

VanDerMeer Cuffs Cards; NY Beats Bums

Bombers Drop 7-1 Decision To Red Sox; Kinder Hurls

By The Associated Press

A hero in Brooklyn, a bum in St. Louis and just another pitcher to the fans in the other major league cities — that's the thumb nail sketch on lefty Johnny VanDerMeer of the Cincinnati Reds.

Here's why: A hero in Brooklyn — beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-1, last night to keep Brooklyn within a game of the leading Cards.

Bum in St. Louis — the triumph was VanDerMeer's third of the year over the Red Birds who have beaten him only once.

Just another pitcher to the rest of the league — outside of clipping the cards, Vandy has won only two other games, one against Philadelphia and a shutout over Chicago.

The Cards squared off against VanDerMeer, chucking over the Dodgers' 10-1 beating by the New York Giants in the afternoon at Ebbets field. The smiles faded in the fourth inning.

Vandy, who a week ago tonight was belted for 11 hits in less than four innings by the Cards in a game that wound up in a 9-0 15-inning tie, yielded a run in the first and then slammed the door.

The Reds, who had bowed 11 times and deadlocked the Cardinals once in their last 13 encounters, cracked Al Bralle for three runs in the fourth with the aid of two errors and were never headed.

Three more Reds crossed home in the fifth to insure VanDerMeer's 2nd triumph of his career against the Cards. The Cards have beaten the Red lefty 15 times.

KOSLO BEATS BROOKS

Lefty Dave Koslo turned back the Dodgers, scattering nine hits while the Giants mauling Preacher Roe, Ralph Branca and Rex Barney for 13 solid whacks.

The Boston Red Sox stormed back into the American League pennant picture as Ellis Kinder pitched the millionaires to a brilliant 7-1 conquest of the pace-setting New York Yankees.

Kinder gave up four singles, walked nine and fanned eight in fashioning his 19th victory of the season and his ninth straight. The triumph moved the Sox to within a game and a half of the Yanks.

PESKY HOMERS

Johnny Pesky started the Red Sox scoring with a two-run homer in the third. Bobby Doerr counted his 18th off starter and loser Ed Lopat in the fourth and the Sox were in.

The third place Cleveland Indians advanced to within five games of the Yanks, beating the St. Louis Browns, 5-2, behind the six-hit pitching of rookie Mike Garcia.

Philadelphia turned back the Washington Senators, 5-2.

The Chicago Cubs ripped the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-1, before 7905 fans, smallest Pittsburgh night crowd of the season.

The scheduled night game between Philadelphia and the Braves in Boston was rained out. The Detroit Tigers and Chicago White Sox were idle.

Pels Hold Scrimmage Under Arcs

The Klamath Union high school Pelicans will hold an inter-squad scrimmage under the lights at Modoc field to-night. Starting time is 6:30 p.m.

Coach Bob Henderson is putting on finishing touches as the Pelicans gear for their opening game next Friday night against the Generals of Portland's Grant high school.

Sanders Sands Off Rough Spots

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 10 (AP) — With some of the roughest spots polished off, Coach Red Sanders today began to get down to play strategy in preparing the UCLA gridgers for their opening game of the Pacific Coast conference with Oregon State here next Friday night.

In contrast to previous drills, the past two sessions drew restrained praise from the new Bruin skipper.

Suds Near New Attendance Mark

SEATTLE, Sept. 10 (AP) — The Seattle Rainiers are nearing a new all-time Pacific Coast league baseball attendance record in Seattle.

Through last night, 527,917 fans have paid to see the fourth place Rainiers in their home games.

The high Seattle mark is 548,268, set in 1947. To top it, 20,451 fans must show up at the remaining two playing dates tonight and tomorrow.

Quarterbackers

The Quarterback club will hold its first 1949 football season meeting Monday at 12 noon in the Willard hotel dining room. Coaches Bob Henderson of the Pelicans and Dale Daugherty of Oregon Tech are expected to be present to give Quarterbackers a preview of their squads for this year. Red Busman is president of the club this year.

San Diego, Calif.—Rafael Gutierrez, 145½, Mexico, stopped Hank Herring, 146, San Diego (7).

