Soybean Antics Upset Trade

CHICAGO, Aug. 27 (AP)—A renewed burst of selling in soybeans again caused a nervous undertone in other commodities on the board of trade today. Soybeans dropped nearly 5 cents below yesterday's close before meeting enough support to stage a fair-sized rally.

Wheat acted better than anything else, responding to news that the government will be in the market for flour next week, corn and oats held relatively steady, except for one period when they were unsettled by the break in soybeans. Steady cash prices helped these grains.

Bids for cash soybeans were quoted at $3.05. This compared with a price of $3.35 yesterday and nominal quotations around $3.50 to $3.60.

LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO, Aug. 27 (AP) — Hogs were quoted in a range of $16.50 to $21.25, in a nominally steady market today. Cattle and sheep also held steady.

During the week hog prices worked lower after a strong start on Monday. Barrows and gilts lost around 25 to 75 cents, as did sows. Heavier weight sows obtained the best outlet.

The week's average cost of barrows and gilts was estimated by the agriculture department at $21.00, or $2.75 above this week's support price of $18.25.

In the cattle section, demand for good and choice fed steers and yearlings this week proved broader than the supply. Prices worked steadily higher. Gains ranged from 50 cents to $1.00. Top was $29.50, equal to the highest price paid this summer. Except for slaughter calves, the rest of the cattle market also moved higher.

Prices in the sheep market advanced all week until yesterday, when they broke sharply. As a result, final quotations were about steady with last week-end. Traders said big packers, after buying freely all week, lacked killing facilities to continue heavy purchases on Friday.

Nationalists Gain, Report

CANTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—The Nationalists have counterattacked and recaptured three key towns just outside the Kwangtung province border in an arc 140 miles northeast of Canton, private reports said tonight.

(The communist radio claimed meanwhile that the Red army had captured Lanchow, capital of Kansu province in China's far northwest. It said the city fell yesterday).

The three towns reported retaken by the Nationalists in southwestern Kiangsi province are Kiennan, Lungnan and Tingnan. They had been designated by one-eyed Red Gen. Liu Po-Chang as springboards for a drive on Kukong, 125 miles north of Canton, on the Canton-Hankow railway.

Daring Fisherman Pulled From Sea

SEASIDE, Aug. 27 (AP)—An ambitious fisherman—he put to sea in a canoe—was rescued yesterday a half-mile out in the ocean.

Howard Trunnell, 44, Portland, told his rescuers he had been going out like that for a week without trouble. He got too close to shore yesterday, and waves capsized his craft, which had an outboard motor.

Crew members of an amphibious craft pulled him to safety. His fishing gear and canoe, too. He lost only his shoes.
