

Grants Pass Man To Head Ore. Legion

SALEM, Aug. 8 (AP)—The Oregon convention of the American Legion will be headed this year by Sam B. Bove of Grants Pass.

The legion closed its convention here Saturday after going on record in favor of a state bonus for World War II veterans.

A proposal to increase national dues 25 cents for rehabilitation work was rejected. This echoed a charge by former National Commander Frank Beltrano, Portland, who told the convention opening session that national leaders were using funds to perpetuate control of the organization.

Sam M. Bove, 40 year old Grants Pass lawyer and World War II enlisted infantryman was unanimously elected state commander. He directed his acceptance comments to the younger men in the audience. "This is your opportunity to prove you are now qualified to take up the affairs of the American Legion," he told them.

Clyde R. Dickey, Portland druggist and World War II veteran, was elected vice commander.

The legion auxiliary elected district presidents. They are: Mrs. Earl K. McCoy, Hillsboro, district 1; Mrs. I. N. Bacon, Salem, 2; Mrs. Vernice Schultz, Florence, 3; Mrs. Harold E. Benson, Grants Pass, 4; Mrs. Edward Seufert, The Dalles, 5; Mrs. M. J. Penney, Pendleton, 6; Mrs. W. Dale Benfrow, Walla Walla, 7; Mrs. Wayne F. Gladden, Portland, 8; Mrs. Charles De Macon, Gresham, 9; Mrs. E. W. Hughes, Coquille, 10; Mrs. Earl Swank, Monument, 11; Mrs. Allen Ryman, Band, 12.

FILM STARS WED IN LA JOLLA RITE

LA JOLLA, Calif., Aug. 8 (AP)—Movie players Joanne Dru and John Ireland were married here last night in an informal, single ring ceremony in the garden of La Yelanda hotel.

Gregory Peck was best man and Barbara Ford, daughter of movie director John Ford, was maid of honor.

Miss Dru is the ex-wife of singer Dick Haymes, now the husband of Nora Edington. Miss Edington was formerly married to Errol Flynn.

NEW DOCTOR—Now associated with the Klamath Medical clinic is Dr. Robert Louis Mueller, a graduate of the University of Oregon medical school and former Henley resident.

Now you Know!

The answers to everyday insurance problems * By JERRY THOMAS Insurance Counselor.

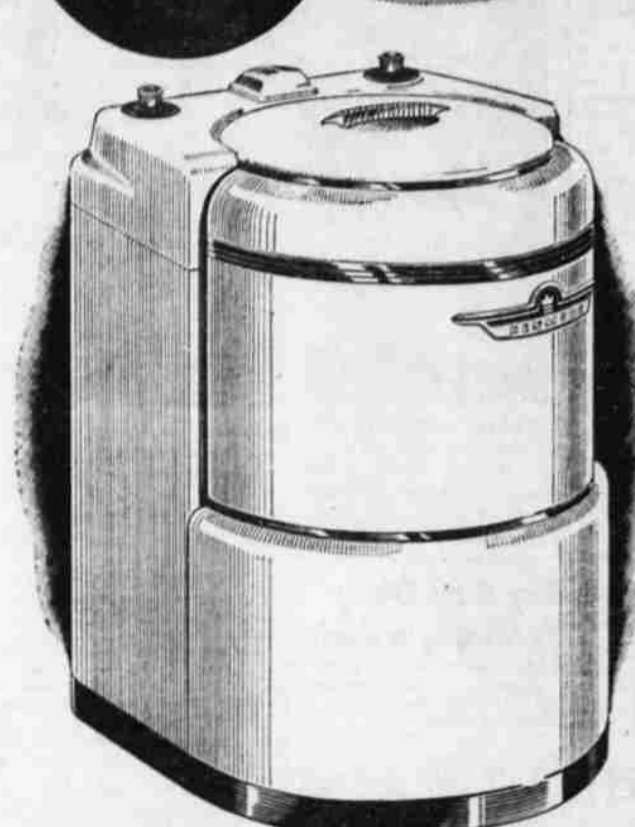

QUESTION: Recently we suffered a fire loss which was paid by our insurance company. Now a friend tells me that my insurance policy expired with the settlement and I must take out a new policy. Is this true?

ANSWER: Not entirely unless the insurance company paid you the full amount of the policy. When an insurance company pays you for a fire loss, it deducts the amount paid you from the amount of the policy. Thus, if you had a ten thousand dollar policy and the company paid you five thousand dollars, you would still have five thousand dollars in insurance. However, you should see your insurance agent about having your policy changed to give you adequate protection again.
