

Summer Setting Wedding Scene

MERRILL — Terrace Farm, country home of Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers in Eugene, was the setting for the wedding at 2 o'clock Sunday, July 17, of their daughter Janice and Lloyd Vernon Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Lewis of Merrill.

The ceremony took place on the lower terrace of the garden before a trellis of white gladioli, ivy and hydrangeas. Rev. Chester W. Hamblin, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length white dress with an eyelid bodice and a full organza skirt. Her large picture hat was of white horsehair with ruffle edging, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and small white rosebuds, centered with an orchid.

The bride's attendants were gowned in pastel frocks, all ballerina length. Jeannine Myers, twin sister of the bride, and maid of honor, wore lavender marquisette with a matching hat, and carried a bouquet of white blooms.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Gerald Robinson and Mrs. Harold Gardner, wore pink and green dresses fashioned similarly to that of the maid of honor. They wore matching hats, and each carried a horsehair hat filled with blooms.

Flower girl was little Sharon McNall wearing a yellow frock and carrying a basket of flowers.

Wilbur Hawkins of Merrill, close friend of the groom, was best man. Mrs. Harris Lietz and Mrs. Ralph Myers, the latter an aunt of the bride from Ontario, Cal., played incidental music preceding the wedding. Mrs. James Teed played the wedding marches and also accompanied Mrs. Lietz in a vocal selection.

A reception on the terrace followed the wedding. The bride's table was set with a white net cloth over blue and was centered with the wedding cake.

Mrs. George Croisan and Mrs. Abner Wilson of Seattle cut the cake, and Miss Minnie Just and Miss Gertrude Tolle, from Klamath Falls, as aunt of the groom, poured. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Harris Lietz and Mrs. Robert Siddoway, the latter of Portland. Miss Grace Shields was in charge of the guest book.

Among guests present at the wedding were the groom's brother, Alden Lewis of Eugene, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Lewis of Merrill, his grandmother, Mrs. Effie M. Tolle, and his aunt, Gertrude Tolle, the latter two from Klamath Falls.

For their honeymoon trip the young couple will visit in San Francisco, Yosemite park, and at Lake Tahoe. For traveling, the bride wore a navy blue suit, a gray and white hat, with navy and white accessories. The orchid from her bridal bouquet was pinned at the shoulder.
