SPORTS ROUNDUP

(Batting for Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.)

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 13 (AP) There's a basketball feud brewing in this city of brotherly love with Penn and Villanova opposing the trio of St. Joseph's, Temple and LaSalle.

Penn and Villanova have scheduled 11 doubleheaders at the Palestra. Bob Geasy has booked 16 involving the other three colleges at Convention hall. There are only four date conflicts but still that's a lot of dribbling.

Adding fuel to the feud, St. Joe and LaSalle have cancelled their traditional games with Penn. Why play in a doubleheader and collect a third when we can play you alone and get a half is what St. Joe and LaSalle told the ivy leaguers.

Joe Tydings hopes to do better than his father, Senator Millard T. Tydings, in a football way. . . . The senator never reached beyond football manager at Maryland. . . . Son Joe is hopeful of landing an end berth with the 1349 Terrapins . . . Carl Dellmuth, who tried to promote Australian football in the U.S., recently named Pennsylvania's secretary of banking. . . . An agency which bought broadcast rights for the Philadelphia Eagles games has not found a sponsor yet. In fact it advertised for one in local papers last week. . . . Rumored the agency paid $34,000 for the rights.

Benny Borgman, scout for the St. Louis Cardinals, was seen huddling with Athletic Director George Lawson of Muhlenberg. . . . Could they have been talking about that vacant basketball coaching job at Muhlenberg? And talking about jobs, looks like maybe several positions available on the Pittsburgh Steelers with several 1948 regulars unsigned and others quitting because of salary disputes.

Mrs. Babe Ruth will make her debut as a horse race owner during the current Atlantic City meeting. . . . She has purchased Porcelain and hopes to add a few more to her stable. . . . If an Ike Williams-Ray (Sugar) Robinson fight should materialize here this fall, Promoter Pete Tyrrell would be willing to sell the television rights for $120,000. . . . But what TV station would want to take a chance on one commercial??? Dick Sisler, Phillies first baseman, has gone back to use the old-type mitt. . . . Says it did wonders for his father; maybe it'll help him. . . . Curt Simmons and Charlie Bicknell, Phillies Pitcher, due to return today from their annual national guard encampment. . . . Betty Hardesty, ex-sports writer who did a swell job of promotion at Philadelphia's arena, now plugging for the Roller derby.

Wonder if the night trotting track operators aren't a little bit worried over Illinois' approval of night harness racing? Could well be a trend and cut in on the trotters' newly found bankroll.

Pearpickers Gun For Local Netmen

The Medford netters will travel over the Greensprings for a return match with Klamath Falls Sunday —and they'll be aiming for a revenge caper. Matches will start on the Moore park courts at 9 a. m.

Last Sunday the local team won five of the eight single matches and one of the three double encounters to come out with a slim 6 to 5 win.

Only six singles and three doubles are expected to be played in the return engagement Sunday.

Ken Karns, winner of the recent city tourney, did not play at Medford and is not expected to be in town for Sunday's skirmish.

Local single players will probably be picked from Bill Crawford, Bud Case, Eddie Dent, George Mills, Loren Hughes, Jerry Olson, Pat Weddle and Jim Finnigan.

If pairings go according to last Sunday, doubles teams will link Crawford and Hughes, Mills and Case and Olson and Weddle.

Medford players who will probably make the trip here are Todd Tibbutt, Howard Dugan, John Richard, W. W. Deakins, Bill Coffman, Irving Thayer and Paul McDuff.

Gracie Seeks Golf Title

GEARHART, Ore., Aug. 13 (AP) Gracie DeMoss, the favorite from Corvallis, Ore., and Mrs. Lloyd Burgess, Astoria, will meet today for the championship of the women's division in the Oregon Coast golf tournament.

Miss DeMoss reached the finals yesterday with a 6 and 5 victory over Mrs. Ken Fields, Yakima. Mrs. Burgess won her match from Sue Huston, Portland, by the same score.

Ralph Dichter, Gearhart, defeated Bob Wittenberg, Portland, 2 up, and Bob Duden, Portland, eliminated Bob Nichols, Gearhart, 3 and 2, in the men-under-40 competition.

