Church Vows Read Recently

White tapers and tall baskets of peach and white gladioli decorated the First Baptist church July 17 when Holly Jean Franklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Franklin, became the bride of Wayne O'Neale, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. O'Neale of Medford.

The vows were read by candlelight to the couple by Rev. S. L. Tidwell at the 2:30 ceremony.

The bride, who walked down the aisle on the arm of her father, was gowned in a beautiful white slipper satin gown with white silk net trim. Her veil was of illusion net with a double rounded crown holding it in place. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias with a purple orchid in the center. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace.

Maid of honor, Linda Franklin, sister of the bride, was gowned in yellow taffeta. A wreath of carnations was in her hair and she carried a fan shaped bouquet of larkspur and carnation.

The two bridesmaids, Donna Hansen and Doris Dean were gowned in pink and blue respectively. They had carnation wreaths in their hair and carried bouquets similar to the maid of honor.

Flower girl for the wedding was Teresa Lucine Braden. The little girl, who was gowned in blue taffeta, sprinkled rose petals before the path of the bride.

Max Baker was ring bearer for the wedding.

Before the ceremony, Colleen Crewell sang, "O Promise Me" and "O Perfect Love." Organist was Mrs. C. R. Larsen.

Best man was Robert Wobbe, a friend of the groom from Medford, Ore. Ushers were Willbur Ward, Medford, and Jerry Schubert. The ushers also lit the candles before the ceremony.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Franklin chose a black and pink suit dress with a pink feather hat. A rosebud corsage was pinned at her shoulder. Mrs. O'Neale was attired in a printed silk dress with a yellow corsage pinned at her shoulder.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Receiving with the bride and groom were their parents. Assisting at the affair were Mrs. Bill Keene, Mrs. H. Mauch and Nancy Esley. Mrs. Burt Morgan assisted with the guest book.

After the reception the young couple left for San Francisco and points on the California coast. Mrs. O'Neale chose a printed silk dress for her going away costume. The orchid from her bridal bouquet was pinned at her shoulder.

The two are now at home in this city.
