

Lie Presents 6-Point Plan For Peace

LAKE SUCCESS, Aug. 9 (AP)—UN Secretary-General Trygve Lie has advanced a six-point program to strengthen the world peace organization and reduce the dangers of war.

The program is outlined in Lie's fourth annual report, which was published last night. The report, by far the most optimistic yet written by the secretary-general, said the fear of war has definitely decreased since his last report.

Lie called the past 12 months "a year of progress towards a more peaceful world." Biggest factor in the improved atmosphere, he said, was the lifting of the Berlin blockade.

At the top of his 6-point program was continued consultation and conciliation among the big powers. He offered to help bring the east and west together in such outstanding world problems as the German, Austrian and Japanese peace treaties, atomic control and creation of an international police force.

"It is essential," he said, "for the great powers to keep in contact, to talk things over, and seriously to negotiate with one another."

His other points dealt primarily with controversies before the UN such as the disposition of Italy's prewar colonies, the admission of new members and the creation of a 300-man UN guard force to aid peace missions abroad.

One of the hottest issues was the Italian colonies question which comes up in the general assembly in September. Lie jumped into the big power squabble with a proposal that the colonies be placed under direct UN trusteeship, with a single administrator responsible directly to the trusteeship council.

Russia has insisted on a direct trusteeship over the colonies with a council of commission doing the administering. The United States and Britain have pushed a plan which would place the colonies under trusteeship, with additional territories being administered separately by Britain, Italy and France.

Trans-Jordan became a sovereign independent state in March, 1946, under a treaty with Great Britain.

HIND you. The nag you were after wasn't fooled. He knew darned well you were coming for him to go to work again. At first, he'd act skittish and shy away from you. But HE WANTED THE OATS HE KNEW WOULD BE IN THE FEED BOX WHEN YOU LED HIM INTO THE BARN. So, after cutting a few capers, he'd come and submit to the halter.

After that, he was YOUR horse.

THE politicians who want to run our lives are nobody's fools. They know that after they've fed us long enough out of the government trough we'll lose our love of liberty and COME RUNNING WHEN THEY CALL.

They pretend to love us and to cherish us, just as in our corrupting days we always patted Old Charley on the neck when we slipped the halter over his ears.

But what they have in mind is WHAT WE CAN DO FOR THEM. What we can do for them is to keep them in office. They're shrewd enough to know that if they feed us long enough we'll come trotting up and slip our noses into the halter whenever they whistle.

Wocus

Mrs. "Jiggers" Koschnick, daughter of Mrs. Louis Mandros, gave a surprise party, honoring her mother on her birthday anniversary, July 30, at the Koschnick home on Eldorado street. The festivity began around 9:30 a. m. when several of Mrs. Mandros' close friends and her two sons, Katherine Chidester and Elaine South, arrived to wish her happiness. The birthday cake, baked by Mrs. Chidester, and decorated by Elaine, was cut at 10:30, and served with coffee to the following well-wishers: Eloise Giegler, Ines Hayward, Dorothy Porter, Nancy Hays, Martha Hurd, Elaine South and Katherine Chidester. The gifts were of unusual interest inasmuch as they varied away from the conventional trend of gifts and offered double surprise to the recipient when she caddy tore open the packages.

Mrs. Clyde Ash and Mrs. Howard Beeson of Doris, are back home again, after leaving July 27 for Eugene, where they spent several days visiting with friends and relatives. They brought back their two daughters, Sharon and Phyllis, who had spent the summer there.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Smart drove up from Medford the last week in July, to see their son Bobbie, and visit with the Jim Helms, Bobbie, a nephew of the Helms, has spent the summer with them but will soon return to Medford to go to school. Another visitor at the Helm home recently was Martin Blohm of Mt. Shasta. Blohm came to Klamath Falls on business and stopped for a day with the Helms.

