

Ardizioia Hits, Hurls Suds To Twink Victory

Seattle Blanks Hollywood, 1-0; Oaks Drub Bevos

By The Associated Press
Rugger Ardizioia, Seattle hurler, plays the hero role in double takes. First take was his masterful pitching job Tuesday night against the league-leading Hollywood Stars after the ailing Guy Fletcher replaced the first inning. Ardizioia blanked the Stars with three hits for nine innings. Then in the tenth inning, his amazing single drove in the run that produced a 1 to 0 win for the Rainiers.

Con Dempsey of San Francisco also did some fancy hurling. He threw a six-hitter at the second-place Sacramento Solons and struck out seven. The Seals won 4 to 0.

Oakland beat Portland 7 to 4 in the only win by a first division club. Charlie Gasaway scattered the 11 Portland hits in notching his twelfth win of the season.

Los Angeles, Pacific Coast league cellar occupants, won its third game in a row with a 3 to 2 decision over San Diego. Four of the game's scores came on homers. Fitcher Bryan Stephens and Carsten Mauro connected for the Angels while Al Rosen and Johnny Ritchie hit homers for the Padres.

Wednesday's card:
Sacramento (Mal Mallett 1-1 and Tom Rose 4-4) at San Francisco (Al Len 11-13 and Masny Perez 7-5). Two games.

Oakland (Earl Jones 7-5 and Lou Tost 12-7) at Portland (Red Lynn 8-8 and Hal Saltzman 15-8). Two games.

Hollywood (George Woods 16-7) at Seattle (Charlie Schanz 14-12).
San Diego (Xavier Rescigno 7-10) at Los Angeles (Booker McDaniels 5-6).

Rumor Says Schroeder May Quit

SOUTH GRANGE, N. J., Aug. 3 (AP)—As the 22nd annual eastern states grass courts championships entered its third day of play today, biggest news concerned a star who is not competing.

The announcement yesterday that Ted Schroeder, from La Crescenta, Calif., would not appear and planned to quit tennis after he plays in the Davis cup matches was the chief topic of discussion.

Schroeder reportedly was offered a half partnership in a refrigeration business in California.

In yesterday's second round, top seeded Billy Talbert of New York disposed of Tony Trabert, of Cincinnati, 6-4, 6-1.

Jim Brink, Seattle, won from Robert Kerdasha, New York, 6-3, 6-2.

In doubles encounter Brink and Herbert Behrens, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., defeated Andy Taton, Ann Arbor, Mich., and Leonard L. Steiner, Brooklyn, 6-4, 4-6, 8-6.

Fair Pair Share Lead

CHICAGO, Aug. 3 (AP)—Medalist Mariene Bauer of Los Angeles and Barbara McIntire of Toledo topped the field of eight quarter finalists today in the women's western junior golf championship at Onwentsia Country club in suburban Lake Forest.

In yesterday's first round, Miss Bauer, 19-year-old favorite, scored a 4-3 win over Marge Whyte of Kenosha, Wis., while Miss McIntire defeated Janet McIntosh of Cincinnati by the same margin.

Virginia Denny outed Barbara Jean Hand of Portland, Ore., 5-4.

Gracie De Moss Keeps Pace

PORTLAND, Aug. 3 (AP)—Gracie De Moss of Corvallis was keeping pace today in defending her city women's golf championship. She moved over the first round yesterday by defeating Mrs. Ben Dolf, Portland, 7 and 6.

Also holding her own was Helen Thompson, Medford, who tied with Miss De Moss in the initial medal qualifying round Monday. Mrs. Thompson, the 1948 state titlist, defeated Mrs. Ruth Olmstead, Portland, 7 and 6.

The 49th national amateur golf championship will be held over the Oak Hill Country club, Pittsford, N. Y., August 29 to September 2.

In 57 meetings between the New York Yankees and New York Giants since 1910, the Yankees have won 28, the Giants 27 and two were ties.

Empty Saddles In The Old Corral!

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 3 (AP)—There's an empty saddle out at Paramount studio today—and Bob Hope's the man who isn't in it.

Hope is in Hollywood Presbyterian hospital with a wrenched back suffered when he fell from a saddle while making a movie.

His steed was a wooden barrel, rocked by Lucille Ball as part of a gag sequence in the film. The fall knocked Hope out. His doctor said the comedian would remain in bed several days.

Publicity Gag Backfires

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Sayre, a press agent, is prematurely gray anyway. Otherwise results of one of his latest gags might have made him so.

Bob drew the chore of publicizing the movie "Rope of Sand" which is laid in South Africa's diamond fields. He and his red headed wife spent several evenings putting glass diamonds into envelopes. The envelopes were distributed where they would do the most good. The stunt was a grand success. Bob's boss was happy, gave Bob a bonus.

Then his wife found that the half-carat diamond in her engagement ring was missing. As nearly as they can figure someone who got a "glass" diamond in the publicity stunt has the real thing. Bob says his bonus will just about pay for a half-carat diamond.
