Wocus

At the Wocus Community club meeting, which took place at the gun club Saturday night, August 6, new officers were elected for a year's term. They are, Melvin Vanderhoff, chairman; Rayburn South, vice chairman; Robert Johnson, second vice chairman; Florence Evert, secretary; Katherine Child-ester, treasurer. It was decided to change the meeting night from the first Friday of each month to the first Saturday. That would cause the next meeting to fall on the Saturday prior to Labor Day.

Zoning and restrictions are the most important subjects being discussed by the club at present.

Recent house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Hoffman were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shea, formerly of Bly, now of Portland. The Sheas and Hofmans were ardent pinocle fans when both families resided at Bly several years ago.

On August 8, the Hofmans returned the visit and were guests of the former Bly couple, in Portland, returning by way of Walport where they purchased a 25-acre section of beach property. Mrs. Hoffman says they plan to develop the beach land into a recreation area, using an idea of her own, which, she thinks would be "just a little different" from any thing she has ever seen.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Buck and two daughters, Peggy Jo and Donna Jean attended the Masonic picnic held at Collier state park, Sunday, August 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Helm and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurd were guests of the Fred Mortons Sunday afternoon, August 14, and helped celebrate the occasion of "initiating" the first outdoor barbecue to be built in Wocus. The outdoor stove is built of brick, and boasts a terracotta chimney. It is built in the back yard, and is surrounded by a thick green lawn. Toasted wieners and buns, with German-fried potatoes, apple pie and coffee marked the first meal cooked on the original barbecue stove of this area.

"Hayks," a pure bred Arabian stallion, owned by the Aaron Hoffmans, died August 9. The cause of death was not learned.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Vanderhoff are proud of their second grandson, Craig Leonard, born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chenut, of Henley, August 5. Mrs. Chenut is the former Shirley Vanderhoff.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Chidester are now at home with Lloyd's parents, the Emmett Chidesters, where they plan to stay until they find a suitable place to buy and make their permanent home.

Bill Alcorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Hoffman, was recently released from Klamath Valley hospital, and will return this week to Salem Memorial hospital to resume treatment of injuries sustained in an automobile accident near Salem, July 1.