The latter part of July was full of surprises for the Frank Hurds, when four sets of second cousins whom the Hurds had not seen since 1938, took turns in driving in for a day's visit. Glen Thompson, druggist, came here to look for a location, and dropped around to see his friends at Castleberry drug store, and at Curtis drug.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Gillette and daughter, Mary Lou, Kerbel, Calif., stopped off to visit Mrs. Gillette's daughter and son-in-law, the Jim Steiners. Mrs. Steiner accompanied her mother and sister, and friend, Arlene Swanson to Ellenburg, Wash., where they visited with relatives. They returned Wednesday.

Indiana's motto is "The Crossroads of America".

Lloyd Chidester received his discharge from service in the U. S. Army last week, ending a period of four years in uniform. He and his bride of a few months are moving back to Klamath Falls, and hope to make their home near his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Chidester, in Wocus.

A well attended meeting of enthusiastic Wocus property owners, took place at the Gun club, Saturday, August 6. The meeting was called to order by acting chairman, Dorothy Buck, and ways and means of improving the status of the community, i. e.—drainage, zoning etc., were discussed.

A teen-age party, honoring Peggy Jean Plunkett of Sacramento, Calif., was held at the home of Katherine Chidester, August 5, whose thirteenth birthday anniversary fell on that day. The invited guests were Peggy's classmates at Sacred Heart Academy of last year. Peggy, niece of Mrs. Chidester, Mrs. Ray South, and Mrs. Louis Mandros, is here for a 10 day visit, and is taking turns visiting her aunts. She is thrilled to hold her great niece, two-month-old Judy Koschnick, in her arms, while visiting Judy's mother, Mrs. "Jiggers" Koschnick, 1406 Eldorado. The Sacred Heart students who came to congratulate Peggy on her birthday were Kathleen Carrier, Bonnie Fells, Joan Zettler, Claudia Ehreth, Julie Harden, Cecile Vandenberg, Phyllis Ellis, Patsey Olsen, Elda Sari, Theresa Bruner, and Shirley Snider. Games were played and prizes awarded. Elaine South baked the birthday cake.

Harry Loeber, resident of Modoc Point and Wocus, for the past 30 years is singing the praises of his new well, drilled on his place at Route 3, Box 1095, this spring. The well, drilled by Jesse Anderson, supplies all the water needed for irrigation, and is at the depth of 43 feet. Twenty-four feet of six inch casing,

City Council Puts Okay On Light Plan

The city council continued its program for adequate city lighting when it approved vast illumination changes at Monday night's regular council session.

Intersections which were okayed for replacement of present lighting, called "entirely inadequate," with 10,000 lumen light units are on East Main, Oregon avenue, North Ninth, North Eleventh and North Third. This move follows on the heels of council approval for the lighting of the city's business district, recently okayed by ordinance.

Councilman A. F. Condry started the ball rolling last night when he asked for two lights in front of the armory, two at Main and East Main, one at South Sixth and Martin and one at the Sunrise service station. These were okayed.

Installation of new lights on main thoroughfares is expected to be the springboard for establishing standard fixtures and mountings throughout the city, calling for 6000 lumen light units in residential districts, and 10,000 lumen units on main arteries leading into the city.

Intersections on East Main which will get light changes are from the viaduct to the South Sixth intersection. Ninth street intersections are at High, Lincoln, Jefferson, Washington and Prospect.

Oregon lights will go in at Addison, Delta, Fulton, Donald and Harriman. The Upham-Worden-Eleventh and Prospect-Tenth-Rose intersections were also approved for the bigger lights.

Corners due for better lighting on North Third are at Pine, Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln, Grant, McKinley, Roosevelt and California.

Weed

Armando Chiono, manager of the local Safeway store, has returned from a two weeks vacation. Part of the time was spent in visiting in Butte, Mont. Accompanying Chiono on his trip were his mother, father, brother, cousin, and aunt, all of Marysville. During his absence, M. Jackson was in charge of the store.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tallina and children, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tallina and Mr. and Mrs. George Brewer spent a few days in Crescent.

