Red Sox Blank Senators, 6-0; Kinder Stingy

Hurler Gives Only Three Blows; Bums Cards Tied Again

By The Associated Press

Ellis Kinder, dropped by the New York Yankee organization eight years ago, is finally paying off on the $65,000 investment made on him by the Boston Red Sox in 1947.

Entrusted with few starting assignments the 35-year-old Kinder showed only a mediocre 4-4 record by June 12 this season.

Then, without warning, Kinder got hotter than the mid-summer weather. He reeled off 11 straight victories in games in which he was a starter. His only defeat during the last two months came in a relief role.

Kinder reached his peak last night when he shut out the Washington Senators, 6-0, on three singles. It was his fifth straight triumph and his 15th of the year against five defeats. Not even 18-game winning Mel Parnell, the league's biggest winner and Kinder's teammate, has pitched better during the last eight weeks.

The Red Sox collected only six hits themselves, but benefitted by Dick Welk's wildness to tally six runs in three innings to win their eighth straight from the Senators.

YANKS WIN

The victory enabled the Bosox to remain four games behind the pace-setting Yankees, who came from behind to defeat the Philadelphia Athletics, 7-4. It also kept them in second place, a game in front of the Cleveland Indians, who shut out the Chicago White Sox, 2-0. The hapless Senators now have lost nine straight and 32 out of their last 36 games.

The National league pennant race is all knotted up again following Brooklyn's victory and St. Louis' defeat last night. Brooklyn won a 6-4, 12-inning thriller from the Boston Braves, while the Cardinals bowed to the Pirates in Pittsburgh, 8-2.

The fifth place Philadelphia Phillies moved to within half a game of third when they beat the New York Giants, 7-1. They trail the fourth-place Braves by a fraction of a percentage point. Chicago's Cubs whipped the Cincinnati Reds, 7-4, in the battle for the cellar. Detroit divided a doubleheader with the St. Louis Browns, winning the second game, 4-2 after the Browns had won the opener, 4-3. Rain halted the second game after six innings.

HENRICH HOT

Tommy Henrich was the big gun in the Yankees' victory over the Mackmen. After four Philadelphia errors had enabled the Yankees to pull even at 4-4, Henrich singled in two tallies in the sixth to break the tie, then hammered his 22nd home run in the eighth to give Relief Pitcher Duane Pillette the victory.

Mike Garcia, with help from Alton Benton, pitched the Indians to their shutout win over the White Sox. A home run by Bob Kennedy, followed by Garcia's double and Dale Mitchell's single, accounted for the two runs off Randy Gumpert.

Brooklyn blew a 4-0 lead in the ninth, but came back to tally twice in the top of the 12th to beat the Braves. Duke Snider's double off Red Barrett sent in the tie-breaking runs.

Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner batted in five runs with a single and his 33rd homer to wreck the Cardinals. Cliff Chambers scattered seven hits for his ninth victory against three defeats.

Softball Dissension

HOOD RIVER, Aug. 20 (AP)—The softball championship of the Hood River - The Dalles district was thrown into angry confusion today after a Hood River player was declared ineligible.

The Bonneville Engineers of Hood River won a third straight game, 1-0, from Wasco Electric Cooperative of The Dalles in the district playoff last night.

But Lee Davenport, district softball commissioner, ruled that the first two victories did not count because the Bonneville team had used an ineligible player. He was Outfielder Ed Weiss, who also plays for Artcraft Linoleum of Portland.

Vern Tennieson, manager of The Dalles club, said his team is "not interested in going to the state tournament, but we do not feel that Bonneville is eligible."

Protests were sent to Don January, Eugene director of the State Softball association.

Honker Grid Drill Called

LAKEVIEW Aug. 20—Football suits will be issued to Lakeview high school players August 22 and 23, and practice will begin August 24, it was announced this week by Coach John Rossi. The players will begin getting in shape for their first game, which will be September 16 with Henley on the Lakeview gridiron.

Suits will be issued on Monday and Tuesday next week from 9:30 a. m. to 12 noon and evenings from 7 to 9. Practice beginning Wednesday, August 24, will be from 10 a. m. to 12 noon and from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m. Rossi stated that only the boys who get in top physical condition will be allowed to play in the opening game.

Teen-Ager Whiffs 31

YORK, Pa., Aug. 20 (AP)—Seventeen-year-old Gene Snyder's dreams of playing major league baseball some day may come true if his pitching performance last night is a sample of his hurling power.

