

Sam Keener Off Again

LONDON, Aug. 10 (AP)—Ex-cowboy Sam Keener is back again for the fifty-fourth time—fully equipped down to a revolver and cartridge belt for "protection in rough country."

The 61-year-old millionaire president of the Salem (Ohio) engineering company flew in Monday night on the first leg of a round-the-world sales trip.

White-haired Keener ("Just call me Sam.") Stepped off his special plane with a badge under his coat and four gold bars on his sleeve.

The badge is for being a deputy sheriff of Laramie, Wyoming. Each bar represents 100,000 miles of flying.

His plane is fitted out with an office, filing cabinets, a cinema, a washing machine one and a half tons of food, 20,000 cigarets and—a large carved wooden horse bolted to the floor and complete with saddle.

The horse was presented to him in America as a memento of his early cowboy days.

"I still love riding," Sam said.

EXHIBITS
MOSCOW (P)—The Soviet Union is taking part in three international exhibitions this year. They are scheduled for Plovdiva, in Bulgaria, Prague and Budapest.

To cook apples the French way slice them and simmer with sugar, a very little water, and a few tablespoons of butter or margarine. A little grated lemon rind or vanilla may be added for good flavor. Apples cooked this way are delectable served over squares of sponge cake and topped with sweetened vanilla flavored whipped cream.
