cascaded down the front of the gown. The French lace was also seen edging her train. She wore a halo of satin trimmed with a band of lace from which fell a finger-tip veil also trimmed in lace. She carried a string of pearls which rested a white orchid held by satin streamers tied with stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls which were a gift of the groom. She had the traditional blue garter, borrowed from a friend, Mrs. John Albee, and a penny in her shoe.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Eugene Olson of Salem, sorority sister of the bride. Mrs. Olson wore a yellow taffeta and green organza gown with a large yellow plume hat of horsehair. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white sweetpeas. The bridesmaids, Jeanne Gibson, Eugene, sorority sister of the bride, and Anna Johnson were gowned in yellow marquisette made with hooped skirts. To complete their ensembles they had green elbow length gloves and green horsehair halos. Their flowers were nosegays similar to those of the matron of honor.

Best man for his brother was Milton Reich. Ushers were Richard Chambers, Cottage Grove, and Robert Silva, San Leandro, Calif., both fraternity brothers of the groom.

Ringbearer was little David Nichol, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nichol, and flower girl was Nancy Orrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Orrell. Nancy was dressed in green marquisette over yellow taffeta with a yellow head band. She sprinkled yellow rose petals in the path of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hershberger wore a floor length rose crepe gown with a fuchsia feather hat and gloves. A corsage of fuchsia gladioli was pinned at her shoulder. Mrs. Reich chose a gown of light grey with pink hat and gloves. A corsage of pink gladioli was pinned at her shoulder.

Mrs. Flora Lindsay, grandmother of the bride, was gowned in a mulberry colored crepe dress with navy blue accessories. A yellow rosebud corsage was pinned at the shoulder.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the banquet room of the Winema hotel where the young couple with their parents and wedding party greeted the guests.

The aunts of the bride assisted at the reception. Hostess was Mrs. Ray Hunsaker. Mrs. T. B. Green, LaGrande, served the cake and Mrs. Lloyd Higdon and Mrs. Jack Orrell served coffee. Assisting at the punch table were Barbara McIntee and Betty Cleig. Patay Ruth Dickinson presided at the guest book.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Reich left for a two-week honeymoon in Glacier National park and Lake Louise. For going away June wore a red gabardine suit with black accessories. The white orchid from her bouquet was pinned at the shoulder.

The two will live in Eugene where Clarence will begin his third year in architecture at the University of Oregon. Clarence is affiliated with Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity and June with Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hunsaker, Corvallis, Dale Hunsaker, Portland, Carol Diamond, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chambers, Cottage Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marsh, Mrs. Nellie Miller, Alturas, Jim Cochran, Eugene, Ward Hobb, Medford, Dolores Stinson, Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Orrell and Jim, The Dalles, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Green and Gordon, La Grande, Robert Bradley, Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hunsaker, Fort Klamath.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Angel, Dairy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oberchain, Rly, Elsie Ruth and Wilbur Reiter, Portland, cousins of the groom, Jack R. Secoy, Eugene, and Donald Dole, Portland.

Klamath Boy Weds In Connecticut

On August 6, in St. Joseph's cathedral in Hartford, Conn., Florence Marie Sheehan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Sheehan, became the bride of Jerry Alexander O'Callaghan, son of Mrs. Leo Sagenhorst of Fort Bidwell, Calif., formerly of this city.

The 11:30 a. m. ceremony was read by Rev. John J. Bennett before the altar decorated with garden flowers and palms.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a floor-length gown of white tulle. Her hair was styled in a fitted bob, Peter Pan collar and long pointed sleeves and a full skirt. She wore a white horsehair picture hat. Her bride's bouquet was of fleur d'ambour, tulle and ivy leaves.

Mrs. Erwin Schmid of Washington, D. C., was matron of honor for her sister. For the wedding she wore a white organza over yellow taffeta dress with a large leghorn hat. Her bouquet was a cascade of talisman roses.

Best man for Jerry was Richard W. Blohm, of Cheshiretown, Md., formerly of Klamath Falls. Ushers were William J. Sheehan, brother of the bride, Providence, R. I., and Richard Igl, New Haven, Conn., formerly of Klamath Falls.

Organist was Vincent J. Scully. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Sheehan wore a pale aqua crepe with lace. She wore black accessories. A corsage of garden flowers was pinned at her shoulder. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Sagenhorst, wore a pink and black crepe dress with black accessories and corsage similar to that of Mrs. Sheehan.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Sheehan home which was decorated with white asters. Shortly after the ceremony the couple left for a honeymoon trip in New England.

