

Secret Red 'Trouble' Unit Reported In US

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 (AP)—A self-styled charter member of the U.S. communist party says that Russia has sent a secret "trouble-shooting unit" to this country. He explained communists think the party is in danger of being driven underground.

Maurice Malkin, the author of this statement, was a witness before a senate judiciary subcommittee. He said the three men from Moscow attended a meeting of top layer American communists a few weeks ago in a farmhouse at Beacon, New York.

He said they gave party line orders and have power to reorganize the party in this country, if necessary, in an effort to save it from being outlawed by congress.

Malkin described himself as a Russian-born machinist of Brooklyn, N.Y. He said he helped organize the communist party in this country in 1919, changed his mind about it while in Sing Sing prison for activities in a furriers' strike, and left the party in 1937.

During the last year, he added, he has been employed off and on by the immigration and naturalization service as an expert witness in deportation hearings.

Recently Malkin testified at a closed meeting of the subcommittee studying legislation to keep subversive aliens out of the United States. Thirty-eight closely typed pages of his testimony were made public by the subcommittee last night.

The witness testified that the number of card-carrying communist party members in the U.S. is 75,000 to 100,000, but that about 4,000,000 people in this country are "under the communist discipline."

By that, he said he meant they are members of organizations controlled by the communist party.

'Shangri-La' Wac Married 'A Good Man'

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Sept. 14 (AP)—Margaret Hastings, the Shangri-La Wac who wanted to "find a good man and get married," now says she did—three months ago.

In 1945, while a corporal in the women's army corps, she and two army men were the only survivors of a plane crash in New Guinea. They were rescued after spending 47 days in a hidden valley later tagged "Shangri-La."

Upon her return to civilization Margaret expressed her desire for matrimony.

She spent a good bit of her time last March denying reports that she was engaged to Robert G. Atkinson, former Lake Placid, N. Y., hotel official.

Yesterday Margaret said it happened. She and Atkinson were quietly married last June 24 at Forestville, Md.