Jerry Patterson, Portland, ousted Art Neimi, Kelso, 4 and 3, and Erik Nelson, Portland, won from Sarge Gething, Portland, 2 and 1, in the men-over-40 bracket.

Bums Lose To Braves, 5-3, Lodge Protest

Snider Triple Is Hub Of Complaint; Cards Take Lead

By The Associated Press

The National league pennant race may be decided in President Ford Frick's office.

Frick will be asked to rule on a protest by Manager Burt Shotton of Brooklyn of the Dodgers' 5-3 defeat at the hands of the Boston Braves last night.

The loss, together with St. Louis' 8-2 triumph over Pittsburgh, dumped the Dodgers into second place, a half game back of the Cardinals.

Shotton based his protest over a decision on Duke Snider's eighth inning triple with one out. The Brooklyn outfielder's drive, which according to Umpire Art Gore hit the three-foot screen atop the centerfield wall, bounded back on the playing field.

Gore first ruled it a homer, then reversed himself. Snider, running at full tilt, saw Gore signal a homer and slowed up as he came into third. He trotted home without a play being made on him.

The Braves, led by Manager Billy Southworth, stormed on the field, protesting the call. After a conference among the four impires, Snider was sent back to third.

Gore said he thought balls hitting the screen below the railing were home runs. He said he later realized his error and waved Snider back to third. Under the ground rule such a ball is in play.

Shotton said Gore's original call slowed up Snider on the bases, and that he might have completed the circuit even with a play on him. The score was 5-3 at the time. After going back to third Snider did not score, as the next two batters popped out.

BROOKS DROP

Last night's defeat not only knocked the Brooks out of first place, but snapped their six-game winning streak. A pair of home runs by Jeff Heath and Tommy Holmes, each with one on, did the trick for the Braves.

Gerry Staley, Stan Musial and Joe Garagiola combined their talents to lift the Cards into first place. Staley stopped the Pittsburgh Pirates with six hits while Musial and Garagiola pounded three-run homers to give the Redbirds an 8-2 triumph.

The Boston Red Sox hopped over the Cleveland Indians into second place in the American league race by twice outscoring the hapless Washington Senators, 15-7 and 13-11 in an afternoon night doubleheader. The Sox are five games in back of the pace-setting New York Yankees, and a half game in front of Cleveland. The Indians dropped a 6-5 verdict to the Chicago White sox, while the Yankees walloped the Philadelphia Athletics, 7-3.

FOURTEEN HITS

Vern Stephens led the 14-hit first game assault on four Nat hurlers with three hits including his 29th homer, and five runs batted in. The Sox were forced to come up with two tallies in the last of the eighth to snap an 11-11 tie.

Southpaw Tommy Byrne hurled four-hit ball over the last eight innings to register his tenth triumph for the Yankees.

Herb Adams' single with the bases loaded and two out in the ninth gave the White Sox their one-run decision over the Indians. The Indians had tied the score in the eighth with three runs, ignited by Larry Doby's home run.

Virgil Trucks permitted the St. Louis Browns only two hits in pitching the Detroit Tigers to a 4-1 triumph. It was hit fourteenth against eight losses.

In an afternoon game, Hank Borowy pitched the Philadelphia Phils to a 2-0 seven-inning victory over the New York Giants. Rain halted the contest.

The Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Reds were idle.

White Takes Tam Lead

CHICAGO, Aug. 13 (AP) — Buck White, a chunky, chuckling southerner who's been a pro for most of his 39 years, rode out in front today, gunning for the $10,000 first prize of the Tam o' Shanter world golf meet.

The straight-shooting Buck, who signs his name O'Neal White of Greenwood, Miss., shot a seven-under-par 65 yesterday for a halfway total of 135.

Right behind old Buck was Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C. He banged a 69. His starting 67 made his two-day total 136.

Four golfers were tied for third place at 137. They were Clayton Heafner of Charlotte, N. C., 66-71; Henry Ranson, Chicago, 67-70; Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif., 69-68; and Jim Turnesa, Briarcliff, N. J., 68-69.

