H-N Sponsors Invitational

Players from about 17 Northern California and Southern Oregon towns are expected to invade Klamath Falls September 4 and 5 when the second annual Herald and News-sponsored open invitational tennis tournament is held at Moore Park.

Eagles Lose First Round Soft Tilt

EUGENE, Aug. 29 (AP)—Eight soft-ball teams vaulted first-round hurdles in the state tournament and were ready to play quarterfinals and semifinals today.

Shutouts were common in the day and night long play. Pendleton had to go an extra inning to edge Medford, 6 to 5. The losers had trailed until the seventh when two runs tied the count.

The winning run for Pendleton came as Tom Grammuler reached first when his fly was dropped, and went to third when third baseman muffed a throwin. Jimmy Jones singled his home.

Torrey Johnson hurled one hit ball as he paced St. Helens to an 8 to 0 victory over Klamath Falls. He fanned eight batters and also got two hits to drive in three runs.

Baker's Harlowe Spencer allowed Albany only four hits, but the valley team took advantage of five walks and four wild pitches to win, 4 to 0.

Jack Sprick gave up only two hits and struck out 13 as Corvallis coasted to a 5 to 0 win over The Dalles. Salem's Jim Rawlins pitched three hit ball in setting down Redmond, 1 to 0. The lone run was in the fourth inning.

The two Oregon clubs are first to swing into actual competition. Oregon State draws UCLA at Los Angeles September 16, the same day Oregon tackles St. Mary's at San Francisco.

A day later, Washington opens in Seattle against Utah. Rocky Mountain conference top-runner, Idaho entertains Willamette at Moscow and Washington State takes on Utah State at Pullman.

The 1949 season finds one school—Oregon State—with a completely revamped coaching staff. LaVerne (Kip) Taylor takes over the head coaching chores with a squad of 23 lettermen and a single wing attack. Bump Elliott will tutor the backs. Pete Elliott the ends, Len Younce other linemen, and Hal Moe the freshmen.

Oregon's defending co-champions will have 19 lettermen on hand. Coach Jim Allen warned of scrimmage plays the first day.

Washington's Howie Odell has only 16 lettermen returning, but looks hopefully to a half dozen promising sophomores.

Optimism reigns at Idaho where Coach Dixie Howell has told Idaho fans it will be the best Vandal team in years. He expects 55 gridders for opening day.

Phil Barboe has 25 lettermen back at Washington State but neither Halfback Jerry Williams or Tackle Laurie Niemi will be among them.

Yank Victory Costly; Tommy Henrich Hurt

Star Outfielder Injures Back; Cards Bulge Lead

By The Associated Press
The New York Yankees won a doubleheader yesterday and picked up a game and a half on the Boston Red Sox, but faced the future today with nothing but gloom.

Unless a miracle happens, the American league leaders will be forced to play the next three weeks without the services of Tommy Henrich, their star outfielder. He may do more playing this year.

"Old Reliable," as Tommy is known, injured his back severely in the first game while attempting to catch a line drive off the bat of Chicago's Charlie Kress. X-rays taken at Mercy hospital revealed fractures of the second and third ribs in the lower part of the back.

A six-run ninth inning rally gave the Yankees the first game over the White Sox, 8-7. The Yanks also won the nightcap, 7-5, with darkness halting proceedings after eight innings. The double triumph enabled the Yankees to increase their first place margin to three games over the Red Sox who topped an 11-inning game to the Indians in Cleveland, 2-1. The second game of that scheduled doubleheader was called off in the fourth inning because of darkness. The Indians were in front, 2-1.

INCREASE LEAD
In the National, the front-running St. Louis Cardinals increased their lead over Brooklyn to two and a half games by sweeping a doubleheader from the Boston Braves, 9-7 and 7-1. The Dodgers trounced Pittsburgh, 9-0, but lost half a length.

Detroit solidified its fourth place position in the American, thumping the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-4. Washington and St. Louis divided a twin bill in their private battle for seventh place. The Senators walked off with an easy 13-2 victory in the opener, but the Browns won the second game, 4-3.

Philadelphia and Chicago split, the Phils coming back to win the second game, 8-2, after the Cubs won the opener, 7-4. The Giants also coasted with a split, defeating Cincinnati, 4-2, after losing the first game, 10-3.

