Jumpers For Young Fall Fashions

Mothers are promised a rosier outlook on blue Mondays and little girls snappier-looking school clothes by dark jumper dresses. Because they can dodge soil, need only a fresh blouse for daily sprucing up, and are as smartly styled as the next dress, dark jumpers are answers to mothers' cries for school clothes that keep the laundry pile down to decent size.

Although dark, there's nothing sadder about the jumper girl's dress. Designed for the sized 7-to-10 pig-tailed miss, dark jumpers are dark red, dark green or winter navy. Any of these lively but dirt-defying colors can take a change of white blouses and make a jumper girl look as freshly turned out as a starched-up kindergarten.

For the crisp look of her jumper, thanks go to new rayon failles and rayon gabardines. Designers' response to the crisp lustre of faille, to the smooth worsted finish of rayon gabardine results in good tailoring and smart detail. Examples of both are seen in sweetheart necklines, set-in midriff sweats, pouchy pockets and contrasting braid trim, which, in one instance, is used to band a dress to give it white scalloped detail above and below the waistline.

This particular gabardine dress is teamed with a white rayon blouse which owes its childish charm to a lace-trimmed collar and puffly ruffled sleeves. A jumper dress of faille with patch pockets, ensembled with a set-in waistband, is ensembled with a long-sleeved tailored blouse of white cotton.

WCTU Lowers Boom; Women Drunks Up

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 17 (AP)—Women alcoholics and habitual drunkards in the United States have increased to an all-time high of 800,000, an officer of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union said today. Mary B. Ervin, vice president at large of the WCTU, told the organization's executive committee the current increase in women drink victims is at the rate of 120,000 a year. The executive committee met prior to the opening of the group's 70th annual convention tomorrow. Miss Ervin said the number of women alcoholics and drunkards is shown by projection of the percentage of women alcoholics committed to mental institutions and psychopathic wards of general hospitals into the 4,000,000 alcoholics and drunkards in the country.

Census bureau reports issued last year, she said, "show that one of every four of the 27,303 alcoholics admitted to the institutions were women. Projection of the same ratio into the 4,000,000 plus verifying information, places women alcoholics at 800,000 as compared to 800,000 the year previously." Miss Ervin listed as one of the reasons for increased drinking of liquor among women as "liquor, wine and beer advertising that depicts drinking by women as socially smart and glamorous." She gave as other reasons: Congregation of bars and liquor stores in residential neighborhood shopping streets; alcoholic beverage departments in grocery and drug stores and kitchen and basement barroom drinking in the home."

J. P. Bradley Dies In Weed

DUNSMUIR, Calif., Aug. 17—A widely known Siskiyou county figure, Retired Judge J. P. Bradley, died at his home in Weed Saturday night at 9 o'clock, after an illness of seven months. He was 79 years old.

Funeral services were held Sunday from the Upton chapel in Weed with Rev. M. Fitzgerald officiating. The remains were shipped to the Chapel of the Chimes in Oakland, Calif., for cremation.

James Pendleton Bradley was born in Roseburg, October 23, 1869. He served this community as justice of the peace for 28 years, and was a resident for 40 years. He was a school teacher in his youth in Pennsylvania, and also in the West. He was the oldest member of the Dunsmuir chapter of Footprints and the first honorary grand president of the organization, having been so named at the annual national convention in Denver in 1947.

Survivors are his wife, Hattie Harriet, and three daughters, Mrs. Goldie Ohler and Mrs. Esther Marshall, both of Oakland, Calif., and Mrs. Ruby Price of Vallejo, Calif.

He left a will which did not favor use of this legal weapon except in extreme cases. Nang Nantaka also criticized the law that gives the husband power to handle his wife's property. She said women who had their own careers outside the home should be allowed to manage their own property.

Thai Women Will Battle Polygamy

BANGKOK (AP)—How can Thai (Siamese) women be considered as having equality with men when the males are permitted to have more than one wife? So asked Nang Nantaka Suprabhatanand, former chairman of the Women's Law association, amid the cheers of the Thai Women's association.

The woman attorney said Thai women legally have equal rights but nature and tradition militate against attainment of this equality. She said it probably would be impossible to pass a law to change the marital situation, but it was fortunate that the cost of living these days obstructs most men from having more than one wife. The law recognizes three types of Thai wives: legally registered, semi-wife and servant wife. Women have the right of divorce, she commented, but she did not favor use of this legal weapon except in extreme cases. Nang Nantaka also criticized the law that gives the husband power to handle his wife's property. She said women who had their own careers outside the home should be allowed to manage their own property.