Mrs. Helen Mayer and Arlene Edleman spent the week-end in Petaluma visiting with Mrs. Mayer's relatives.

Friday of last week, Mrs. Jack Colombana, and her brother-in-law, Joe Colombana, both of San Francisco, came up to Weed and visited over the week-end with Mrs. Colombana's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Tomasin. Jack Colombana who holds a responsible position in a large furniture and radio store in the bay city, was unable to leave his duties.

Virginia Filipe of Weed, accompanied by several relatives from Montague and Weed, made a trip to San Francisco and San Jose recently. Virginia plans to attend San Jose State college this fall, and went down to make arrangements.

Richard West of Malin has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Keyser at Williamson river.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Martin, who moved to Grants Pass last month from Williamson river, were local visitors one day last week.

Ruth Walker of Sprague River is a guest at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Walker of west Chiloquin.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Cook are on their vacation from Copco. The Cooks planned a motoring trip into British Columbia.

Summer camps have been keeping many of the local young people busy during the past weeks. The community was well represented at both the girls' and the boys' 4-H club camps at Lake o' the Woods, as well as at Boy Scout camp at Crescent lake.

Two groups of youth hostellers have made Chiloquin their second Oregon stop this summer and other groups are scheduled to arrive in the near future. While here the young people have taken side trips by bicycle to Crater lake.

There are about 27 different kinds of stainless steel in common use.

New Locomotive Goes On Display

PORTLAND, Aug. 9 (AP)—The latest thing in railroading—the first gas turbine-electric locomotive—will go on public display here tomorrow.

The locomotive, developed by American Locomotive and General Electric, arrived here today after a test run from Omaha.

P. J. Lynch, Union Pacific vice president in charge of operations, called it a "complete success." He said it pulled a 100-car train over the mountains, a feat that would take three diesel-electric units.

He added that the 4300-horsepower locomotive would next go south to go into service on the Los Angeles-Salt Lake City run. The locomotive burns diesel fuel, utilizing a 19-foot gas turbine to turn up more power. Lynch said it was the rail counterpart of the gas turbine in jet planes.

Art Workshop In Second Week Now

The Klamath art workshop at Oregon Technical institute is in its second week of activity. The students have been busy with their classes and field trips to Crater lake, Keno, Moore park and spots on the campus.

In the evening plans have been made for square dancing and social sessions around the fireplace. A riding trip has been planned for this week-end and a large dance is scheduled for the close of the school.

Chiloquin

Ten local boys returned recently from Boy Scout camp at Crescent lake. The group was accompanied by Joe Mercer, local school superintendent, who acted as their leader. The group won camp inspection awards five nights, placed third out of six troops in the water carnival and fourth in Scout lore. The only thing to mar the week was an accident to Edward Brautlecht, in which he cut his hand with an axe, and eleven stitches were taken.

Making the trip were Glen Parker, Ed Brautlecht, David Johnson and Leland Orta, James Weddie, Gene Gentry, Robert and Larry Puckett, Jamie Smyth and Allan Prowell. The last six boys were sponsored by the following: Vernon Nival, Dwight Kirchner, the city store, O. Forest Preid and Alan Prescott.

Mrs. Ruby Pieler is spending her vacation from Giegler's store on a trip to Portland.

Recent guest of Merry Hayes of Williamson river was Adelia Smith of Keno.

Visiting with her sister and family, the Kerbel Keyser, were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kane of Cutler, Calif. The Kanes were here from Monday a week ago until last Monday. The two families visited in Malin with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wilson on Friday night and on Sunday made a trip to Crater lake, returning by the rim road and east entrance.

Richard West of Malin has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Keyser at Williamson river.

Education Board Meets, Eyes Site

ASHLAND, Aug. 9 (AP)—The state board of higher education system convened today after committee sessions in which it was indicated the control office site may be at either Salem or Albany.

Dr. R. E. Kleinsorge, chairman of the special central office committee, reported "Factors involved had practically eliminated Portland." He said either Salem or Albany were favored because of their more central location.