For traveling the bride wore an almond colored suit and hat with black accessories. After September 15 Mr. and Mrs. O'Callaghan will be at home at 834 Boyce St., Palo Alto, Calif. Jerry will study for his Ph. D. at Stanford.

Mrs. O'Callaghan received her B.A. at Smith, her M.A. at Middlebury and was a member of the faculty at the University of Oregon. Jerry received his B.S. and M.A. at the University of Oregon. He was affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi fraternity there.

Out-of-town guests were Polla Ganong of New York City, and

Picnic Days Fill August

Looking about town this August, one finds the social season quieting a bit. A portion of the population is busy, however, learning the new game Canasta. Players report that it is an easy and enjoyable game which one plays on the rummy principle.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck, formerly of this city and now of Los Gatos, Calif. gave a party last month for former Klamath residents now living in California.

Attending the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garcelon of Palo Alto, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Knight of Santa Cruz, Lettie Stewart of Stanford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson (Pauline Mosler) of Santa Cruz, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hosking of Palo Alto, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hayden of Menlo Park, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hout of Atherton.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Stuckey of San Jose, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamblet of Sacramento, Mrs. Onnus of San Jose, Mrs. Frances Sample of Menlo Park and Mr. and Mrs. Groesbeck.

The get-together and picnic was held on the lawn of the Groesbeck home under one of their large oak trees at 62 Ellenwood avenue.

Lillian Otterbein, newly elected department president of 8 et 40, fun and honor society of the American Legion auxiliary, has given the appointment of department treasurer to Mrs. Fred Heilbroner.

The Fred Heilbronners and daughter, Carey Sue, accompanied by Mrs. Otterbein, left for an eastern trip Wednesday morning. The Heilbronners will visit in New York, Connecticut and New Jersey before going to Philadelphia, where the national Legion convention will be held August 28 to September 1. Mrs. Otterbein will visit her parents in Ohio before joining the Heilbronners in Philadelphia at convention time.

A number of Klamath Falls residents have been attending the opening performances of the Oregon Shakespearean Festival at Ashland. Sitting under the stars, watching Shakespeare's plays presented on the outdoor Elizabethan stage located in Litchia park have been Mrs. Dean H. Osborn, Edna Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Faus, Mr. and Mrs. Uel Dillard, Patricia Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin A. Goussau and Dr. and Mrs. Daboler Teare.

The repertoire this season includes "Romeo and Juliet," "Richard III," "Midsummer Night's Dream," "Othello" and "The Taming of the Shrew."

The program will continue every evening except Sunday through August 24 with curtain time at 8:30.

A summer trip to long remember is the one taken by Andy Honzel Jr. and Mrs. Hollin A. Goussau and Dr. and Mrs. Daboler Teare, who saw the famous sights — including the bull fights — of that country. Most of the trip was made by plane. He was accompanied by three Bellarmine school friends, Andre Marsdahl of Wood, Vince Nola of San Jose and Frank Lagastino of Tulare.

The Collier families here have planned a family reunion at Diamond lake this week-end. The party will be held at the Alfred Collier cabin there. This is the first reunion that the family has had.

to the ladies!
By Louise Reinhart

Klamath Falls, Aug. 13—After the crowds and confusion of San Francisco, Klamath Falls is a blessed relief. And to think I lived down there for fifteen years! Guess I am just a small town girl at heart.

I did enjoy the gift show thoroughly, though, and found such grand things for reasonable prices, that the effort was well worth while.

Speaking of low prices, our Holiday pottery has been reduced to just $7.95 for the 20-piece set for four, which includes plates, salad or dessert plates, cups and saucers and fruit dishes. The serving pieces are equally low priced, and any of this charming ware is available in open stock. The colors are luscious, including Sage Grey, Spice Turquoise, Ginger Yellow, Mint Green, Nutmeg Pink and Cinnamon Brown.

If you are interested in dishes, be sure to see our beautiful patterns in Rosenthal china, the world's finest dinnerware. We have many patterns, and all are open stock. We have complete dinner sets, too, for those who prefer to buy that way. No waiting for months to complete a set. And the valuable S & H Green Stamps go with all purchases at Remharts, 819 Main.
