Following the business session the hostesses served refreshments to Mrs. M. A. Bowman, Mrs. G. E. Cobb, Mrs. Warren Connor, Mrs. E. N. Eagle, Mrs. Harriett Fotheringham, Mrs. Warren Fruits, Mrs. Verne Haskins, Mrs. Delia Hodges, Dolly Hunnicutt, Mrs. Frank Hunnicutt, Mrs. William Jimette, Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mrs. Miles Moore, Mrs. Pete McNeil, Mrs. Clovis Storey, Mrs. Gene Taylor, Mrs. Bernice Wilson, and one visitor, Mrs. Roberts of San Jose, California, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Warren Fruits.

Engagement Told

TULELAKE—At a charming tea Tuesday afternoon, August 23, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Fischer, the news of the coming marriage of Mary Robertson, Tulelake, and Ransom Buck Turner, Rupert, Idaho, was made known.

The bride-elect is a cousin of Mrs. Fischer and has made her home here for several years.

The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Bates Turner of Idaho City.

One hundred guests, calling between the hours of two and five o'clock, learned of the wedding plans when they were greeted at the door by the guest of honor, Miss Robertson, Mrs. Fischer and Helene Fischer who offered two tiny pink hearts from a clever basket. The hearts were printed with the names of the young folks.

Arrangements of pastel shaded gladioli were used about the rooms and during the tea hours the guests enjoyed the garden and patio.

Pouring were Mrs. N. C. Wilkinson, Mrs. Charles K. Wiese, Mrs. Hugh Bronson, Mrs. Norman Esser, Mrs. Chester J. Stonecypher Sr. and Bernice Hartley.

Mary was graduated as valedictorian of the class of 1947 from the Tulelake high school and entered Stanford university. She will complete her training at Stanford Lane hospital.

Ransom is taking his second year of medical school at Stanford Lane after graduating from Stanford university. He is a member of Delta Chi fraternity.

The wedding date is tentatively planned for the Christmas holidays here.

Reno Wedding

TULELAKE — The wedding of Caroline Zlabek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zlabek, Tulelake, and William Adams, Redmond, Oregon was an event of August 9 at Reno.

The bride wore a cream summer suit with navy accessories. The young couple visited coast points north and at Redmond with a grandmother of the groom before returning here.

Mr. Adams is associated with his father in the seed cleaning business at Redmond where the new Mr. and Mrs. Adams will make their home this winter.

Lettuce is plentiful and nutritious—so serve it often right now. Use it in salads and sandwiches. As soon as it comes from the market tear off any withered leaves on the outside of the head. Rinse the head off under cold running water before storing it in a covered container in the refrigerator. Never soak lettuce in water before slicing. Instead of using a covered container for the lettuce you may wrap it in a damp cloth if you like.

VERY NEW AND SMART is the combination of light and dark woods used for this attractive modern bedroom furniture. The light colored wood is the new African korina, which closely resembles mahogany, while the darker trim is mist gray walnut. Graceful, silver drawer pulls and curved bases add distinction to this flexible, modestly priced group. Photo courtesy of The American Furniture Mart.