American Legion Baseball

HILLSBORO FACES BREMERTON TODAY

PORTLAND, Aug. 13 (AP)—There'll be only one unbeaten team left in the Pacific Northwest regional American Legion junior baseball tournament today after Bremerton, Wash., meets Hillsboro, Ore.

Both came through unscathed in opening round games yesterday.

The Washington titlists posted two victories, 4-1 over Lewiston, Idaho, in the afternoon and 7-6 over the Waipahu team from Hawaii in the evening.

Oregon's champions chalked up their single win against Butte, Mont., 5-3.

Lewiston and Butte will battle it out in the day's second game, with the loser dropping out of the double elimination tourney.

Bremerton got its double triumph on the strong arm of Fred White, who set Lewiston down on three hits and then came back in the last inning against the Hawaiians to choke off a threatening raly.

Bobbies also figured heavily in Bremerton's wins. Three of the four runs against Lewiston's Joe Ruddell were unearned. The Idaho ace also tossed a three-hitter but had loose support as his mates committed five errors.

The fleet Waipahu club showed plenty of speed on the paths in converting six hits into six runs, but seven miscues in the field proved fatal.

Hilsboro stepped off to an early lead against Butte, then broke a 2-2 deadlock in the last of the third and was never seriously threatened after that. Jim Niermah scattered eight hits in going the route for the winners, and got three of his team's 11 safeties.

Flores, Chavez Signed

PORTLAND, Aug. 13 (Special) The most lucrative fight on the Pacific coast was signed for the Civic auditorium arena next Tuesday night, August 16, when Matchmaker Tex Salkeld disclosed he has Jesse Flores and Tony Chavez listed for the 10-round main event.

Flores, the most prominent pugilist brought to Portland since the appearance of Joey Maxim, is one of the leading contenders for the world's welterweight crown. He met Ike Williams for the lightweight title in the Polo Grounds in New York last summer. He has since campaigned as a welterweight and is now seeking a title scrap with Sugar Ray Robinson.

The Stockton slugger will be making his first appearance in the Northwest after many attempts to lure him here. Chavez, however, is well known in the area, having won several fights in Tacoma and been a party to some of the most sensational ring battles ever seen in the Puget Sound city.

Chaves is fighting Williams in his home town, San Jose, a week before the Portland scrap, an indication of the esteem he holds in Pacific coast ring circles.

NoCal Makes Up Games

Games cancelled one rainy Sunday afternoon last May will be played all around the Northern California semi-pro baseball circuit tomorrow.

On May 29 wet weather forced postponement of the entire league slate and those games are being played before the NoCal loop goes into its four-team Shaughnessy play-off.

A couple of the matches will have a definite bearing on the makeup of the playoff series. The Klamath Falls Pioneers, Dunsmuir Railroaders and Yreka Indians already have cinched three spots, but Hilt and McCloud are still able to eye the other berth. Hilt has a 7-6 record and McCloud a 6-7. If Hilt should lose its game to the Pioneers and McCloud should win over Mt. Shasta, both will be tied at 7-7 for the fourth playoff spot.

Fran Miller, playing manager of the Pioneers, will chuck against the Jets.

Dunsmuir, tied with Klamath Falls for the league lead, takes on the tough Yreka club and Weed plays a consolation game at Shasta Dam.

Track Season Slash Asked

SPOKANE, Aug. 13 (AP)—Spokane merchants want the Playfair track horse racing season cut from 33 days to 23. They say the longer season hurts business. A petition asking the slash was forwarded to the state racing commission yesterday by the retail trade bureau of the chamber of commerce.

Racing gets under way at Playfair September 2.

Ashby Hurls, Hits Eagles To Victory

Chet Ashby, sizzling Eagle hurler, didn't confine his talents to the mound Friday night. The bespectacled pitcher smacked a triple and single in two strides to the plate, in addition to winging one-hit ball, as the champion Eagles blanked the Merrill Billiards, 7 to 0.

This was the first contest in a two-of-three series in the county softball Shaughnessy play-offs.

In the consolation bracket, the Knights of Columbus, out-walloped Calhoun's, 18 to 12.

