

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh Fullerton

By Austin Realmeare (For Hugh Fullerton, Jr.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 24 (AP)—It will be the rest of the season, it will be the first time in 13 years for three regular New York Giants outfielders to finish above the magic mark. . . . In 1936 The Giants' outfield trio included Mel Ott, who clubbed 327; Joe Mauer, whose average was .316, and Jimmie Foxx, with a season average of .305. . . . Denny Myers, Boston college football coach, recently landed a couple of tuna, each weighing around 230 pounds, and was telling Tennessee Coach Bob Neyland about it in a letter. . . . "They had nice sloping heads like linemen," Myers wrote, "but I had to throw them back because they couldn't learn the signals and like to go south in the winter."

Jerry Mitchell, New York Post: "Old Connie Mack takes it so easy you'd think he was a member of the Boston Red Sox. . . . He sits in a corner of the dugout, shuts his eyes to had plays, opens them to the good, naps between innings and lets his coaches argue with the umpires. . . . He even gave up signaling with a scorecard years ago when the type got too heavy."

Ever wonder what became of the liberty ships that were named for outstanding sports figures during the war? . . . Only four of the original 14 are still in service. . . . They are the Knute Rockne, the George Gipp, the William H. Edwards and the Charles Faddock. . . . The John L. Sullivan, the James J. Corbett and the Percy Houghton have been consigned to the national defense reserve fleet. . . . The Lou Gehrig, the Christy Mathewson, the Amner Doubleday and the Edward L. Grant are laid up. . . . The John J. McGraw has been sold to British owners, who renamed it the Lassell. . . . The Walter Camp and the Hobart Baker were war victims, sent to the bottom by enemy torpedoes.

One of those annual magazines which attempt to tell what's what in college football picks army, Georgia and Oklahoma as the teams most likely to get through the 1949 season without a scratch. . . . Didn't they ever hear of Notre Dame or Michigan? . . . Frank Parker turned down an invitation to practice with the Australian Davis Cup team. . . . "Just because American team dropped me doesn't mean I'll switch over to the opposition," he said. . . . "I'm not that kind of a heel." . . . Jack Bromwich's appearance in the Davis Cup challenge round here this week-end will be the fifth for the Australian star. . . . It will be the fourth for our Ted Schoreder.

Owls Turn Thumbs Down On Grid Tilt

Proposal of a football game between the Oregon Tech Owls and a picked team of former Pelican high school players has met with deafening opposition up on the hill. Dale Daugherty, OTI football coach, currently drilling his squad for the coming grid campaign, turned thumbs down on the proposal yesterday, saying his team had everything to lose and nothing to gain by going outside their schedule for an early game. September 17 had been mentioned as the date. A number of ex-KUHS players were ready to start practicing if the proposed game was sanctioned, and the Quarterback club was contemplating sponsorship.

Lowly Angels Drub Tottering Twinks, 8-3

Seals Nip Oaks; Sacs Nip Beavers, 2-1, In 10 Frames

By The Associated Press
Hollywood, which hoped to fatten its shaky Pacific Coast league lead on last place Los Angeles, may do some disastrous starving instead. As often happens with bitter home town rivalries, the lowly Angels knocked off the Stars 8 to 3 Tuesday night. Cal McLash held the Stars to three singles and hit a triple that touched off a four run fifth inning. Oakland lost a chance to gain a game on the Stars when San Francisco Pinchhitter Roy Partee's squeeze play sent Mickey Rocco home for a 2 to 1 win. The ninth-inning run climaxed a thrilling pitcher's duel between the Seals' Al Lien and the Oaks' Earl Jones. Lien gave up six hits while Jones, in losing, gave up but five. Sacramento took a ten inning decision from Portland 2 to 1. Mal Mallette threw a six hitter in winning a tight battle with the Beavers' Roy Heiser. Bobby Wilson singled in the 14th inning to score Alie Clark to enable San Diego to shade Seattle 3 to 2. Ironically, the Rainiers' Guy Fletcher, trying for his 21st win, tried to purposely walk Wilson. But the Padre second baseman reached out to bang his game winning single. Wednesday's schedule and probable pitchers:

Hollywood (Pinky Woods 17-11), at Los Angeles (Ken Gables 5-5). Oakland (Milo Candini 9-7), at San Francisco (Harry Feldman 6-3). Portland (Vince Di Biasi 9-12), at Sacramento (Ken Holcombe 17-6). Seattle (Denny Galehouse 7-7), at San Diego (Xavier Rescigno 9-11).

