

HATS WERE IN THE HEADLINES at the annual Library club luncheon which was held this year at Reames Country club. Shown above is Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, who with her bright green and black hat with its pert coque feathers, helped add a gay fall fashion note.

SOCIETY

Herald
and News

By JOAN FOULON

STUDDERED WITH PEARLS is the aqua beaver headpiece worn by Mrs. Oscar Kittredge, vice president of the Woman's Library club. Her attractive off-the-face hat blended with her aqua dressmaker suit, a fitting example for the program devoted to "New Fall Hats For Your New Coiffure."

MODELING THEIR LATEST fall chapeaux at left, were Mrs. James Burness Jr., left, and Mrs. C. U. Dakin, when they were snapped at the annual Library club luncheon. Mrs. Burness' small flamingo hat was trimmed with felt braid and a large flamingo colored plume. Her suit was flaked with blue and brown which harmonized with her clever cap. Mrs. Dakin, suave in a black suit, topped her ensemble with a black felt hat with velvet trim. The feather is of white shaded ostrich.

A HAND-CROCHETED crown cap was Mrs. Annely Uherek's contribution to theme of the luncheon of "hair and hats." She will be truly on the program at the next meeting of the club in October when she will give a speech on human relationships.

ATTRACTIVELY CLAD in her small suede hat, matching her tailored suit was Merlon Albrecht. Her hat, in the new light brown shade which fits closely over her short dark curls, was right in vogue with the theme of the luncheon. Merlon chose a gay black, green and grey scarf to accentuate her costume.

—All pictures by Guderian.

COACH RED was the color of the charming bonnet donned by Mrs. Howard Stroud, treasurer, for the fall luncheon. A small veil covered the top, and brush trim adorned the hat. Mrs. Stroud wore a grey suit, and a gold choker completed her costume.