Ki Carrier, KC backstop, had a perfect night at bat, turning in four bingles in four trips, to lead the 14-hit attack on Calhoun's Gestvang.

The same teams are paired again Monday night. If the Eagles and KC win again, Wednesday night's games will be unnecessary.

Short scores:

Eagles	7	4	0
Merrill Billiards	0	1	3

Ashby and J. Derrah; Blackwell and Horn.

Close Gap

Beavers Blast Twinks

By The Associated Press

Slowly but surely the Sacramento Solons are closing the gap on the front running Hollywood Stars in the Pacific Coast league.

Today finds the Stars only 4½ games ahead. That's the closest any pursuer has been since May 28. If this keeps up the experts any day now will be asking that potent question of whether the Stars "have it" for the stretch run.

Sacramento edged up there last night by beating the Los Angeles Angels for the fifth straight time this week, 5-2. A four-run eighth-inning blast did the trick.

Hollywood, meantime, seemed to have the Portland Beavers under control, 5-2, going into the eighth inning. Then Portland kicked out the props with a six-run outburst that gave them the contest, 8-5. Hollywood still leads the series, 3-1.

Seattle stopped Oakland's winning ways, 5-3, by using pinch-hitters. Frank Colman's pinch single scored two in the sixth for Seattle to tie it and Al Lyon's pinch double in the seventh gave the Rainiers the margin. The loss left Oakland six games behind the leaders.

In San Francisco the Seals came from behind twice to double-whack the San Diego Padres, 10-4 and 4-3. Con Dempsey marked up his thirteenth win, against 11 losses, for the Seals in the second game.

Today's schedule:

Los Angeles (Brooker McDaniels 5-7) at Sacramento (Bob Gillespie 12-11), night game.

San Diego (unavailable) at San Francisco (unavailable), day game.

Portland (Tommy Bridges 9-9) at Hollywood (Glen Moulder 11-6), night game.

Oakland (Earl Jones 8-6) at Seattle (Guy Fletcher 18-9), night game.

Nag-Doping Draws Suit

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 13 (AP) The Vancouver Thoroughbred association and its three stewards have been sued for damages by Trainer Harry Howe, given a 60-day suspension two weeks ago on a charge of doping a race horse.

In bringing his suit yesterday, Howe accused the association of libeling him and causing him a heavy loss in earnings. The amount of damages he asked was not disclosed.

His suspension followed a report by the Royal Canadian mounted police that a Howe-trained mare, Mabel II, had been given a stimulant before winning the second race at Exhibition park last July 26.

Sanity Code Mulled Today

CHICAGO, Aug. 13 (AP)—A National College Athletic association committee is expected to make recommendations today on NCAA "sanity code" violators.

The group is considering behind closed doors the status of 16 known code violators, 11 schools classed as doubtful, and 12 which promised to mend their ways after being warned.

The three-man investigating group will report to the NCA meeting in New York, January 13-14.

The nine-man bowl game committee will meet today and tomorrow. It is expected to urge weeding out some minor bowl games that don't meet NCAA requirements for responsible management.

38 To 0

Eagles Smother All-Stars

CHICAGO, Aug. 13 (AP)—The most inept and bewildered all-star group in the 16-year history of the football series was buried 38-0 by the Philadelphia Eagles last night.

The National league champions, feeding 44 players into the scramble in an effort to keep down the score, couldn't help but roll up the most decisive edge since the games were inaugurated in 1934. Forty-eight All Stars were used out of a stockpile of 65.

A throng of 93,780 fans witnessed the massacre in Soldier Field.

Only three fine goal-line stands and other bits of defensive sparkle stood in the All Stars' favor.

Their heralded offensive weapon, the split T formation, proved ineffective. Their aerial attack, behind such aces as Norm Van Brocklin of Oregon and Frank Tripucka of Notre Dame, netted a minus three yards with three completions in 15 attempts.

With such ball-carriers as George Taliaferro of Indiana, Smackover Scott of Arkansas, Jack Mitchell of Oklahoma and Bobby Stuart of Army in action, the All Stars shoved their way through the Eagles for a mere 115 yards rushing.

