Camp 6---W

The extra long vacation this year gave some the opportunity to take the long trips they've dreamed about. Nearly everyone took a trip however, even if it was only a short one.

The Gordon Goods and Lindy Lockwood traveled to British Columbia in the Good's new Chevrolet. They went first to Roseburg where they visited with Good's parents and took Mrs. Roy Good along on their trip. They traveled up the Olympic peninsula and crossed the Vancouver on a ferry. In that city and in Victoria they visited with a number of Good's relatives. The party also took in a number of the special attractions, parks and scenic spots. They reported a very wonderful time. In Lockwood's absence, Archie West took care of the camp utilities.

City-minded was the Leatherwood family who used the vacation for a trip to Los Angeles, Calif. They were accompanied by Leatherwood's mother, Mrs. Lou Leatherwood of Fort Klamath. Besides visiting numerous relatives they managed to visit radio station KXLA at Pasadena and the Riverside Ballroom, a famous dance spot. Coming home they visited Leatherwood's two brothers and their families at Red Bluff, Calif.

The Bob Schlotfeldt's spent a week-end fishing at Dog Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Don Huck and son, Darwin, spent the Fourth of July at Huck's parents, the Vern Hucks of Applegate. They returned to camp for a few days and then took a trip to Springfield and Fall Creek where they visited relatives from July 10 to 14. They also got in a fishing excursion at Winchester bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Johnson accompanied by Johnson's mother, Mrs. M. A. Johnson of Salem, made a five-day trip during vacation to Orville, Calif. They drove through the beautiful Feather River canyon, returning through Weed and thence to Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Bemis and children made a trip during vacation to Emmet, Ida. where they had a good time visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morehead and daughter, Marilyn Eileen, spent part of their vacation at Yakima, Wash. visiting an aunt and uncle of Mrs. Morehead's, the J. C. Whites.

The Archie Wests took their vacation late in July spending most of the time with relatives in and around Jacksonville. They enjoyed showing off their new little son, David Dale, one month old, to all the beaming relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Hank Napier and Beverly, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thomson and children spent the Fourth of July fishing at Long creek. They returned by way of Chiloquin.

The following week end the Hank Napiers and Beverly made a trip to Eugene for a two-day visit with their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jules V. Napier. They returned by driving thru Bend, and reported a very hot journey.

The Thomas Thomsons drove to Salem stopping for a day at Eugene where they visited several of Mrs. Thomson's relatives.

Ramona Marks and Beverly Napier went to 4-H camp the week of July 17 to 23.

Carol Fredrick was a house guest of Danielle Waldrip for a week recently. Carol's home is in Klamath Falls.

Visiting the Don Huck family for three days from July 19 were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Smith of Keno.

The A. L. Leatherwood family enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Leatherwood's sister's family, the Marvin R. Caspers and children of Los Angeles, for a week beginning July 17. While here the Caspers visited old friends in Klamath Falls. With the Leatherwoods they visited Crater lake, and attended the Lionel Hampton dance.

The Gus Hall family is settled in camp for the res. of the summer. They are occupying the two-room cabin next to Schlotfeldt's.

An amateur program is being prepared for Friday, August 5, utilizing the talents of all the camp children. The cook-house has been obtained for the final show, and there will be prizes for the best performers and treats for all the kiddies. Some surprise numbers by adults will be included in the program. In charge of the arrangements is Mrs. Dick Fairfield, assisted by Mrs. Thomas Thomson, Mrs. Fred Peters, and Mrs. Don Huck. Mrs. Gordon Good and Mrs. Bob Winfield are getting up the adult show.

The first American-built steam locomotive to draw passengers in the United States was the Tom Thumb.

Fort Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Ferguson and two small daughters returned home Tuesday from Klamath Falls where they stayed since Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson.

Friends will be interested to learn that Mr. and Mrs. H. B. "Ben" Loosley, former old-time Wood River valley residents, moved this week from Malin to Santa Monica, Calif. where they will make their home with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Holtenbach. They have sold their ranch property and household belongings at Malin, where they have lived since leaving Fort Klamath several years ago, following sale of their local stock ranch to Leonard Meshke of Malin.

J. R. Blumore is reported as improving slowly from a major operation which he underwent recently at Stanford Lane hospital in San Francisco, Calif. Mrs. Blumore is staying at her mother's home at Berkeley, and plans to remain there during her husband's convalescence in order to be near him.

On the occasion of Frank Edwards' birthday anniversary on Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards, their son and grandson, Gene Hessegrave and son, Wayne, recent arrivals from McIntosh, S.D., made a trip to Rogue River valley and the house of mystery, spending the day sight-seeing before returning home in the evening. Edwards is foreman of the local patrol of the state highway department.

Ralph Vaden was taken to the Klamath Valley hospital on Friday for medical observation and treatment. He is back home now but still under a doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon M. Brattain are receiving congratulations on becoming grandparents of a little girl, Mary Esther, born July 18, to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Brattain, at Las Vegas, Nev. This is the second child of the young couple, the other being a son, Douglas. The young Brattains are planning to move here soon from Las Vegas to make their home, the Vegas Lanes bowling alley, property of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brattain, having been sold some time ago, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brattain have returned to Fort Klamath while Blaine remained until this time to assist the new manager of the business in Las Vegas. The Brattain family is well-known in Klamath county, where Mr. and Mrs. Brattain and their sons, Blaine and Bob, were residents for many years before they left a few years ago for Las Vegas.