Hollywood, Calif.—Jackie Blair, 127, Dallas, stopped Rudy Vasquez, 129, Los Angeles (7).

Fourth honors went to Son Valley Tripper, owned by P. M. Perrin of Omaha, Neb., and handled by M. Belliveau.

Friday's trials were for non-winners. Certificates of merit were awarded to the following canines: Jupiter of Avondale, Bar Pilots' Ben, Gibboid Jade, Diablo de Lobo, and Aqua Express.

The trials will be continued through Saturday and Sunday. The derby started this morning and will be followed by the open all-age event which gets under way about three this afternoon and continues through Sunday.

Bud Ward Favored

BOISE, Sept. 10 (AP) — On the basis of practice rounds, Marvin (Bud) Ward of Great Falls, Mont., was the player to watch today in the opening rounds of the Idaho open golf tournament.

The former national amateur champ and Walker cupper toured the Plantation course yesterday in a 34-31-65, his second nine tying the course record.

Ed Oliver and Glen Sheriff, both of Seattle, turned in 71's, and the Plantation pro said a Vancouver, B. C., trio of Stan Leonard, Walter McElroy and Ernie Brown fired sub-par rounds, although their cards weren't turned in.

The tourney offers $2500 in cash prizes and $1000 in merchandise. Today's preliminary will narrow the field of over 120 to 75 for Sunday's finals.

Oaks Win, Stars Lose In P.C.L.

By The Associated Press
Guy Fletcher, Seattle's 22-game winner, got chased from the mound in the first inning—by the umpire. As a result, the San Francisco Seals hopped on Fletcher's three successors for a 13-2 Coast league victory last night.

Guy threw his glove to the ground in disgust when Umpire Bill Doran called one of his pitches a ball. Doran thumbed him from the contest. Guy protested and had to be escorted from the mound.

Steve Nagy, the victor, gave up only five hits and had a big night at bat himself. He got two doubles, a single and was hit by a pitched ball. He scored once and batted in a pair to insure his 14th triumph.

Meantime, the pennant chase continues at a torrid pace. With but 17 games to go, the Oakland A's, defending champions, and currently in second place, thumped Sacramento 5-3 to move within three games of leading Hollywood.

Hollywood bowed to San Diego 3-2. The Padres did it in the ninth inning. Allie Clark clouting a pinch-homer with one aboard to give Lyman Lunde his 13th win.

Rain forced postponement of the Los Angeles game at Portland. They will make it up with a double-header this afternoon.

Today's card:
San Diego (Xavier Rescigno 10-13) at Hollywood (Willie Ramsdell 15-11).

Sacramento (Orval Grove 8-7) at Oakland (Charlie Gassaway 14-9).

San Francisco (Cliff Melton 4-5) at Seattle (Charlie Schanz 19-15).

Los Angeles (unavailable) at Portland (unavailable) double-header.

Dotten also announced these exhibition games for Seattle:

The Ironmen open at Seattle October 9 against New Westminster.

Beavers Scrimmage For UCLA Contest

CORVALLIS, Sept. 10 (AP) — The Oregon State Beavers climax their second week of football training here today in a full-length practice squad practice game.

It is expected to be the last heavy scrimmage before the Beavers leave for their coast conference game against UCLA at Los Angeles Saturday. The gates are to be locked for the session.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh Fullerton

NEW YORK, Sept. 10 (AP)—Don't be surprised if such traditionally conservative football teams as Duke and Penn State join the swing toward the popular "T" formation this season.

Joe Bedenk, successor to solid Bob Higgins at Penn State already has begun installing some wing-T plays run from an unbalanced line in the Michigan manner.

Duke's Wallace Forester sprang a "T" play on Wake Forest last fall and Jack Friedlund went 82 yards on it. . . . Wade isn't talking now, but Duke fans and opposing coaches feel sure he will spring some tricky offensive patterns on them.

Babe McCoy, the Los Angeles Olympic Club matchmaker, is heading for the Graziano-Pusari fight in New York with the idea of bringing back a few "name" boxers for his arena. . . . the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has just started an emergency drive and Sports Chairman Grant Rice is appealing to every branch of sports to pitch in and help.

