

GAR Finding Going Rough At Meeting

By MERRILL SWEDLUND
INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 30 (AP)—The last encampment of the grand army of the republic got the best of one Civil war veteran last night, but not for long.

Charles L. Chappel, 102-year-old senior vice commander from Long Beach, Calif., collapsed on the way to a reception in the office of Gov. Henry F. Schricker.

He was revived shortly after he was taken to a hospital room in the convention hotel. But he was taken to the Veterans Administration hospital here.

Dr. J. W. Thom, VA physician at the hotel, blamed his collapse on "exhaustion." At the hospital, heart checks were made on the veteran while he clamored to go back to his hotel room. When doctors reported his heart all right, he was returned to the hotel an hour later.

James A. Hard, 108, Rochester, N.Y., also was too tired to attend the reception after a banquet given by the women's relief corps.

But not Commander Theodore A. Penland, 100-year-old commander-in-chief from Vancouver, Wash.

"I belong to 26 different orders," he told the auxiliary women, "and all of them are good to me."

As an afterthought, he added, "I compose songs and sing them—Yes, I really do."

Today's program for the veterans is a comparatively light session of receiving greetings, followed by an "unofficial meeting" tonight.

Britons Give Thanks For Truman Talk

LONDON, Aug. 30 (AP)—The British press gave out today with a heartfelt chorus of "Thank you, Mr. President."

The Philadelphia speech by President Truman aroused as much gratitude as though it had been a personal pat on the back for every Briton.

Mr. Truman's avowal of continued sympathy and friendship for the British people was the day's top news story.

It was hailed on all sides as a good omen for the dollar crisis talks starting in Washington September 7. In labor party circles there were audible sighs of relief.

"Truman says hands off other people's politics" was the jubilant headline in the Daily Herald, the party mouthpiece.

Mr. Truman told legion delegates the U. S. will help Great Britain solve her present financial crisis.

The president said flatly that "a sound and expanding economy is essential to world peace." He insisted the U. S. will examine Britain's currency dilemma in a "spirit of friendliness and helpfulness."

"The democratic nations are not proposing to interfere with one another's internal politics," Mr. Truman said.

'Confused,' And With Good Reason!

Ernest Clyde Guthrie, 22, OTI student, was a little confused Sunday morning when he woke up. He was on a day report in a basement room at the E. H. Logan residence, 458 Hillside.

Logan told police he arose Sunday morning to find his living room in a shambles, a lamp tipped over and broken, a window broken and a Morris chair capsize. In the kitchen he found the refrigerator had been emptied of its contents. In the basement he found Guthrie asleep on theavenport.

The youth, arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct, said he remembered leaving town shortly after midnight and that he thought he had gotten home to his dormitory room on the campus. He admitted being intoxicated and could venture no solution to his appearance at the Hillside street residence. In police court this morning Guthrie was fined $25 and put on probation for 30 days.

Four-H News

The Jar Jammers Canning club and the Pioneer Chefs' Cooking club held a joint meeting at the home of Mrs. John Kerns, August 16, 1949. The vice president of the Pioneer Chefs led the two clubs in a few songs.

They planned a tea which was given for the mothers August 20. Sydney Kerns was chosen to be chairman of the tea, and she appointed other committees. Saturday afternoon, August 20 the Jar Jammers Canning club gave a tea for the mothers and the women of the Farm Bureau at the home of Mrs. John Kerns. Tea, cookies and sandwiches were served. The cookies were made by the Pioneer Chefs.

Each club member introduced himself and told how many years he had been in 4-H club work and which project he liked best. A display of canning and ribbons won at the fall and spring fairs were shown. Joan Howell told the group of the dishes bought with the proceeds from the food sale. Guests were as follows:

Mrs. C. J. Stoneburg, Mrs. D. E. Colwell, Mrs. M. W. Bohrakoff, Mrs. W. L. Frain, Joan Howell, Mrs. Lee Holliday, Mrs. Anna Zarosinski, Mrs. A. R. Breitenstein, Mrs. Robert Hurbut, Mrs. John Lilly, Mrs. Earl Kerns, Mrs. Claude Kerns, Mrs. Clint Meyer.

Judge's 'Rash' Decision Brings Fan Mail Deluge

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30 (AP)—Because he ruled that a woman's rash is no ground for divorce, Superior Judge Ray P. Brockman is getting more fan mail than a movie queen.

A month ago, the judge quipped Mrs. Joyce C. Holdridge, 27, a divorcee on her plea:

"I would break out in a rash from head to toe every time I was near him."

The judge's ruling has been haunting him ever since. He says he has received hundreds of letters, most of them from women who claim they are allergic to their husbands. They urge the judge to reconsider. Some of the missives are about as friendly as a dentist's drill.

But Judge Brockman had at least one person on his side. The letter writer described himself as a "mere man" and offered the following advice:

"Take each of your women plaintiffs for divorce and suggest a 60 day cooling off period, during which time she is to do a better job of homemaking, such as some good old fashioned housecleaning, cook bigger and better meals, try her own hand at the laundry, don't send, but take the kids to Sunday school and church, get up early, work all day and stay out of the local saloons."

"Say, judge," the mere man continued, "if you were to do this you know what would happen? These women would break out in a rash right in court. It isn't their husbands they are allergic to; it's what he expects them to do to earn their keep."

The husband in the "allergy divorce case" complicated matters. He is Nolan H. Holdridge, 26, a San Francisco watchmaker. In a cross complaint for divorce he charged Mrs. Holdridge with being a wife in name only.

Judge Brockman will hear the case later.
