Chiloquin

Elaine Mangum left a week ago to spend a two-week vacation in southern California, where she formerly lived. Elaine was accompanied by a friend, Marcelline Evans of Grants Pass, who has been visiting the Mangums since school was out this spring. The two girls went from Chiloquin to Grants Pass where they were joined by Marcelline's sister, Gloria, who continued to California with them.

Mrs. Ray Powell and her young son, Michael, have returned from an 18-day trip to Santa Barbara, Calif., where they attended a family reunion. Mrs. Powell's four brothers and sisters, her mother, and the grandchildren were present. The youngest brother made the trip from Honolulu to be present for the reunion. It was the first time Mrs. Powell had seen this brother for 12 years.

From a Redding Record-Search light newspaper article of July 11 comes an item of interest to many local residents who knew the Merle Nathan Pittullo family who lived here for a few months two years ago. On Sunday, July 10, the Pittulos were moving their household belongings by truck from Ashland to Tulelake, Calif. where Pittullo plans to work in cattle dealing, and the brakes caught on fire, quickly spreading to the rest of the truck causing a total loss of their property, including the purse in which they were carrying their money. They were stopped by a motorist, but escaped with only their own lives, those of the dogs, and managed to pull out two saddles and an old trunk filled with old clothes. Lost were an electric range, sewing machine, small electrical appliances, furniture and clothing.

Mr. and Mrs. Pittullo were accompanied by their five-year-old daughter, Dorothy. Their 18-year-old son Allan had remained in Ashland.

Cuts Off Both Feet and Throws Them Into The Street

Men, women and children in Tulelake rush for cover to get away from the flashing blade. Melancholy and sadness reigns as merchants stand in their doorways and watch the blade of the big bulldozer cut 2 feet off their lovely mudholes. Sighs of regret can be heard as they realize that the little town has grown up and they will never AGAIN see "No Hunting or Fishing" signs stuck in the muddy banks of the little lakes in front of their places of business.

And when they think of Tulelake being just like other towns with nice, paved streets and beautifully arched light posts, their eyes fill with tears but their hearts fill with pride, because they know that while Main street is being made modern, they still have Modoc street where the YUKON TAVERN and the POSTOFFICE are.

And after all, they all expect to spend most of their time there anyway, either sitting in their blinds shooting ducks or fishing from the sidewalks, because they know they can just step into the YUKON'S clean, homelike atmosphere for a cool, refreshing DRINK or one of those famous BAKED HAM SANDWICHES . . . the place where hunters and fishermen are always welcome, for the Call of the YUKON is