The Eagles uncorked 19 first downs to five, 228 yards rushing and 130 passing.

But more emphatic than figures was the All Stars' inability to penetrate beyond midfield but once. That was in a first period drive that ended in a lost fumble on the Eagles' 30.

In jamming over 17 points in the second quarter, seven in the third and 14 in the last, five different Eagles went for touchdowns—Steve Van Buren, Russ Craft, Pete Pihos, Noble Doss and Neil Armstrong. Cliff Patton added a 16-yard field goal.

Most satisfying conclusion to the game—which kept the National league champions ahead in the series with nine victories to five, with two ties—was the absence of serious injuries to either group.

Fair Golfers Point For Sweepstakes

Names and handicaps of Reames women golfers planning to take part in the second Willamette-Southern Oregon Golf association sweepstakes at Eugene should be turned in to Mrs. J. J. Steiger or at the clubhouse this week-end.

The list must be sent to Eugene by Wednesday. The 18-hole tournament will be played August 24. The first sweepstakes tourney sponsored by the organization was played in Klamath Falls.

Jordan Spanks Braves, 7 to 2

Gems Ready For Redding

With Niles Jordan chucking his second spectacular game in a week, the Klamath Gems last night defeated the Marysville Braves 7-2 at Gems stadium and are making ready now to play host to Ray Perry and the Redding Browns for a two-game series.

The victory was Jordan's 14th of the season and he got a third strike by 13 Marysville batters. Last Monday he whiffed 15 in beating the Willows Cardinals 6-2.

The lefthander hurled shutout ball for six innings, although he gave up one hit in each of those frames. But the Marysville power showed in the seventh when — with two out—Outfielder Lee Kast poled a homer over the right-center barrier some 400 feet away. The next batter, Billy Ashley, singled to left and scored on Catcher Bill Casey's triple against the centerfield fence.

So went Marysville's two runs.

Klamath Falls scored early and often off Pitcher Pete Swain, who like Jordan came into the game with a 13-6 record.

In the first frame Swain walked the bases full and Gordy Hernandez delivered a clutch single to drive in two runs. In the second Ken Jensen walked, swiped second and scored on Pinky Hesse's single.

Two more runs came across in the third inning. Bob Casselli led off by walking and Hernandez tripled, then scored on Bill Reese's single. In the fourth Ken Jensen singled and Hesse drove him home with a two-bagger. The last run came in the eighth when Butch Faller was on base by way of a fielder's choice. Jensen walked to put Faler on second and Hesse got his third hit, a single, to drive in his third run.

The Gems gave Jordan excellent support, their two errors not figuring in Marysville's scoring. Jensen made the play of the night in the third inning when he leaped into the air for a two-fingered catch of Bill Ashley's screeching liner.

The victory failed to net the Spuds anything in their pursuit of the league-leading Pittsburghers as the Diamonds broke a four-game losing streak with a 10-9 win over Willows.

Medford's Nuggets broke a seven-game loss skein by taking Redding 5-3. Bill Pinckard hit two homers in that game.

Stan Gilson probably will get the pitching nod tonight to greet the Redding Browns — the hard-socking team led by home run hitter Ray Perry who has come into considerable criticism here for his field antics and who has telegraphed in an offer to "let the fans judge tonight and tomorrow night whether my club is being pressed by it's manager." The Sunday game will also be played at night.

The Klamath Falls-Redding rivalry is probably the hottest in the Far West league.

Aussies Favored

RYE, N. Y., Aug. 13 (AP) — The Italian Davis Cuppers were expected to expire quietly today and leave the Australians, as usual, to argue it out with the defending United States team in the challenge round for the world tennis trophy August 26-28 at Forrest Hills.

Because of rain, only one match was played yesterday in the interzone finals at the Westchester country club, but it was the one the European team champions could not lose if they hoped to give the Aussies a contest.

Billy Sidewell, a substitute for John Bromwich, who is badly off his game, returned to the court under protest after a two and one-half hour interruption by rain to defeat stocky Gianni Cucilli, ace of the Italian side, 6-2, 6-4, 2-6, 6-2.
