Christine Dent, Pacific Coast regional director of the Westinghouse Home Economics Institute, will be the featured performer at the "Homemaker's Party" to be held Tuesday, August 23 at the Leland theatre. The party will start at 3 p.m. and is being sponsored by East Side Appliances, local Westinghouse dealers.

Miss Dent will give a lecture-demonstration of modern home appliances and how to use them more efficiently. She is a graduate of Drexel Institute in Philadelphia with a degree in home economics, and taught the subject six years in Trenton, N.J. For the past two years she has been conducting demonstrations and cooking schools for Westinghouse.

Admission to the party is free, according to Dewey Randolph of East Side Appliances, and table appliances will be given as special prizes. As another feature, the major appliances used in the demonstration will be awarded to the highest bidders after the party, Randolph said.

KC Asks Red Nation Curbs

PORTLAND, Aug. 19 (AP)—The Knights of Columbus organization is urging the United Nations to shuck off the Russian-dominated countries of Eastern Europe.

A resolution passed at the annual convention of the Catholic lay organization yesterday decried the "brutal totalitarian regime responsible for the detention of Archbishop Beran and the torture and imprisonment of Cardinal Mindszenty and Archbishop Stepinac."

The U. S. representatives to the United Nations were asked to "take all steps available to them to bring about the condemnation of these crimes against human rights, and to purge the United Nations of their perpetrators."

Delegates passed unanimously the resolution, announced earlier, opposing the Barden bill that would limit federal school aid to students at public schools.

The resolution asserted there was no chance of "the possibility of union of church and state, if that might be conceived as a danger, occurring from aid to other than public schools."

Another resolution favored creation of an international zone at Jerusalem to assure "free access to the sacred shrines."

Schools In Siskiyou Get Art Director

YREKA, Aug. 19—The Siskiyou County school system will have an art supervisor this year for the first time.

She is Miss Olive Tjossem, who already has arrived in Yreka for the opening of the fall term.

Miss Tjossem took summer school work at St. Cloud Teachers college in St. Cloud, Minn.

Her previous experience includes rural teaching and positions at Central Washington college of Ellensburg, Wash.; Drury college of Springfield, Mo.; Sioux City, Iowa, public schools and Creston, Iowa, Junior college.

Miss Mildred Grant, county superintendent of schools, announced Miss Tjossem's appointment today.

Lee Stoll Dies In Portland

OREGON CITY, Aug. 19 (AP)—Lee C. Stoll, head of the labor-management committee credited with keeping Portland free of strikes throughout the war, died in a hospital here last night.

The 54-year-old mediator had undergone an operation recently after a long illness.

The director of the state employment service for eight years until 1947, Stoll also had been state director of the war manpower commission in the war and a member of the Clackamas county planning commission. He lived at nearby West Linn.

The funeral date has been set.