Direct quote from Mel Allen's broadcast of the Yankees-Red Sox game Wednesday night: "Well, how about that? Rizzuto made one of the greatest one-handed scoops while going head over heels and tagged Zarilla that you ever saw."

Jack Weisenburger, who was virtually immune to injuries in four years of Michigan football, has been sidelined twice this season playing baseball for the Denver Bears. . . . An injured knee and a ditto thumb. . . . Jersey Jones is threatening to tab his heavyweight, Maynard Jones, the "Daily Double."

Besides duplicating the manager's name, Maynard had his first post-service fight in Baltimore, then had two in New York, two in Birmingham, N. Y., two in Newark and two in Wilmington before returning to Baltimore.

Wisconsin grid fans are anticipating the appearance of Pat O'Dea, fabulous drop kicker of the 90's at the Wisconsin-California game October 8. . . . O'Dea, now a resident of San Francisco, hasn't visited Camp Randall stadium since he saw the Badgers upset Illinois in 1934.

The question, it seems is whether the guy who used to boot 100-yard punts and 62-yard drop kicks can kick a football harder than the Wisconsin Wolves can kick a coach.

Bertha Ragan pitched 35 shutouts and 11 no-hit games in leading the Orange Lionettes to the Southern California girls softball championship. She'll be in Portland for the softball tournament next week.

RENO, Sept. 10 (AP)—Oregonians are dominating the Nevada State open trapshoot meet here in which purses and added money total $6000. George Blum, Newport, and Merle G. Henkle, Portland, tied at 194 out of 200 in class A competition yesterday. James Horn, Tulare, Calif., had 193; Dick Skeeters, Medford, and O. E. Fine, La Grange, Calif., 192 each.

Class B: Won by George Jantzer, Medford, 194; A. Ginochio, Lafayette, Calif. 192; N. R. Gilbert, Bend, 191.

Dick Skeeters won the doubles by breaking 93 of 100 targets. George Blum was next with 91.

Browns Even KF Play-off

Piling in four runs in the first frame off the services of Stan Gilson, the Redding Browns last night squared their Far West league playoff series with the Klamath Falls Gems at one win apiece, while the Willows Cardinals got their first victory in the southern end of the playoffs.

Willows went 12 innings to beat Pittsburg 5-4. The Diamonds have two victories.

Gilson got no support at all from the Gems infield during his brief stay on the mound. The only two men he got out were fanned. However, he made the first error himself by not touching the bag when he covered first on a play on Chuck Godshall's grounder and the lapse set up Redding's rally.

With Godshall on base, Wally Scott doubled to drive in a run. At first ground to short and Scott slid into third safely as the play was made on him. Ken Jensen bobbled Ray Perry's grounder as Scott scored. Al Kruk struck out and Darrel Johnson singled to score Heist. Russ Kosberg tanned and Jack Brown singled to score Perry.

At that point Niles Jordan replaced Gilson and got the side out. Jordan pitched creditable until for the next seven frames, until removed for a pinch swinger in the eighth, although giving up four hits and three runs in the sixth.

Howard Wolbely, Redding's erratic left-hander, was wobbling at the start but good fielding pulled him out of several holes. The Gems got two runs in the third when Edw. Elton doubled after Ken Jensen and Maurice Nordel walked. Elton's hit was the Spuds' first up to that time.

Pitchers on both sides complained frequently about the balls and strikes umpiring. Plate Umpire Bob Griesel seemingly had the plate reduced to the size of a saucer and that accounted for some of the dozen bases on balls issued during the game.

Howard loaded the bases with none out in the seventh and pitched himself out of trouble with just one Klamath run crossing. In the eighth he loaded the bags again with one out and needed the aid of Ralph Lineberger to pull away after two runs had scored.

Wally Scott was the hitting ace of the game for Redding. He collected a single, double and triple and drove home two runs.

The Gems, without the services of Catcher Ralph Mohler, had received league permission to sign on another backstop for the playoff and signed Danny Reagan, Medford club manager. Redding Manager Perry declared he would protest the game if Reagan was used and won his point.

The two teams go to Redding tonight.
