Robeson Says He'll Return To Peekskill

NEW YORK, Sept. 1 (AP)—Paul Robeson, declaring that "from now on out we take the offensive," vows he'll return to Peekskill, N. Y., where a riot broke up his scheduled concert Saturday night.

The Negro singer spoke Tuesday night to a crowd of 3000 cheering supporters at a Harlem rally protesting the riot, which started after veterans' groups staged an anti-communist rally outside the concert grove.

The Negro singer spoke last night to a crowd of 3000 cheering supporters at a Harlem rally protesting the riot, which started after veterans' groups staged an anti-communist rally outside the concert grove.

"I want to warn the legion," the singer declared, "that I have been to Memphis, Tenn., and Florida, and I'll be in Peekskill again."

Robeson referred to attendance at last night's rally—which included 1000 persons standing outside the doors, and said "They've got their answer here tonight. I don't see any legion here tonight."

"We'll have our meetings and our concerts all over the United States. The sure way to get police protection is to make it clear we will protect ourselves."

Robeson and his supporters have charged Westchester county officials with laxity in not providing police protection at the riot scene in a wooded picnic grove outside Peekskill.

Law officials of the county are investigating the disturbance on orders from Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

At last night's meeting, attendees passed out copies of a civil rights congress "Newsletter," and other reading matter, including the communist newspaper, The Daily Worker.

The force of wind increases with the square of velocity. A 30-mile wind compares with a 10-mile wind as 900 compares with 100. For this reason, a small increase in velocity accounts for a great increase in wind damage.

Strong U.S. Best Defense Johnson Says

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 1 (AP)—By "keeping awake and preparing accordingly," America can assure permanent peace, Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson said Wednesday.

"We shall build our ramparts so strong that no aggressor will dare attack us."

"We must achieve peace, and we will achieve it in the only way possible in this world of today—affirmatively—by unmistakable strength on land and sea and in the air," the defense secretary told the 31st National American Legion convention in a prepared address.

Despite the high cost of our armed forces, Johnson said, a cut of 1,000,000,000 in expenditures is the goal set for this year.

This saving, he told the leg-naires, will be effected by eliminating waste and duplication through unification of the armed forces.