The southpaw youngster struck out 31 players to give his York teammates a 4 to 1 victory in a 14-inning contest over the Nanticoke, Pa., team in the American Legion's Eastern Pennsylvania semi-playoff game.

Snyder pitched a no-hit game for eight innings.

Iron Out Travel Kinks

YAKIMA, Wash., Aug. 20 (AP) Travel kinks will be worked out this afternoon by the three teams entered in the three-day American Legion Junior baseball western states tournament opening tomorrow at 2 p. m. (PDT).

A depot welcome wac given the Omaha, Neb., Oakland, Calif., and Bremerton, Wash., squads as they arrived by train.

The regional playoff winners each had an hour to familiarize themselves with Parker field, home of the first place Yakima Bears of the Western International league.

The opening day's pairings will be determined at a dinner program drawing tonight, presided over by Alfred Sheppard, Paris, Idaho, American Legion officer in charge of the double elimination tourney.

Teams No. 1 and 2 will meet in the first game, with the loser playing team No. 3 at 8 p. m. tomorrow night. A single game is scheduled at 8 p. m. Monday. Tuesday night's game will get under way at 6:30 p. m. with a second game to follow immediately if it is needed to decide the championship.

The winner will qualify for the national finals at Omaha.

LEAD TIED IN CAL-ORE

LAKEVIEW, Aug. 20—Last Sunday's baseball games left Alturas and Lakeview again tied in California-Oregon league first place, with Tulelake in third, and playoffs will begin with a Lakeview-Alturas game here during the roundup, on September 4.

Sunday, Lakeview defeated Merrill 23-6, while at Alturas that team split a doubleheader with Tulelake.

The Alturas-Lakeview game here on Sunday, September 4, will be played at 10 a. m.

On the Sunday following, September 11, there will be a doubleheader played on the Lakeview field. The loser of the Lakeview-Alturas game of September 4 will first play Tulelake, and in the second game of the afternoon, the winner of the first September 11 game will play the winner of the Lakeview-Alturas game of September 4.

Two baseball games have been scheduled during the Lakeview Roundup. The second will be September 5 at 9:30 a. m. with Burns.

Howard Hurls 18 Strikeouts For Brownies

Hernandez Gets Only Gem Hit In 8-1 Redding Loss

REDDING, Aug. 20 (Special) Klamath Falls, best hitting club in the Far West league, according to the statistics, got an acute case of hitlessness last night and lost an 8-1 decision to Southpaw Jim Howard and the Redding Browns.

Howard struck out 18, a new high mark for this year, and gave up only one hit in notching his 13th victory. Howard holds the league record this year for strikeouts (192), for bases on balls (150) and for wild pitches (21).

The loss ended a seven-game win streak for the Gems and threw them two and a half games back of the Pittsburg Diamonds who defeated Marysville 6-3.

Howard was striking out two of every three batters to face him and had a no-hitter through seven innings. In the top of the eighth Gordy Hernandez led off with a single and went to second when Russ Rosburg muffed it in right field. Hernandez stole third and scored when Al Kruk—a pitcher playing third base—missed a throw on the steal.

That was Klamath's only run. The Browns had gotten all that was necessary to hand Chuck Schildmeyer his first defeat of the season in the second inning, on consecutive singles by Ray Perry, Kruk and Chuck Godshall and an infield error.

HESSE SKEIN ENDS

The game saw the end of Pinky Hesse's hitting streak in which he had one or more safeties in 15 straight games. Hesse was last held to nothing August 3 by Pittsburg, and in the 15 games had 36 hits in 67 times at bat. The skein included 28 singles, six doubles, a triple and a homer and a percentage of .537.

Hesse struck out four times last night.

Howard's 18 whiffs came near the league record of 19 for a nine-inning game set last year by Klamath's Joe Nicholas. Jules Hudson of Oroville established the league topper with 22 strikeouts in an 11-inning game.

The Klamath Falls club comes home tonight to meet the Medford Nuggets, starting a six-game home stand. Tonight's game will include a special "fans' night" feature honoring the players' choice of Klamath Falls' most rabid fan.

Medford is riding on the crest of a winning streak now—two games. The Nuggets topped Willows last night 9-4.

Backs Named For Upstate

PORTLAND, Aug. 20 (AP) — The starting backfield of the upstate all-stars appeared set today for the Shriners' hospital benefit game here August 27 against the Portland all-stars.

