Two Morning Services At Zion Lutheran

Two services will be held on Sunday morning at the Zion Lutheran church, Eleventh and High. The first service will begin at 8:30 a. m. and the second service at 11 a. m. "Wanted, The Cure for a Sick World" will be the sermon topic of Rev. Victor A. Schulte at both services.

Robert Stevens, organist, has chosen for the pre-service organ recital, "Arista Placens" and "A Prayer for the Innocent" by George McKay. The offertory and postlude will consist of "Opus 28" from Chopin and "Carillon for a Joyful Day" by George McKay.

A special anthem will be presented by the Zion senior choir.

On Sunday afternoon the Zion Lutheran youth organization will hold a picnic outing at the gravel pit beyond Fort Klamath. The group will be under the direction of the president, Elaine Robatsek. All of the young people of the congregation and friends are welcome to attend.

The group will leave from the church at 1 p. m. The Sunday school and Bible class meet at the regular time, 9:45 a. m. A cordial invitation to all services of the Zion Lutheran church is extended.

Old Hymns Featured At Calvary

Singing of the old Gospel hymns is a weekly feature of the Sunday evening service at 8 o'clock at the Calvary Baptist church, corner of East Main and Garden.

Sunday school begins at 9:45 a. m., followed by preaching at 11 o'clock.

The weekly teachers' and officers' meeting of the Sunday school will begin at 7:15 p. m. Wednesday, followed by a prayer service at 8 p. m. The pastor, Rev. E. R. Jacks, will continue teaching from a chart on the book of Daniel at the Wednesday service. All interested are cordially invited. Choir practice is at 8 p. m., Friday.

A group of adults and young people of the church will leave Monday morning, August 29 for camp, sponsored by all churches of the Southern Baptist convention in Washington and Oregon. The camp will be held at Twin Rocks, near Tillamook August 30 to September 5.

SERIES FEATURES UNUSUAL MUSIC—An evangelistic series will begin August 28 and continue through September 16, at the First Christian church, Ninth and Pine. Each service will feature a unique musical program by Roe Bond Alley, who plays the Swiss piccolo, musical glasses and western ranch bells.

Mid-week Bible study is at 7:30 p. m., Wednesday. All are welcome.

Color television is not likely to make your black and white video set obsolete for at least another eight years.

Methodist State Officer Here Sunday

Dr. S. Raynor Smith, district superintendent of the Oregon conference of the Methodist church, is to be the guest preacher at the First Methodist church Sunday at the morning worship service.

Dr. Smith was for some years a missionary in India. He has held some of the most distinguished pastorates in Oregon and is considered one of the best preachers in the Oregon conference.

He is preaching in the absence of the pastor the Rev. Martindale Woods, who is in San Francisco.

High Paul is the organist for the month of August and is preparing a musical program appropriate to the occasion.

The Methodist Youth fellowship will meet in the parlors of the church at 7 p. m. and Robert Petoldt and John Heilbroner will bring reports on the institute just closing at Suttle lake. They have been delegates at the institute for the past week. Merlin Phelps will also assist in reporting on the institute.

Elder Lamott At Peace Memorial

Memorial Presbyterian church of 441 South Sixth street will hear Ruling Elder Robert Lamott speak on the subject of "Caesar's Share" at 11 o'clock.

Morning Worship begins at 11 o'clock.

It is estimated that the largest of the Indian mounds at Cahokia, Ill., might have taken 300 years to build.

Young And Old May Worship At Nazarene

The Sunday school of the Church of Nazarene, Garden and Martin, is equipped to teach every age with classes ranging from the nursery group to the adult Bible class. Sunday school begins promptly at 9:45 a. m.

The morning worship service at 11 a. m. will have the message:

"Christian Workers and their Pay" by Pastor Deal Van De Grift.

The NYP society meets at 8:48 p. m. each Sunday. An interesting program has been planned for the young people's group. At the evening service at 7:30, the minister will speak on the topic, "The Last Beatitude of the Bible". A cordial welcome is extended.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all of our kind friends and neighbors for their many kind expressions of sympathy and condolence during our recent bereavement, and for the beautiful floral offerings.

MRS. LEONA HAMON AND FAMILY.

'Christ Jesus', Sunday Topic At Scientist

"Christ Jesus" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon Sunday at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Tenth and Washington. The hour for divine worship is at 11 o'clock, and Sunday school classes are at the same time downstairs in the church.

Golden Text will be, "God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life", John 3:16.

Among citations will be the following from Matthew 5:17: "Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill." From "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be, "Jesus' works established his claim to the Messiahship."

A reading room, located at 1023 Main, is open every day except Sundays and holidays, and all are welcome. A regular meeting is held at 8 p. m. every Wednesday.

Evangelistic Services At 1st Christian

A special evangelistic series will begin August 28 and continue to September 16 at the First Christian church, Ninth and Pine, featuring Evangelist James M. Alley and Rae Bond Alley.

Services will be held nightly at 7:30. The two evangelists, whose home is in California, travel throughout the nation conducting services in Christian churches.

An unusual feature of the meetings is given by Mrs. Alley who plays the Swiss piccolo, musical glasses, and western ranch bells. She also will show a series of rag pictures. All are welcome.
