SUICIDE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4 (AP)—A man of about 45 leaped to his death from Golden Gate bridge last night as a highway patrolman ran to grab him. He was the span's 115th known suicide. He wore a bracelet bearing the name Glenn R. Burbank. His address was unknown.

Iron once was a rare and precious mineral.

CURED—Prominent advertising executive I. S. Randall (above) credited his miraculous recovery from cancer to the regular drinking of an "atomic cocktail" which made him radioactive enough "to set Geiger counters chattering like a troop of frightened monkeys." The treatment, radio-iodine, was first given at the Kingsbridge veterans hospital in New York.

HE'S IN THE BIG TIME—Three-foot-11-inch Charlie Young looks like he could make good use of a stepladder to take the measurements of this beauty lineup. The girls, most of whom are over six feet in their stocking feet, are competing for the title of queen of the Tall People's Clubs convention in New York. The winner was a mere pee wee, Helen Lukacs, of Chicago, third from the left. She's only five-foot-11.

Lightning Aids In Tourist Tale

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho, Aug. 4 (AP)—A lightning bolt helped a Lethbridge, Alta., tourist make his own news last night while lying in bed reading a newspaper.

The bolt struck the tourist cabin, set the newspaper afire and singed the hair of the tourist, John Lawson.

His daughter, Virginia, 11, and two sons, Timmie, 11, and John, 7, suffered slight burns. Mrs. Lawson and her mother, Mrs. Tessie Huff, were in other rooms and uninjured.
