

S
O
C
I
E
T
Y

By Joan
Foulon

A LOVELY BRIDE of this summer was Dorothy M. Howry, above, when she became the bride of Robert H. Beach of Jacksonville, Oregon. Dorothy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Howry of this city, and Robert is the son of Mrs. Stella W. Beach of Jacksonville. The ceremony was read Sunday, August 14, at the First Methodist church at 4 o'clock. The two plan to live in Ashland where they will complete their senior year at Southern Oregon college.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Barbara Jane Hood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bristow Hood, formerly of this city and now of Redding, Calif., to William Austin Rockwell, son of Mrs. William A. Rockwell of Berkeley, was announced recently by her parents. Shown at the center are Mrs. Richard Callahan, Barbara and little Pamela Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Jenkins, who passed the announcement scrolls telling of the October wedding plans at a tea given at the home of Mrs. Hugh Campbell Wednesday. See story, page 6.

VISITING HERE recently were Mrs. Stanley Biehn, formerly of this city and now of Seattle, and her daughter, Marlene. The two vacationed here for two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John Sandmeyer, sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Biehn, her brother Harold Robertson, and her mother, Mrs. C. S. Robertson. Members of the younger set here have had several parties for Marlene.

MARRIED SUNDAY were Marjorie Ongman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ongman, and James Conroy, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Conroy of Lakeview. The two, as shown above, are cutting the wedding cake at their reception after the vows were exchanged at the Sacred Heart Catholic church in a 3 o'clock ceremony.

CHARTING THE TRAIL to their new home in San Jose are Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Lamb. Dr. and Mrs. Lamb, shown at the left, plan to leave early in September for the California city where he will establish his office.