The central office has been on the University of Oregon campus in Eugene since the system was established 15 years ago. The decision to move was voted in June.

The unified administration committee decided to make no changes in the administrative relationship of the medical and dental schools to the university. Members confirmed a previous decision that University President H. K. Newburn continue to sign medical school diplomas. He had asked that he not be required to do so because he has no control over the curriculum of the medical center in Portland.

The dental school advisory committee asked that Dean Alfred Noyse be permitted to attend all board meetings. This was rejected after the administration committee noted Dean Noyse has been attending all sessions in which dental school topics were under discussion.

Big Vote Turns Out At Ford Plant

DETROIT, Aug. 9 (AP)—The state-conducted strike election among Michigan Ford workers is drawing a big vote, and both the company and union hall that report as a good sign.

With two days of balloting remaining, more than 30,000 of approximately 80,000 Ford Motor company production employees already have voted, the state labor mediation board announced today.

The vote will determine whether CIO United Auto Workers officials may call this year's second strike conducted strike election among Michigan Ford workers is drawing a big vote, and both the company and union hall that report as a good sign.

Search Started For Missing Plane

SEATTLE, Aug. 9 (AP)—Civil aeronautics commission officials here reported today a search in the Utah-New Mexico-West Texas region for a missing plane from Bremerton.

The plane took off early Sunday from the Kitsap county airport with C. G. Walsh at the controls. Mrs. Charley Gay and her son were listed as passengers. They were headed for Santa Fe, N. M.

A check of several dozen airports brought a single clue: Walsh contacted the Provo, Utah, field about 7:10 p. m. Sunday. The plane was traveling southward.

The C. A. said Walsh did not file any flight plan.

KF Men On Navy Training Cruise

Four Klamath men are among a group of naval reservists from the Northwest who are now on a training cruise to Honolulu.

The four are Richard Adams, Dayton Meehan, and Robert Snyder, all of Henley, and Herbert L. Wong, manager of the Oriental cafe in Klamath Falls.

Medium Bound, Strangled

BALTIMORE, Aug. 9 (AP)—Someone bound a 60-year-old spiritualist hand and foot, then strangled her last night with an electric cord.

Her fellow mediums immediately offered their services to police. They said they would attempt to get through to the spirit world and learn from the victim, Mrs. Emma A. Kefalos, the identity of her slayer.

Mrs. Kefalos, a widow, had lived alone in her second floor apartment in Baltimore's Polish-Bohemian section.

Four years ago, after her husband's death, she began giving seances and gazing into crystal balls. Neighbors said most of those who came to her for spiritual readings drove up in large expensive cars.

The apartment had been thoroughly ransacked, but police discovered robbery as a motive.

In an open bureau drawer, investigators found $68 in cash. Five valuable rings were discovered in a tool box.

KF Man Aids Broadcast

W. Don Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Miller of Klamath Falls, will be one of the Stanford radio news and special events class at Stanford university to assist with the broadcast of Herbert Hoover's address at 4:30 p. m. Wednesday from the Stanford amphitheater.

The group of students will assist from the Stanford-NBS radio institute.

Don will be one of 12 in the group which is taught by John H. Thompson, NBC San Francisco news chief. School will close August 20, and Don will return home for a few weeks before resuming college studies in the fall.

Power Sale Gets Okay Today

PORTLAND, Aug. 9 (AP)—Arrangements were completed today for five Oregon and Washington power companies to buy 20,000 kilowatts of power from the British Columbia Electric company.

Pacific Power and Light, Portland General Electric, Washington Water Power, Puget Sound Power and Light and Mountain States Power companies joined in the purchase agreement, a spokesman announced.

Transmission lines of the Bonneville power administration and Seattle city light will be used.

The power was made available by the recent completion of additional generating facilities at British Columbia Electric's big plant on Bridge river, he said.

The purchase contract runs to September 30, 1951.