Although Coach Mel Ingram would not commit himself definitely, the starting quartet appeared to be Clint Reese, Grants Pass, quarterback; Don Donovan, Grants Pass, and Rich Riggs, Medford, halfback and Phil Gillis, Bend, fullback.

The upstate team worked on offensive plays yesterday, and will take up defense next week when practice will be limited to one drill daily.

The Portland team, bigger and faster than last year, began work on pass defense yesterday.

Los Angeles Girl Wins Golf Bauble

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20 (AP) Fifteen-year-old Marlene Bauer, of Los Angeles is the first titleholder of the national girls junior golf tournament.

She copped the honor in the first annual tourney at the Philadelphia country club yesterday, defeating, Barbara Bruning, White Plains, N. Y., in the finals, 2 up.

NEW TURF ON FIELD—This is the way the new crown and turf on Modoc field looks after a summer of growing. The field was built up to an 18-inch crown in the center for better drainage and less bruising play, but the grass stand may be a little tender to withstand the hard usage the field will get this fall.

Record-Breaking A Habit

Furuhashi Shatters Third Splash Mark; Swims 800 In 9:35:5

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20 (AP)—The American swimming championship is firmly in the possession of Japan.

Incomparable Hironoshin Furuhashi and company finished their mop-up of National AAU titles last night as Mr. F. clicked off another world record in the 800-meter free style.

But, fortunately for American face, unheralded Robert Gibe of the Detroit Athletic club came through to win the 100-meters and prevent a free style sweep by the Nipponse.

The big gold cup emblematic of the American team title goes home with the Tokyo swim club tomorrow night. The six-man Nip team amassed 62 points, more than the next two teams combined.

The big buzz still was on over Furuhashi's unheard-of feats of battering world's records for the 400, 800 and 1500 meters on successive nights. He also led his mates to a new international standard in the 800-meter free style relay.

The 21-year-old aquatic machine from Fujiyama negotiated the 800 meters in 9:35.5, chipping 15.4 big seconds off Bill Smith's mark set in 1941.

Hollywood Lead Chopped

OAKS BLAST PINKY WOODS, WIN 10-5

By The Associated Press

Thanks to a tenth inning single last night by San Diego's Max West 550 miles away, the Oakland Oaks today are in undisputed possession of second place in the Pacific Coast league standings, four games behind Hollywood.

The Acorns deserve at least half of the credit themselves, however. They lambasted Hollywood again by a convincing 10 to 5 margin in an eighth inning uprising which produced four runs on four hits.

Pinky Woods, the Stars' strapping right-hander, was the victim as the Oaks hiked their series edge to three and one.

West's contribution to the Oakland cause was this:

The Padre home run czar clouted his 39th round tripper of the season early in the game to help give San Diego a 5 to 2 lead over Sacramento at the end of six innings. But the Solons tied it up in the tenth to single Whitey Wietelman across with the winning run. The score was 6-5.

The win gave the Padres a 3 to 2 lead in the eight-game series and put the Sacs back in third place, five games off the pace.

At Portland, meanwhile, Dr. Francis Dierickx, the medical profession's gift to organized baseball, swallowed a bitter pill last night. The good doctor was unable to diagnose Seattle's batting power, and the Rainiers operated on him for a 5 to 2 triumph over the Beavers.

Dierickx lasted a little better than two innings. In that time, Jackie Albright touched him for two doubles and Ed Coleman smacked a home run. Later, Albright got another double and two singles off reliefer Vince Di Blast. That gave him five for five for the night.

A pitching duel developed at Los Angeles as San Francisco edged the cellar squad, 2 to 1. The Angels collected seven hits off Harry Feldman and the Seals got only three off Angel flingers Don Watkins and Ken Gables. Two of these, though, were homers by Mickey Rocco, a former Angel. His second round tripper in the sixth sewed up the ball game.

Ragged Baseball

WICHITA, Kas., Aug. 20 (AP) Chances are the customers will get a look at some tighter semi-pro baseball tonight.

They couldn't see much wilder than that dished up in the second game of the opening session of the national tournament here last night.

That was the 15-1 walk-away by the Alpine, Tex., Cowboys from the Camden, Ark., Kraftsmen. The game was called at the end of the fifth under the semi-pro rule that stops a contest in which one team is leading by 12 or more runs at that point.

One opening game of the first round was much better. The Holcomb, Mo., Cardinals won that one from the Cessna Bobcats of Wichita, 8-3.

