Guild Meeting Busy Session

TULELAKE—The Guild of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church had a busy session, Wednesday, August 10, at the home of Mrs. Chester Stonecypher. Mrs. George Fischer was co-hostess and devotions were led by Mrs. Frank Howard.

Mrs. Howard, wife of one of the recent homesteaders whose husband served in the navy during the last war, told of the experiences of missionairies in the Philippines, where the worst problem is to convert idol worshipers and to overcome age-old superstitions. Mr. and Mrs. Howard will speak at the next regular meeting of the guild to be held in the church annex August 17. This will be a quarterly missionary program.

Mrs. Tom Newton spoke on retired missionaries.

With Mrs. J. W. Shepard in the chair, members voted to serve a dinner for the Rainbow girls in the near future, gave the go-ahead sign to Mrs. H. T. Street, chairman of the stained glass memorial window, for installation and put $50 made by serving the annual chamber of commerce dinner into the window fund.

Specifications for the window which will honor all service men of the Tulelake community will be sent to Portland immediately and it is expected that the window will be in by next Memorial Day. Contributions to this fund are still being gladly accepted.

A committee was appointed to send a box of food to Mr. and Mrs. R. F. McNaughton, missionaries in Northern Japan, who write that food is very scarce there.

The guild will also sponsor a rummage sale about the time that transient harvest labor arrives in the fall. Donations of clothing, even lightweight summer garments, will be welcomed since some shipments are sent overseas to warmer climes.

Mrs. Ethel Howard, Oklahoma, was a guest.

Hostesses at the August 17th meeting will be Mrs. Tom Newton and Mrs. Jim Stoddard. Devotionals will be by Mrs. Ollie Moore.

Mrs. Cornett Sees Harmony For GOP's

Republican leaders who staged a fight over the chairmanship of the national committee can get together in a harmonious party program, Mrs. Olive Cornett, Klamath woman and Oregon national committeewoman, said on her return home today.

Mrs. Cornett attended the sessions in Washington where Guy Gabrielson of New Jersey was elected GOP chairman in a close fight with supporters of Axel J. Beck of South Dakota. Mrs. Cornett voted for Beck and, when it was over, joined others in making the election of Gabrielson unanimous.

She said today that Beck's supporters would go all the way in helping give the GOP a solid front if "given the opportunity" by the Gabrielson group. Especially, she expresed the hope that Beck will remain as chairman of the agricultural committee, which is planning a conference at Sioux City September 23.

"If that happens," said Mrs. Cornet, "it is possible Mr. Beck can do more for the party as agricultural chairman than as national committee chairman. I think he can lead the way toward a farm policy that will win the support of the sound farmers of the nation."

"Life in California is very comfortable, very expensive, very hygenic and very tiring."

She had some advice for British visitors to America:

"Read the advertisements rather than the news and stay out of all conversations beginning 'this government of yours . . .'"

PLAN PROVEN FACTS

Klamath Falls, Oregon, Aug. 13 Here is news that will be of great importance to those interested in furniture. It is a proven fact that the way to get the most for your money is to buy direct from the manufacturer. The Modern Upholstered Furniture Co., located at Lakeview-Merrill Junction, has proven this statement. All they ask of you is that you COMPARE. Compare quality of the frame, springs, filler, and fabric. Compare style. Is it functional, is it up to date? Compare prices. There is no greater way to save than to buy direct from the manufacturer.

People who have compared have made statements such as these:

"I was surprised to find there was so much difference of curvature in upholstered furniture. That super-form fitting back is everything you can ask for in comfort."

"I didn't know that you built furniture to fit the person as well as to fit my living-room needs. I am out of place in standard size furniture."

"I was prepared to pay twice as much to obtain furniture of such fine quality. Why, it costs even less than they're asking for standard furniture."

"I had the impression your furniture would be priced beyond my means. I am so glad I shopped here before buying."

Yes, ladies and gentlemen, you too will be surprised when you compare quality and price at The MODERN UPHOLSTERED FURNITURE CO.