INDIANANS CLASH WITH TRUCKERS
WICHITA, Kan., Aug. 29 (AP)—Fort Wayne, the defending champion, runs into its first tough obstacle tonight in its bid to retain the National semi-pro baseball tournament crown.

The Indianans meet the Weimar, Tex. Truckers, whose roster includes 10 former University of Texas players. The university won the National Intercollegiate baseball championship last year.

Fort Wayne and Weimar have won two victories apiece and lost none thus far in the lengthy double elimination tournament.

Neither of Fort Wayne's victims offered much competition. One of the Weimar's victories was over the Mt. Vernon, Wash. Milkmaids. The Milkmaids placed third in last year's tournament.

In yesterday's games, Fort Wayne trounced the Hummelstown, Pa. Motormen, 8-1. The Golden, Colo. Coors edged the Elk City, Okla., Elks, 2 to 0, and the Bellingham, Wash. Bells beat the Tuscaloosa, Ala., Indians, 2 to 0.

ATTENTION GALORE, BUT SMALL FISH
By The Associated Press
Northwest mayors attracted the most attention but caught the smallest fish of four Northwest salmon derbies over the week-end.

Herman Estes, mayor of Camas, Wash., reeled in the politicians' prize winner—a 36 pound, 15 ounce catch—at Ilwaco Saturday.

But about the same time at Port Townsend, Al Ramsdell hooked into a 33 pound 7 ounce king that won him an automobile and Joe Minish hauled in a 29-pounder good for an inbound boat.

A 30 pound, 12 ounce king was the winner of the fifth annual Seattle milk and derby. It won $350 for Dr. Harold Keeley. Gov. Langlie distributed the prize money.

Charles W. Flint, Vancouver, B. C., lumber mill worker, won the $1350 motorboat given as first prize in the Horseshoe bay derby at Vancouver. His prize winning catch weighed 30 pounds, nine ounces.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SONS—Ralph A. Phillips, left, and his two sons, Benny and Walter, went into the Guano lake area last Thursday and none of them came back empty-handed. Each one bagged an antelope. Notice the unusual crossed horns on the animal's head being held by the elder Phillips. Walter is gunsmithing instructor at Oregon Tech, while the father is owner of Ralph's Gun Shop, 4820 South Sixth. The animals were bagged between Adel and Guano lakes.

Gridiron Upset

Portland All-Stars Outclass Upstaters 19-0 To Even Series

PORTLAND, Aug. 29 (AP)—Fast moving backs sparked the Portland high school All-Stars to a stunning 19 to 0 upset over the upstaters here Saturday night in the second annual Shriners' hospital benefit football game.

The up-state team never came near the Portland goal line. Touchdowns were in the second, third and final quarters, with Halfbacks Don Sloan of Washington and Bob Hamblin of Roosevelt and Quarterback Nick Schmer of Jefferson logging the pigskin across.

Sloan made a whirling, dodging run of 38 yards midway in the second quarter to collect the initial score. The drive got under way with Hamblin running 13 yards before being dragged down on his own 42-yard line. Then Sloan cracked through left guard and boomed to paydirt.

The third quarter score topped an 83-yard march with Sloan running two 19 yard gains. His second put ball on state's 32 and Hamblin punched to the 24. After Sloan added three more yards, Schmer passed to Howell Lee of Jefferson, who fell flat on the one-foot line, and Hamblin went over. End Steve Crowley of Grant high kicked the extra point.

Schmer made an end run around left for the fourth quarter touchdown after a drive from the state 40. End Ted Fike of Columbia started the march. After three downs, Schmer's fourth down pass to Monte Brethauer of Jefferson put the ball on the four. Fike plunged to the two and Schmer headed for the left to paydirt. The kick by Grant's Jerry Shaw was blocked.

The city team rolled up 10 first downs in moving 224 yards on scrimmage and a net of 196 yards. The starters were able to get only three first downs and one of these was on the final play of the game. Two of seven city passes were completed. State tried four and none were good.

State's assault efforts never got beyond the city team's 41 yard line. The two annual benefit games have left the scoreboard with one apiece. State's 1948 team won 35 to 13.

MAC Splashes Win AAU Title
THE DALLES, Ore., Aug. 29 (AP)—The Dalles Athletic club swimmers walked off with the annual Oregon Open AAU swimming and diving championship yesterday. The meet was marked by 20 new records.

