

Czechs Claim Revolt Crushed

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
PRAGUE, Aug. 30 (AP)—The Czechoslovak government announced today it had crushed an anti-communist underground movement just as the group was preparing to begin an armed revolution.

The official press bureau linked the underground members with "a certain western imperialistic power" but did not identify the western power.

Details of the purported plot were announced after a secret trial at which six persons were condemned to death, 10 given life imprisonment and an unspecified number lesser prison terms. Ten of those tried were acquitted. The announcement termed members of the group spies and terrorists and said they were tried on charges of high treason and spying on behalf of the western power "with which they had been in contact."

The government claimed its police had played a cat-and-mouse game with the alleged conspirators and waited until they were all set to begin the revolution before moving in to nab them.

One of those sentenced to death was Josef Charvat, identified by friends as chief of security police here during the first republic. The government said the political leader of the planned putsch was Dr. Jaroslav Borkovec, identified as the brother of a former chief of the Prague police's criminal investigation section. His brother was ousted when the communists took over the government in February, 1948.

Informed sources said those sentenced included army and police personnel, as well as civilians.

The trial of the group was reported to have lasted several weeks in the Prague state court. The government said many of the accused pleaded guilty.

A "large group" of conspirators was said to have been involved in the abortive putsch. Date of the attempted coup was not disclosed, but it was reported the group chose a bank holiday "when the working people were at home and unable to mount counteraction."

A spokesman at the American embassy said "we don't know anything about this. It is just as much news to us as to everybody else."

Overturned Boat Hints At Drowning
ASTORIA, Aug. 30 (AP)—An overturned outboard motorboat hinted of the first drowning of the lower Columbia river sports fishing season.

A coast guard boat crew found the capsized craft near a jetty yesterday. It was among 20 craft to which the coast guard was called. Most of the other calls were due to disabled engines and sand bars. An estimated 8000 boats were expected on the river today for the opening of the salmon derby here and others along the river. Hotels began filling over the past weekend.

Silversides were running close to the surface, but the Chinooks were scarce, apparently running deeper. A small vial of rose perfume can have as much as 200 pounds of roses in it.

Two Week-End Thefts Probed

Two small burglaries were investigated by state police over the week-end, both involving South Sixth business houses and both occurring Sunday morning. The Suburban tavern, operated by Bill Blind, was entered sometime after 3 a.m. Sunday and a cash drawer containing between $20 and $30 in change taken. Entry was made by heaving a four-pound chunk of concrete through a side door. At Schneider's variety store entry was made by breaking a window on the east side of the building, the second break-in in a month there. Included among the articles stolen were an electric razor and two cigarette lighters.
