

THEY MISS THEIR MOMMY—These five little bobcats, said to be from five to six weeks old, were found in their den during a hiking trip taken by the W. F. Templin family, 1530 Lookout, last Saturday.

BOYLE'S COLUMN

Poor Man's Baedeker Of New York City, For Free

By HAL BOYLE NEW YORK. (AP)—So you're coming to visit New York this summer for the first time?

And your ailing rich uncle hasn't died yet and left you his money, so you have to travel on your own pocketbook? And you want to know whether anybody can come here and have fun on a small budget?

Brother, at least 7,000,000 of the people who live here will tell you "yes" — with some qualifications.

You can do it if you have a real curiosity to see and know as much as you can of this circus too big to put under canvas. But if your idea of heaven is to sipper at gilded celebrities in plush supper clubs night after night—why, better wait until your uncle dies.

The best things in New York—its wonderful window displays, its famous streets, its great stores, its history-crowded museums, its skyscrapers, its tremendous views—cost little or nothing to see. And the people, the fabulous, fabulous people of this fabulous city, they are the best show of all—and free.

But there is a time to see things best. Go at the right time for each. Go out to Coney Island on a steaming Sunday and see human-ty on the half shell. That is still the New York that O. Henry wrote about. And so is the bowery and Chinatown—and the edge of Greenwich village. It's best to see them at night, and the subway will take you to any of those places for a dime.

But let's start at the beginning. When you get off your train or bus, treat yourself to a cab ride to your hotel. If you don't know a good, clean, reasonably-priced one, ask the hickie. Unless you give him the idea you're just in from Fort Knox, Kentucky, he'll steer you straight.

Even though your budget is tight you can still work it so that you eat at least once in a big-name restaurant, see a Broadway play and take in a fine concert. Timing is important in these things too. Go to the restaurant at lunch.

The prices are usually scaled lower at mid-day—and you are just as likely to see a celebrity then. Hit the theatre boxoffices half an hour before curtain time. At all except the top musicals or "Death of a Salesman" you'll probably be able to pick up a pair of tickets.

If you're a music lover, you can listen to some of the world's best talent at evening concerts under the stars at Lewisohn stadium. And the prices, tax paid, range from thirty cents to $2. Major league baseball isn't too high. Go to see the Dodgers play at night—then you won't have to add the cost of a bottle of sunburn lotion to the price of your bleacher seat.

Don't fail to go up to the top of the Empire State building. Take a trip through Rockefeller center.

See the Rockettes in the Radio City Music hall. Ride the ferry to Staten Island and enjoy the greatest view and the longest over-water ride on the globe for a nickel. All are good buys.

But walking and gawking are the finest fun here if your arches are strong. Stroll through the garment district any week day at noon; Wall street, deserted on a Saturday afternoon; and Times Square on Saturday night, the biggest country town in America.

Two final important tips: (1) Don't change any $2 (or $20) bills for strangers. (2) When in doubt about anything, ask a cop. If you can't understand him, ask again. He may be from Brooklyn.

"Lion's Teeth" Dandelion comes from the teeth of lion, and was so called because the leaves of this plant are notched like lions' teeth in profile.

Publishers Have Problems

NEW YORK. (AP)—Publishers sometimes get some strange orders. The Columbia University Press puzzled over a request for "Behavior in Pants", but finally filled it with a copy of "Behavior Development in Infants."

Another man ordered a copy of "United Nations Charter." It turned out he wanted the deluxe ATHLETES FOOT ICH NOT HARD TO KICK IN ONE HOUR.

edition of the "United Nations Charter." In its magazine "The Pleasures of Publishing," the Columbia Press gives some other curious examples.

"The person who ordered 'Algebraic Emotions' probably wanted a copy of 'Algebraic Equations.' Someone with mother-in-law trouble must have asked for 'Crime in Relation to Relations.' We sent a copy of 'Crime in its Relations to Social Progress.' An animal lover (or hater) wrote in for 'Dog Catcher.' The nearest we could come