The Portland team scored 264 points, followed by the Portland Aquatic club with 134 and the Washington Athletic club with 86. Other team scores included: Vancouver, Wash. 53; The Dalles, 53; Spokane 28; Yakima 23; Roseburg, Ore. 21 and Portland Northwest YMCA 12.

Ted Cummins of Yakima won both the 100 and 200 meter freestyle, setting a new mark of 1:07.4 minutes in the former event. It was four-tenths of a second faster than his own record time last year.

The national hard court tennis championships will be decided in Berkeley, Calif., Sept. 17-25.

Gem Chances Slimmer Pitt Widens Lead With 9-6 Victory Over Klamath Falls

PITTSBURG, Aug. 29 (Special)—The showdown battle of the Far West baseball league—between the Pittsburg Diamonds and Klamath Falls Gems—veered toward Pittsburg again last night as the Diamonds filled a couple of innings to whip the Gems 9-6 here.

The victory in the first of a two-game series left the Diamonds four notches out front in first place with nine games remaining to play this season. The Gems' chances of catching up are getting slimmer all the time.

Last night the Sports, working a 4-3 lead through seven frames, smoothly behind Joe Nicholas, had lost in the desire for more runs. Nicholas was removed from the lineup for a pinchhitter in the top of the eighth and Johnny Lopeman went in to chuck.

Lopeman got Bill Enos, first batter out, but Vince DiMaggio proceeded to clout his 37th homer of the year at that point to tie the score. The bluff unnered Lopeman to the extent he walked the best three Diamonds. Pinchhitter Tom Lucido singled to drive in two runs and before the inning was over Pittsburg was holding a 9-4 margin.

In the top of the ninth the Gems pushed across two runs on Gordon Hernandez double, singles by Morris Nordell and Butch Falier but left the bases loaded.

The highlight of the game, even Pittsburg fans admitted, was in the fourth frame when Catcher Dick Descaiso hit his first homerun in two seasons of professional ball. Descaiso, with an average of .149, is the weakest hitter in the league but he freed off on a Blair Simpson pitch with Gordy Hernandez on base.

Simpson pitched seven frames and Clarence Heck, who tossed only the eighth inning, was the winner. Lou Brunson started the ninth and Pete Hernandez finished it.

In other league games Sunday Redding drubbed Medford 20-9 and Marysville lost to Willows 7-6 in 10 frames. The Saturday scores were: Klamath Falls 12, Medford 9; Pittsburg 9, Klamath Falls 2.

Time Short Northern Gridders Bear Down

By The Associated Press
With only three weeks to smooth off the rough spots before opening games, northern division college football coaches prepared today to bear down from the opening whistle.

Fall drills got under way today with morning sessions devoted primarily to photographers. Closed sessions were set for this afternoon.

The two Oregon clubs are first to swing into actual competition. Oregon State draws UCLA at Los Angeles September 16, the same day Oregon tackles St. Mary's at San Francisco.

A day later, Washington opens in Seattle against Utah. Rocky Mountain conference top-runner, Idaho entertains Willamette at Moscow and Washington State takes on Utah State at Pullman.

GOING STAGG—Turned 87, starting his 60th year of coaching football, Amos Alonzo Stagg goes to work on his front lawn in Stockton, Calif. The famous Eli, who coached Chicago and Pacific, now handles the offense for his son, A. A. Stagg Jr., at Susquehanna.

Chiloquin Cub Scouts Meet

CHILOQUIN, Aug. 29—Wednesday evening marked the monthly Cub Scout pack meeting which was open to the families of the boys as well as to members. Exhibits of hobbies and special projects undertaken by the individual boys were on display, and the groups presented various forms of entertainment.

The Klamath Agency troop, under the leadership of Den Mother Mrs. Victor Sison, and Assistant Mrs. James Smyth, gave two short skits. Den Mother Mrs. Harry Ravizza presented her boys in a special musical skit with accompaniment played by Michael Ravizza on his accordion. Some unusual hobbies were displayed by the group working with Den Mother Mrs. Lou Kellison.

When school begins, the new age limits will be in effect for cubs, allowing boys to enter at age 8, rather than 9, and allowing 11-year-olds to go into Boy Scout troops. As a consequence, there will be many changes in the troops and more groups will probably be organized. Mrs. Sherman Maher will replace Mrs. Smyth as assistant den mother for the Klamath Agency group as the latter is moving to Lakeview.
