Birthday Club

PORT KLAMATH—Honoring 16 club members whose birthdays occur in the months of July, August and September, a special party was held at the close of the regular meeting of the Civic Improvement club held Friday afternoon in the club house.

These are regular quarterly occasions sponsored by the local women's club. Mrs. Ord Pritchett and Mrs. Joseph McAlliff were hostesses for the afternoon, and had decorated the tables in the dining room especially for the birthday party, using arrangements of sweet peas and individual favors. A gift and birthday card was presented each honoree present, and an appropriately decorated cake was cut, all with the compliments of the club.

During the short business session preceding the party, plans were made for a dance to be held August 20, for the purpose of raising funds for the maintenance and running expenses of the local fire truck. Mrs. Joanne Taylor and Mrs. William Page are the committee in charge of all arrangements for the forthcoming dance.

Present at the meeting and party Friday afternoon were Mrs. William C. Hackler, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Looney, Mrs. W. B. Hescock, Mrs. Viola Leever, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Alfred B. Castel Jr., Mrs. Elmer Zumbert, Mrs. Raymond S. Leoney, Mrs. Lucille Nicholson, Mrs. Wilbur Ferguson, Mrs. Harry Orem, Mrs. Earl M. Jackson, Mrs. Ray Powell of Chiloquin, and the hostesses, Mrs. Ord Pritchett and Mrs. Joseph McAlliff.

Club Round-Up

The members of the Klamath Saddle club were busy during July. On July 11 the regular monthly meeting was held to conduct routine business and lay plans for the ride on the 24th. The group gathered at the fairgrounds for an afternoon outing followed by a potluck dinner at the clubhouse.

The Henley grange was the setting for a square dance on July 30 when the club entertained the members of the Merrill Saddle club. The group also participated in the Medford rodeo parade and grand entry.

Pinocle

Pannie Goddard entertained Ye Old Pinocle club at her home, 2441 Garden, on Thursday, August 4. Luncheon was served at 1 p. m. to the regular members.

Later at cards Inez Sloan held high score, Kathryn Billings second, Maggie Upton, low, and Nona Hall received the pinocle award.

On August 18 the hostess will be Nona Hall.

Wild Dogs Prove Greenland Menace

COPENHAGEN (AP)—The Greenland commission of the Danish parliament, which will visit Greenland this summer, has been warned not to go there unarmed.

An official announcement called on the members to take big wooden clubs with them. The authorities are not afraid of hostile Greenlanders, but of wild dogs in the northernmost settlements.

Bridge Replaces Older Methods

KHARTOUM, Anglo-Egyptian Sudan (AP)—For centuries people crossed the great Gash river by having four West Africans carry them across on ashpores—native beds. Many fell into the stream.

Now civilization has ended the duckings. A new 433-foot reinforced concrete bridge with six spans and a 16-foot carriageway has been dedicated.

Bees Make Sweet Mess In House

GRIDLEY, Ill. (AP)—For several years, the T. H. Benedicts knew there were bees in their home near here.

They finally discovered the bees but not before the swarms had made a honey of a mess. Summer heat disclosed the location of the bees nest when honey started running down from the living room ceiling. Four bushel baskets of honey and the bees were removed.

Child Bounces After Long Fall

INGOLSTADT, Germany (AP)—A woman was looking at hats in a shop window here when she was suddenly hit by "something."

The "something" turned out to be a two-year-old child who fell from a third floor window. The child bounced on the sidewalk and cried, but was unhurt.

Bricklayers In Warsaw Speed-Up

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—A new champion bricklayer is crowned almost every day in Warsaw. Records

Davis, one of the 11 top communists now on trial in federal court on conspiracy charges, won his seat under a city wide proportional representation balloting system.

This system now has been ended and election by districts has been substituted. Davis is seeking a new term in a Harlem district.