Marlene Eyes Golf Bauble

CHICAGO, Aug. 24 (AP)—A teenager has never won the coveted women's western amateur golf crown in nearly one half century of competition. Now 15-year-old Marlene Bauer of Los Angeles is aiming to break through the charmed circle. Marlene played in her first western amateur as a top of eight in 1941, garbed in a sport shirt, overalls and completely ignoring shoes. She wound up in one of the last flights. Returning to the fast competition last season, she was co-medalist of the meet at San Francisco with 76 but was eliminated in the second round. The 5 foot 2 inch Marlene was only four over par in eliminating Mrs. H. R. Staats, the Iowa champion from Davenport, 3-2 in yesterday's first round. A major upset is already in the books with Mrs. D. G. Copping of San Mateo, Calif., eliminating Defending Champion Dot Kieley, Long Beach, Calif., 3-2.

PLC Turnout Scheduled

TACOMA, Aug. 24 (AP)—First turnout for Pacific Lutheran college's 1949 football team will be held Thursday, September 1, at 1 p. m. Coach Mary Tommervik, in announcing the drill, said he expects about 50 candidates.

OUTFITTING FOR GRID WARFARE—When Head Coach Bob Hendershott issued an equipment call for Pelican and javvee gridlers Monday, Lettermen Guards Dick Petzoldt, left, and Roy Lundgren were right on hand. Senior Manager Harold Howard is doling out the toggery. Pel and javvee grid aspirants were given equipment and checked by the medico in preparation for the start of drills, which got under way this morning on Modoc field.

Lust Will Start In All-Star Offense

PORTLAND, Aug. 24 (AP)—The all-star update football squad is in top shape for Saturday night's Shrine hospital benefit game against Portland All-Stars and scrimmage sessions are at an end. Coach Mel Ingram said signal drills, including a workout under the light tonight, will finish off the week. He said he planned to use separate offensive and defensive teams for the game and listed tentative starting line-ups:

The offensive team: Ends—Keith Bertrand, Grants Pass, and Jack Last, Klamath Falls; tackles—Doug Hogland, Bend, and Emil Brandaw, Hillsboro; guards—Chuck Romine, Medford, and Dick Houghton, Lebanon; center—Bill Mills, Medford; quarterback—Clint Reese, Grants Pass; halfbacks—Don Donovan, Grants Pass, and Rich Riaps, Medford; fullback—Phil Gillis, Bend.

The defensive team: Ends—Fitz Brewer, Medford, and Bruce Ferguson, Gresham; tackles—Hogland and Brandaw of the offensive team; guards—Harold Dotts, Grant Pass, and Dick Schmitt, Cottage Grove; center—Les Hershey, Hillsboro; backfield—Gills from offensive team as line-backer; Jim Jenks, Albany, safety; Donovan from offensive team and Jess Fogarty, Newport, halfbacks.

Canadian Upsets

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 24 (AP) One upset marked first round play yesterday in the Canadian Women's Open golf tournament. That was the defeat of a five-time tourney winner, Miss Ada McKenzie of Toronto, 4 and 3, by another Ontarioan, 20-year-old Ann Sharp of Welland.

Otherwise the favorites all came through. Grace Lenczyk, the defending champion from Newtonington, Conn., poured on the day's most overwhelming win—a 7 and 6 victory over Mrs. H. Winder of Vancouver. Pat Lesser, the Seattle schoolgirl and tourney medalist, doused Mrs. R. Cleat of Vancouver, B. C., 3 and 2. Mrs. E. Ekholm of Bellingham defeated Miss F. E. Paynter of Sydney, B. C., 4 and 3.

Grace DeMoss of Corvallis, Ore., downed Mrs. K. B. Seawright of Toronto, one up.

Yesterday's Stars

Hitting—Jack Graham, St. Louis Browns, hit his 20th home run with one on for the winning markers as the Browns defeated the Boston Red Sox 5-4.

Pitching—Preacher Roe, Brooklyn Dodgers, working with only two days rest, set down the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3, on eight hits to keep Dodger flag hopes alive.

Keno Site Picked For Dog Trials

A site on the Kerns ranch near Keno will be used for an American Kennel club-licensed retriever trial September 9-10-11. The ranch affords room for both water and upland events.

Entries for the trial, expected to be the most extensive ever sponsored by the Shasta Cascade Retriever club, are coming in well and many of the top hunting dogs in the country will be here. Last Sunday the club held a picnic trial at Salt Lake off the state line road to work out in preparation for the licensed event, and about 200 spectators saw a black Lab, Brignall's Nick, walk away with top honors.

The dog is owned by Cliff Brignall of Los Angeles. Jim Stilwell's Ty was a close second in the open all-age stakes. The non-winner stake was won by Crater Lake Cider, owned by Larry Watkins and handled by Dick Morgan, and the derby for young dogs was won by Stilwell's Ty. Dr. George DeWoody Massey and Andy Klum were the judges.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT
Los Angeles — Sandy Saddler, 128½, New York, stopped Alfredo Escobar, 135½, Los Angeles, 9.
New Bedford, Mass. — Timothy (Buddy) Hayes, 130, knocked out Joey Gabriel, 134, Newark, N. J., 3.

