They plan to return here August 19 for the pioneer picnic and reunion to be held at Jackson F. Kimball Memorial park Sunday, August 21. Mrs. Moffatt is the sister of Harry Engle of Fort Klamath.

Mrs. William Zumburn was hostess Thursday afternoon to the sewing club, the time being spent in needlework and visiting. The following ladies were present: Mrs. Guss A. Page, Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. William C. Martin, Mrs. Lynn Webb, and two special guests of the hostess, Mrs. Sarah Stocum and Mrs. Katherine Nichols, the former visiting here from Berkeley, Calif., and the latter spending the summer here from Susanville, Calif.

Mrs. Thomo O. Dyche is employed as cook at the Fort Klamath hotel, taking the position made vacant when Mrs. Margaret Watson received a fractured right arm in a recent fall in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Watson had the arm placed in a cast last week, and is now at her home at the Watson apartments here.

J. E. Williams of Klamath Falls last week purchased the herd of dairy cows owned by Alvin Copeland and Clifford Engle of Fort Klamath, and took them to his Red Poll stock ranch near Klamath Falls.

Visiting here for a week with her grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Lookey, was little Patricia Ann Lookey and her mother, Mrs. Robinson, both of Sacramento, Calif. On Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holliday and daughter, Peggy Lee, of Klamath Falls spent the day here with Mrs. Lookey and her visitors. Mrs. Holliday being her granddaughter also, and the entire party enjoyed an outing at the Kimball Memorial park at the head of Wood river.

Mention of the Kimball park brings to mind several reports heard here lately that picnickers have been throwing empty bottles, cardboard boxes and other refuse into the beautiful pool which is the head of Wood river. This seems a pity, spoiling as it does the natural beauty of the spot. Suggestions made to help the situation include placing of several large trash containers on the grounds, as at the present time there is only one small one there, according to report, and also that a sign be erected asking the public not to throw rubbish in the water. The matter will in all probability be called to the attention of the proper authorities, the Oregon state board of forestry, it is understood.

Spending the week-end here from Warm Springs were E. W. Brewer and Charles Zumburn, both men being employed by the Warm Springs Lumber company there.

Dinner guests last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jackson were Mrs. Edna Orth, Mrs. Viola Lever and Jess Rightmeyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sisemore, accompanied by the latter's mother, Mrs. Lyle Bressler of Berkeley, Calif., returned Saturday morning from the south, where Sisemore underwent intensive major surgery at Stanford Lane hospital in San Francisco. He was moved a week past to Mrs. Bressler's home at Berkeley, where Mrs. Sisemore has been staying during his convalescence at the hospital. Sisemore is glad to be back home again, but is still weak from the operation, and tired from the trip home, which was made by train to Port Klamath, Mrs. Sisemore's father, Lyle Bressler, has been staying here with the Sisemore girls for the past month, and he and Mrs. Bressler will return to Berkeley this week-end.
