood.

Several Klamath Falls men attended the meeting at Canby. The Ralph L. Smith Lumber company was born.

Among those present was Willard Constans, formerly with Weyerhaeuser here, who now lives in Pasadena and is handling sales for the Smith interests.

In a normal year, nearly three million tons of sheet steel are used in making tin plate for cans.

Liquor Trial Postponed

A postponement asked by the prosecution in a justice court trial involving a charge of selling liquor to minors against operators of a local tavern has been granted.

Walt Gibson and William Lindy, operators of the Spot tavern on S. 6th, are accused of selling beer to high school boys last May. They are free on $150 bail each, and were to have gone on trial tomorrow morning.

The district attorney's office, Justice of the Peace J. A. Mahoney said, asked for a continuance until September because some witnesses are out of town.

Moore Back From Confab

Vern Moore, exalted ruler of the Elks lodge, returned recently from a 16-day trip to Cleveland, O., where he attended the 1949 Elks convention. For the trip to Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Moore took the northern route via the Emmett Anderson special Elks train.

While on the trip they stopped at Chicago and Detroit. At Chicago they visited the three and a half million dollar Elks memorial shrine for war dead. They also viewed the ritualistic contest at the convention, which was won by the group from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and the Elks convention parade.

Moore was one of 27 exalted rulers from Oregon who attended the convention.

Two Choirs Feature Of Biblical Play

Two large choirs of trained voices will be a special feature of the Biblical drama, "The Light Eternal," currently under production by the Congregational church for presentation August 2, in the OTI theatre.

John O'Connor, choir director for the play, invites all members of church choirs to attend rehearsal at the OTI theatre at 7:30 p. m. Friday. Hymns of all churches will be included in the repertoire including famous Christmas carols which will be used in the nativity scene.

Rehearsals for other scenes of the play are progressing, with additional members of the cast announced as Earl Bertrand, Kenny Smith and Loren Stroud who will be featured in the "Ten Commandments" scene, singing such spirituals as "Go Down Moses" and "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen."

Athena Lampropoulos will also appear in a scene, singing "Ave Maria" with Mary Stone and Mrs. Elsie Lowell in stellar roles.

Grand finale of the play includes the famous old missionary hymn, "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations," rendered by all voices.

Mrs. L. Parker directs the play, proceeds of which will go to the church for furthering the church extension program.

Accident Victims Said Improving

Klamath Valley hospital reported today that several accident patients of the past few days are all recovering nicely.

Grace Darling Sharp, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident near Lakeview about a week ago, is in good condition, following surgery at Klamath Valley.

Mrs. Alfred Bono and her mother, Mrs. Flora Hurst, both of San Pedro, Calif., received chest and shoulder injuries respectively in a car smash-up at Gilchrist early this week. Both are also doing nicely.

Stewart Vandervort of route 3 box 641 suffered a severely broken arm when he was hit by a car July 25, but he is recovering and is allowed to have visitors.

Resting comfortably is Steve Kovch, 66, of route 3 box 1054, who was also hit by an automobile last Saturday. Hospital attendants say he is doing well.

Boys Sign Up For Day Camp

Enrollment for boys' day camp at Moore park, August 1 and 2, and 8 and 9, is still open, the city recreation department announced today.

The camp for boys 8 to 12 years old will be held the first two days of each of the first two weeks in August.

Safety precautions in handling outdoor tools and equipment, skills and shortcuts to comfortable outdoor living, will be taught the boys at these sessions. Handicrafts will also be taught, and milk provided.

A small fee of $1.25 per boy for the four days' camp will be charged to cover expenses of bus service, handcraft materials and the milk. Boys should bring sack lunches.

Further information may be obtained in the recreation office, city hall. Registration must also be made there.

WHY WE SAY

"One horse," meaning small, is traced to farming, where the prosperous ones had at least a team of horses. A farmer owning only one horse was recognized as a small operator and the phrase "one horse" gradually came to mean anything done on a small scale.

be afraid that if we do refuse, we'll lose our jobs?"

Could anything be more contemptible?

THIS is the point:

If the congress can and DOES take over the responsibility of deciding whether or not we will share our atomic secrets with other nations, it CAN AND SHOULD TAKE OVER ITS CONSTITUTIONAL RESPONSIBILITY TO KEEP THE UNITED STATES SOLVENT.

THIS atomic secrets business is probably a lot of moonshine. Nobody yet ever kept a secret. Nobody, probably, ever will. Secrets just naturally leak out. The atom bomb's usefulness to us will depend on our industrial know-how which so far has enabled us to keep ahead of the rest of the world in manufacturing bombs on a vaster scale than anybody else can.

The big thing is this faint hint, this cloud on the horizon no larger than a man's hand, which MIGHT indicate that maybe congress is preparing to reassert itself.

If it does that, it CAN save us from national bankruptcy.
