

Ticker Halts Cardinal-Bum Game At 3-3

New York Edges Chicago; Indians Split With Boston

By The Associated Press
Halt the clock—now chief umpire in the National League.
With two consecutive Brooklyn-St. Louis games called a tie by the time keeper, the man with the watch is becoming more important than the players.
Curfew struck at 1:10 a. m. today at Sportsman's park with the Dodgers and Cards locked in a 3-3 tie at the end of nine innings. National league rules say they can't start a new inning of a night game after 12:30 a. m. (local time) so extra innings were out of the question. A heavy rain delayed the start.

Brooklyn almost missed a chance to tie the score for they barely completed the eighth inning, with St. Louis holding a 3-2 edge, at 12:47 a. m.
As it was, the Dodgers managed to push over a run in the ninth on a walk to Roy Campanella, a sixth single by Marv Rickley and an outfield fly by Pee Wee Reese that scored Eddie Miskis, running for Campanella.

Howie Pollet, trying for his 14th run, had a shutout 3-0 at the end of seven innings with Nippy Jones and Marty Marion driving in the runs. A walk and successive singles by Carl Furillo, Jackie Robinson and Gil Hodges gave the boys two in the eighth. Ted Wilks came in to strike out Pinch-hitter Gene Hermanski to end the rally.

SECOND TIE
Earlier this week on Monday, the Dodgers and Cards played a 4-4 tie at Brooklyn when they stopped the game under an agreement that no inning should start after 3 p. m. (EST) to let the teams catch a train to the west.

St. Louis remains a game and a half in front of the runnerup Dodgers with another night game slated for tonight and a day game Sunday.

Herm Wehmeier, 22-year-old Cincinnati right-hander, pitched his best game of the season and his first major league shutout as he beat New York with four hits, 3-0, in the only other National league game played.

The loss dropped the Giants into a fourth-place tie with the Philadelphia Phils whose scheduled day game at Chicago was cancelled out. Pittsburgh and Boston played three innings of their night game at Forbes field before a storm forced the game to be called on account of wet grounds.

Successive home runs by Johnny Lindell and Bill Johnson enabled the New York Yankees to add a half game to their American league lead with a 3-2 edge over Chicago while Cleveland split a day-night doubleheader at Boston. The result put the Yanks out front by 4 1/2 games.

INDIANS DIVIDE
Cleveland rebounded from a 2-1 afternoon defeat at Boston to another the Red Sox in the night game, 9-3. The Tribe routed Chuck Stobbs, promising young lefthander, before he retired a man in a four-run first inning at night.

Joe Dobson allowed only four hits in his afternoon triumph over Mike Cofre for Boston's fifth straight win. Dom DiMaggio hit safely in both games, extending his consecutive game hitting streak to 25, longest of the season in the majors.

Connie Mack's surging Philadelphia A's ran their winning string to six, their longest of the year, by downing Detroit, 5-3. The A's are only one percentage point behind the third place Red Sox.
The St. Louis Browns, struggling to escape from the cellar, scored four in the 10th inning to hand Washington its 14th loss in 15 games, 6-2. Seventh-place Washington still is 4 1/2 games ahead of the Browns.

SECOND-SEEDED Player Ken Karns, the netter with the determined look here, advanced to the semi-finals of the city tennis tourney yesterday with a straight set, 6-0, 6-0, win over Ed Lander. He is paired with 20-year-old Bill Crawford today for a shot at the finals Sunday.

Crawford, Karns Mix Today

Three seeded players advanced to the semi-finals of the city tennis tourney yesterday and the fourth seeded player is due for his best test today.

Raymond Tice shellacked Frank Tippett, 6-1, 6-4, to advance to the quarter-finals but must beat Bud Case today to reach the semi-finals.

Other men's singles matches went according to advance notice. Ken Karns drubbed Ed Lander easily, 6-0, 6-0, and Bill Crawford, dark horse of the tourney, spanked Jerry Olson, 6-2, 8-6.

Karns and Crawford are matched in the top game this afternoon; Ed Dent, first-seeded, will play the winner of the Case-Tice fracas, which was due early this morning.

Dolores Steele and Mary Love were crowned champions in the women's doubles when they drubbed Ruth Hagelstein and Virginia Karns, 6-3, 6-0.

EARLY RUSH — "Read the sign, Bud," Lyman L. Frimodig, Michigan State athletic ticket sales manager, politely informs a diehard. The Notre Dame game, November 5, was sold out as early as June 8, just eight days after the ducats were placed on sale. It was the first 1949 football sell-out in the country.

Only seven pitchers in modern major league history have won more than 300 big league games.

P. A. B. Widener II's Elmendorf farm bred six thoroughbred stake winners during 1948.

Men's consolation:
John Humphrey beat Sam Smith 1-6, 6-4, 7-5.
Chuck Heilbronner beat George Bell, 1-6, 6-6, 6-4. (Advanced to finals.)