Roe Snaps Brooklyn's Losing Streak As Bums, Cards Divide

By The Associated Press

Like the tree, pennant talk is blooming in Brooklyn once again. Preacher Roe, slim 31-year-old left-hander of the Dodgers, is responsible for the fanning of the Dodger pennant flames.

The Dodger outlook was gloomy until Roe, working with only two days' rest, beat the league-leading St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3, at Ebbets field last night in the second half of a day-night doubleheader.

Stan Musial and associates took the afternoon game, 5-3, to move three games ahead of the Brooks, extend a Brooklyn losing streak to four games and bring the under-taker to the door.

Old Preach, a former Red Bird, got off to a rocky start. Musial tagged him for a two-run homer in the first inning. The blow was the Card star's 22nd.

Ledy Howie Pollet blanked the Dodgers over the first three innings, but in the fourth the Dodgers came to life and solved him for two runs. In the fifth, Carl Furillo doubled home Pee Wee Reese with the run that gave the Brooks a 3-2 lead.

The Cards quieted the crowd in the sixth, as Enos Slaughter, the other Dodger tormentor, singled home Nippy Jones to tie the score at 3-3.

Roe tightened up and held the Cards hitless the rest of the way, but not so Pollet. The 16-game winner gave up the winning run in the eighth inning with one out, yielding consecutive doubles to Roy Campanella and Duke Snider. The victory was Roe's tenth compared to four defeats.

Musial and Slaughter teamed to bat the Cards to victory in the opener. Musial laced out a homer and single and Slaughter contributed a triple, double and single to the Cards' eight-hit attack.

Meanwhile, all three pennant contenders in the American league race were defeated. The league-leading New York Yankees were thrashed, 8-4, by the Tigers in a day game at Detroit. The runner-up Boston Red Sox were upset by the seventh place Browns, 5-4, in a night game at St. Louis. The third place Cleveland Indians bowed, 4-2, to the tall-end Washington Senators under the lights in Cleveland.

Ledy Hal Newhouser, with the aid of home runs by Pat Mullin, Via Wertz and Eddie Lake stopped the Yankees, who still lead the circuit by two and one-half games.

Jack Graham's 20th home run of the season ruined the Red Sox. Graham connected with one on in the eighth off young Chuck Stobbs to enable the Browns to overcome a 4-3 deficit.

Rae Scarborough cooled off the Indians, yielding only six hits to slug Washington's 11-game losing streak.

The Philadelphia Athletics retained fourth place, one percentage point ahead of Detroit, as Joe Coleman pitched and helped bat the A's to a 4-3 victory over the White Sox in a night game at Chicago.

The Boston Braves protected their one-game third-place margin over the Philadelphia Phillies in the National loop, defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-2, while the Reds edged the Cincinnati Reds, 4-3 in 13 innings.

In New York the Chicago Cubs barely outlasted the Giants, 7-5, after Doyle Lade had pitched a two-hit shutout for eight innings. With five runs in and the bases loaded in the ninth, Reliever Bob Muncrief got Bobby Thomson to hit into a force play for the final out and save Lade's third triumph.

Steve's Punch Only Hope Against Cagey Robinson Tonight

NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (AP)—Midweight contender Steve Belloise puts the power of his mighty right against the all-around brilliance of welterweight champion Ray Robinson in a non-title 10-rounder in Yankee stadium tonight.

The fight shapes up as a first class punching party with Belloise set to come roaring in the hopes of landing an early knockout.

Balding, 30-year-old Steve's chances hinge on his getting in a hard blow quickly. If not he's liable to run out of gas against the clever, stiff-hitting welter boss. No one ever has knocked Sugar Ray and the bookmakers don't think Belloise will do it either.

They climb into the ring at 7 p. m. (PDT).

The winner has been promised a crack at either Middleweight Champion Jake LaMotta or Marcel Cerdan, depending on the outcome of the title tilt between King Jake and the Frenchman here September 28. LaMotta and Cerdan will be at the ringside tonight.

The promoting International Boxing club, with around $50,000 in the till, is hoping for a crowd of 30,000 and a gross gate of $150,000. The contest is being broadcast but not televised.

Oakland Scotts Trim Omaha

YAKIMA, Wash., Aug. 24 (AP) Closing out the tourney on a high note with a triple play, Oakland's Trader Scotts trimmed Omaha 7-0 last night to qualify for the Junior Legion little world series.

The Californians beat the Nebraska entry twice and the Bremerton, Wash., team once to take the sectional crown. Last night's decision put the losers on the sidelines for their own tourney—the nationals will be held in Omaha.