Cerdan Back "To Get Title"

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP)—Marcel Cerdan is here to "get my title back."

"I came back to the United States to win," the former middleweight champion said shortly after docking yesterday on the Ile de France.

Cerdan will meet Middleweight Champion Jake LaMotta at the Polo Grounds September 28. LaMotta won the title from Cerdan last June when the Frenchman had to give up because of a shoulder injury.

200 Nimrods Aim At Antelopes

LAKEVIEW, Aug. 20 (AP) — The special Oregon antelope hunting season opened today. More than 200 hunters poured out of Lakeview in early morning for the hunting territory east of here.

A total of 1000 permits were issued for the hunt. Eight state police officers were on the scene to prevent poaching.

McCready, Stranahan In Tee Mix

MAMARONECK, N. Y., Aug. 20 (AP) — It will be every man for himself today as the British and American Walker cup golf teams end their two day competition with eight singles matches.

The Britons face the none too encouraging prospect of having to overcome a 3 to 1 advantage piled up by the home squad in the Scotch foursome play yesterday. The team of Joseph Carr and Ronnie White defeated Ray Willows and Willie Turnesa, America's No. 1 tandem, for the only British triumph in four matches.

A replay of the semi-finals of this year's British amateur loomed as the highlight of today's 36-hole matches over the Winged Foot course with its undulating terrain and tricky greens which baffled all but one pair yesterday.

That match brings together Max McCready, burly Irishman who won the British amateur, and Frank Stranahan, the defending champion whom he defeated in his march to the crown.

Porky Holds Halfway Lead

HAYDEN LAKE, Idaho, Aug. 20 (AP)—Ed (Porky) Oliver, Seattle pro, paced the field today at the halfway mark of the eighth annual $2500 Esmeralda Open golf tournament with a 36 hole par-drubbing 129 on rounds of 64 and 65.

A 30-foot putt for an eagle two on the final hole gave him a one strike lead over a pair of brother pros, Marvin (Bud) Ward of Spokane and Bill Welch of Lewiston, Idaho.

Ward, former national amateur champion, toured the Hayden Lake Golf club course in identical 65's. Welch turned in a 63 for the hottest first round score but slipped to a 67 in the afternoon.

Stan Leonard, Vancouver, B. C. professional, was two strokes off the pace in fourth with 131 on round of 64 and 67.

Ray Weston of Spokane was the low amateur with 65-69—134.

The 36 pro and 12 amateur survivors in the field of 90 teed off today for the final 36 holes. The tournament is sponsored by the athletic round table of Spokane.

Waitkus Wants To See Action

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20 (AP) Eddie Waitkus hopes to get into a few games before the major baseball season closes — but it is mostly hope.

"I would like to get in a few games before the curtain comes down," the Philadelphia Phillies first baseman said last night as he was honored at Shibe park, "but that will be up to the doctors."

Waitkus, making his first appearance in uniform since he was shot in a Chicago hotel by an infatuated girl June 12, received numerous gifts from the fans.

The gifts included an automobile, television set, two radios, matched luggage, set of golf clubs, two suits of clothes, wrist watch, table lighter and box of sports shirts.

Owls, Pelicans Open Gridfare

The Oregon Tech Owls are already sweating through practice sessions on their mile-high drill field and the KU Pelicans get their first call Monday as football fever moves in.

Coach Dale Daugherty has a squad of about 30 players in uniform now at Oregon Tech and expects to have 10 or 15 more—including three lads who will perform next Saturday night in the Shrine all-star game—joining within the next week or 10 days.

Of the 1948 Owls, just four lettermen are working out now, the transiency of the OTI student body making it hard to pile up a backlog of experienced players. Two or three more of last year's players may roll in later.

The lettermen are John Paasch, who played end last year and is trying at quarterback; Odis Elder, who also played end and is now working at quarter; Harold Wirth, guard, and Fred Hess, backfield. Hess is not in uniform yet. Another OTI letter-bearer out is Chuck Warren, last season's basketball star. Warren is running at halfback.

Daugherty said he hoped to have Bob Redkey, mainstay of the '48 team, back this year as well as End Jack Parrish, Halfback Clarence Adams and others. Bill Daugherity, who was first string quarterback last season, is working as assistant coach.

Among the prospective new players expected in are Glen Miller, tackle and end; Jerry McElhaney, fullback; Darrell Everett, guard; Bob Harms, end, and Chuck Taylor, quarterback. All are out of Portland high schools.