Junior men's singles:
Karns beat Dingler, 6-1, 6-2.
Boys singles:
Shulte beat Joe Shearer, 7-8, 3-6, 6-3.

Junior women's singles:
Jean Mahan beat Faye Nelson, 6-2, 6-2.

Walter Johnson and Denton (Cy) Young are the only major league pitchers in history ever to win more than 400 games.

The New York Yankees have not been out of the first division since 1925, and only once in that period did they finish fourth.

The Pittsburgh Pirates finished in the cellar in 1917 and tied for last in 1947 for their only two trips to the bottom.

Twinks' Woods Whitewashes Portland, 4-0

Oakland Shellacks Seattle As Jackie Goes On Bat Spree

By The Associated Press
Big Pinky Woods is Hollywood's number one stopper this year.
The large righthander halted the onrushing Portland Beavers with a four-hit whitewash job last night. The 4-0 decision was Woods' 16th win of the year against seven defeats. It was a disappointment for Beaver rookie star, Hal Saltman, also trying for his 16th, and some 10,026 fans who jammed the Portland park.

The Oaks' Jackie Jensen continued his improved batting pace with a double and two singles off Charley Schanz, who gave up 10 bingles in all. Heinz Becker barged three of the eight hits off Toolson, one a two-run homer.
Acorn Third Sacker Parnell Woods was felled by a Schanz pitch, but his condition was described as good at a hospital. The ball clipped him on the forehead.

San Diego made it three straight over San Francisco's foundering Beaks, with Bob Savage weathering a bad first inning to take a 6-4 verdict.
Mickey Rocco poked a homer with two aboard, first pop. Then Savage spaced five hits the rest of the way. The Padres rocked Steve Nagy, for two runs in the fourth and three in the fifth to clinch it.

The short scores:

San Diego 010 230 008—6 7 0
Nagy, Singleton (7) and Jarvis; Savage and Moore.

Fourth Spot At Stake In NC League

The Northern California baseball league enters its 12th round of play tomorrow with little at stake except fourth place in the circuit.

Klamath Falls' entry, the Pioneers, have undisputed possession of the loop's first place with nine wins and two losses and travel to Yreka for a game that is more crucial for the Indians than the Pioneers.

Yreka is tied for third and fourth places with Hill at six wins, five losses each, and a loss to the Pioneers might drop the Indians clear out of the upper bracket and consequently out of the four-team season-ending championship playoff.

Hill plays host to the fading seventh-place Mt. Shasta club and will be favored to come up with a win in that game.

Second-place Dunsuir plays the Weed Sons at Dunsuir in a game Wed needs if it is going to get into the first division from fifth place, and McCloud plays host to the last-place Shasta Dam nine.

BROOKLYN LOADED WITH SPEED, LABELED "FASTEST CLUB EVER"

NEW YORK (NEA) — When Branch Rickey looks at a ballplayer, he asks three questions: Can he run? Can he throw? Can he hit the ball for distance?
Because speed plays a tremendous part offensively and defensively, Mahatma Rickey considers it the most important, gives the athlete possessing it two points. Throwing comes in only on the defense, power on offense alone.
Because President Rickey insists on young men picking 'em up and laying 'em down with great rapidity, the Brooklyn chain is loaded with lads carrying motors in their shoes.

The average time of 750 members of the Flatbush organization for 60 yards in a baseball uniform at Vero Beach, Fla. in the spring was 7.5.
"The Dodgers easily are the fastest club I ever saw, and I've been around for 20 years," says Bucky Walters of the Reds. "I can't conceive of any outfit ever having been faster."

Brooklyn bandits have swiped twice as many bases as the other three first-division clubs wrapped together, which gives you a rough idea.
Jackie Robinson, the most spectacular player of the day, scores out the opposition by merely feinting. There is a little bit of Ty Cobb in Pee Wee Reese. Duke Snider ran 60 yards fully equipped in 6.9. Mike McCormick was a sprint champion in high school. Marvin Rackley gets there in no time at all. Billy Cox, Luis Olmo, Dick Wittman and Tommy Brown fly. Gene Hermanski is of good speed. Gil Hodges and Carl Furillo, who might be called the two slow men, are classed that way only because they are right-hand hitters, and consequently slower getting away from the plate. Roy Campanella and Bruce Edwards, the catchers, would run for someone on another club.

Brooklyn has even faster players on its roster. The Pueblo Branch, for example, shows the way in the Western league with a fantastic total of stolen bases. The Pulaski, Va., club ran away with the pennant in the Class D Appalachian league last season by 20-odd games with 725 thefts, more than twice as many as the next club.

One hundred and ninety-two breeders produced 323 horses which were successful in one or more of the 562 stake races run during 1948.