Navy Promotes KF Officer

Capt. Howard E. Orem of Klamath Falls has been named assistant chief of naval operations for international affairs, it was announced by the navy department, Washington, D. C. today.

Capt. Orem has served as the deputy of Rear Adm. Edmund T. Woodbridge, who now takes command of destroyers in the Atlantic fleet.

Philippine President Asks Pact

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9 (AP)—Philippine President Quirino today urged the United States to support a non-military Pacific union once it has been formed to help prevent Asia from being lost to communism "by default."

Quirino, here on an official visit as guest of President Truman, voiced his plea for U. S. assistance against the "advancing tide of communism" in a speech before the senate.

He also spoke before the house. The major part of his senate speech was devoted to the Pacific union idea in which the Philippine chief executive has taken the initiative.

The idea got rolling about three weeks ago when Quirino and Chinese Nationalist Leader Chiang Kai-shek discussed a possible Pacific pact against communism in the Far East. Chiang is now in southern Korea talking over the same plan with Korean President Syngman Rhee.

Quirino's call for U. S. backing came only a few days after the state department published a "white paper" in which it wrote off the Chiang's nationalist government as a failure.

When Quirino finished, Vice President Barkley led a rising ovation and called the speech "magnificent."

VA Cooks Post Open

The civil service commission has announced openings for positions as cook in the veterans administration.

Those interested in permanent appointments will have an opportunity to file for a civil service examination leading to provisional appointment in the veterans administration domiciliary center, Camp White.

Applicants will be graded on the basis of their experience and training and may obtain application forms from the post office, the civil service commission or the Camp White domiciliary center. Applications should be filed with the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, VA Domiciliary Center, Camp White.

Man Snatches Girl From Certain Death

BOWIE, Tex., Aug. 9 (AP)—An 11-year-old girl is alive today because Railroad brakeman H. W. Coffman snatched her from her bicycle as she rode into the path of a switch engine.

Joan Gill is deaf in one ear. She did not hear the oncoming train or Coffman's shouted warnings yesterday as she started across a track near the depot.

Coffman ran, grabbed the girl and jumped back. Her bicycle was demolished. The drawbar of the locomotive hit Coffman's arms but he was not injured.

Experts in the U. S. Treasury said today a coin worth approximately 40,000 new bills and 25,000 old ones.

Mounted Poses To Hold Meet

Some 300 members of the Association of Mounted Poses, composed of sheriff's posse and riding groups from all over the state, are expected to take part this week-end in an encampment and state ride at Davis lake in the Willamette national forest.

Seven or eight members of the Klamath posse and their wives probably will make the trip.

Two days of horseback recreation, trail rides and outdoor camping, are planned for the encampment and food will be served from chuck wagons manned by Lane and Tillamook posse members.

Herman Plays Here Tonight

Klamath basin dance fans will have a twofold reason for flocking to the armory tonight. One, Woody Herman and the famous Herman Herd will furnish the music for the 9 till 1 dancing and, two, Nat "King" Cole and his trio will be on hand for extra entertainment.

The "King" and his trio are one of the most successful musical combinations in the world. They've starred on stage and radio and in movies.

Herman's band needs no introduction, rating as one of the top orchestras in the country. In 1945 it won the title of the nation's number one band.

Northwest Fruit Goes To Hawaii

SEATTLE, Aug. 9 (AP)—A Northwest Airlines plane is scheduled to fly an initial Pacific Northwest fresh fruit and vegetable cargo to Hawaii tonight. Exporter M. L. Davies said the 200-pound shipment is intended as a wedge to crack the near-monopoly of California growers on produce imports of the islands. The first shipment will be primarily for display purposes. There is a steady flow of produce from Seattle to Alaska by air.

BUDGET

SALEM, Aug. 9 (AP)—A budget of $105,000 to be raised in a campaign opening October 4 has been adopted by the Salem community chest directors, Joseph Amis, Dadd, general chairman of the drive, announced today. Last year approximately $101,000 was contributed to the city's chest activities.