The Owls are being schooled in the T formation with the quarterback making a complete spin on each play for more deception, and for the most par a balanced line.

Coach Bob Hendershott of the Pelicans has called for all returning members of last year's Pelican and Jayvee football squads to meet at the Modoc field house at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon for issue of equipment and physical exams.

Tuesday afternoon all of last year's Wildcats and other high school footballers will draw gear.

Football practice for the Pelicans will start Wednesday.

Eagles Paired In First Game Of State Play

District 7 Champs Will Meet Seaside-Astoria Winner

The Klamath Falls Eagles, district 7 softball champs, will get a test the first game of the state tournament in Eugene August 28.

Pairings for the tourney were announced yesterday from Eugene although some of the districts have yet to culminate their play-offs.

The Eagles will be paired with the winner of the district 13 Seaside-Astoria game at noon Sunday, August 28.

A district 7 play-off was unnecessary when Ashland objected to competing in this district along with Klamath Falls and Lakeview. Lakeview felt it was not sufficiently organized to enter a team.

In the meantime, the Ashland nine switched district effections and are now lined up with Medford and Grants Pass in district 8.

The schedule for the opening round August 28 will be:

12 noon — District 7 (Klamath Falls) vs. District 13 (Seaside-Astoria).

1 p.m.—District 4 (Albany-Lebanon) vs. District 10 (LaGrande, Baker, Nyssa, Ontario, etc.).

2 p.m. — District 11 (Pendleton, Hermiston, Milton-Freewater, etc.) vs. District 8 (Medford, Grants Pass, Ashland).

3 p.m.—District 5 (Corvallis) vs. District 12 (Bonneville-The Dalles).

4 p.m.—District 9 (Bend, Redmond, Prineville, Hines, John Day) vs. District 14 (Salem).

7:30 p.m.—District 1 (West Linn, Molalla, Tigard, Hubbard, Estacada, Oswego) vs. District 15 (Springfield).

8:30 p.m.—District 2 (McMinnville, Tillamook, Mt. Angel, North Lincoln county) vs. District 6 (Cottage Grove, Roseburg, Coos Bay).

9:30 p.m.—District 16 (Eugene) vs. District 3 (Hillsboro, St. Helens, Forest Grove, Orenco).

Two of the quarter-final games will be played Monday and the other two Tuesday night, at 7:30 and 8:30 p.m., respectively. The semi-finals will be played at 7:30 and 8:30 p.m. Wednesday. Semi-final losers will meet at 7:30 p.m. and the championship game will be at 8:30 p.m. Thursday.

The winner will enter the regional tournament in Boise, Ida., and will be matched against the runner-up team from Seattle.

Winner of the Portland title (the Rose City, for the first time, will not play in the official state tourney) will be matched against the Seattle champs. Both games will be played September 3, at 1 and 9:30 p.m. respectively.

NoCal Play-Off

A baseball game to determine the first-place winner of the Northern California semi-pro league will be played tomorrow afternoon at the Weed, Calif., ball park.

The Klamath Falls Pioneers and Dunsmuir Railroaders finished the league schedule with 10 wins and four losses each, and play off the tie before beginning the NoCal Shaughnessy playoff next week.

Game time at Weed is 2:30.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press

Batting—Tommy Henrich, Yankees, singled in two runs to break a 4-4 tie and added his 22nd homer two innings later to help the Yankees defeat the Athletics, 7-4.

Pitching—Ellis Kinder, Red Sox, blanked the Senators, 6-0, with three hits for his fifth straight victory and 15th of the season.

U. S. Dominates B. C. Clay Court Tennis Tourney

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 20 (AP) Americans dominated all but one division as the British Columbia clay courts junior singles tennis tournament went into the finals today.

Canada's title hopes rested with the Vancouver duo of Barbara Wood and Donalda Sparling in the women's doubles. They will meet Jean Morgan, Pasadena, Calif., and Patsy Heard, Portland, in the championship match.

Finalists in other divisions are:

Men's singles—Terry Campbell, Spokane, vs. John Dupriest, Tacoma.

Women's singles—Miss Heard, defending champion vs. Miss Morgan.

Men's doubles—Campbell and Harold Gray, Tacoma, vs. Dupriest and Dick Bailey, Spokane.

Mixed doubles—Jean Kropf, Spokane, and Gray vs. Miss Heard and Dupriest.
