

Football Spirit Heralds Fall

The snap of fall weather is in the air now, and with the beginning of football season at the traditional Grant-Klamath game, the fall has really begun.

The Pep Peppers were out last evening in their new pleated, red skirts when they drilled with the band to form a good-luck symbol for Klamath high, and they "hailed" the Pelicans in fine fashion.

College students already at school are preparing for the beginning of the college season. Oregon and Oregon State both held games last evening away from the home field, but college kids were interested to see how the teams were coming. Oregon played St. Mary's and Oregon State battled UCLA.

Off for Portland Friday was Mrs. Charles Bailey (Mickey Woodruff) who flew to that city to join her mother who is visiting Mrs. Stanley Staiger (Jillene Woodruff), now living in Oswego. Mrs. Woodruff and Mickey will drive back Sunday.

The social department will have a new editor next week when Sally Kent (Mrs. Robert Kent) assumes the duties. It has been a pleasant summer working for and with the townspeople on the social notes, but back-to-college at the University of Oregon is on the agenda for this columnist.

Two Klamath boys who will enter the University of Oregon medical school in Portland this fall, James Case and George Long, have both been invited to attend the alumni-freshman banquet of Alpha Kappa Kappa, medical fraternity, which will be held in the fraternity house in Portland.

George and his wife, Lois, plan to leave the twenty-seventh of this month for Portland, and Jim will leave about the same time. Both George and Jim are graduates of Oregon State and made fine scholastic records there.

Guests arrived at the F. C. Adams home last Saturday night on skates and skis and even in toboggans, vying for the prize which was to be given to the guest arriving at the party on the most original conveyance. Daughter Jean gave the party for her friends to celebrate their entry into the high school halls. Dancing and a scavenger hunt filled the evening.

At the end of the men's formal fall rush period at the University of Oregon Friday a number of "local catches" were pledged to social fraternities.

James Carter, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Carter, pledged Phi Kappa Psi, Ken Torgerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Torgerson, and Rodney Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bell, both pledged Alpha Tau Omega.

Bob Hooker, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hooker, went Kappa Sigma. James Owens, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Owens, and Jack Lust, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Lust, both pledged Sigma Chi, and Bob Hilton, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Hilton, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

One Klamath county girl has her winter nights all planned, now that she has won the grand champion prize in the 4-H beginners' knitting division at the state fair. Susan Ravina, Chiloquin, granddaughter of Mrs. Leslie Rogers, won enough wool to knit a sweater as her prize. Linda Pope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pope, also placed in the contest.

Helen Moore, daughter of Mrs. Charles L. Moore, returned recently from San Francisco and plans to stay here indefinitely. She has been employed in the bay area for a number of years.

Friends in Klamath have been receiving letters from Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Epperson, who have been vacationing in Europe. The Eppersons are now in Geneva after visiting in Paris.

The travelers will return in a few weeks to their home here.

The J. H. Carter home on South Sixth was bustling with out-of-town guests last week-end when Dr. and Mrs. Carter, together with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grevel, gave a dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fleischacker and son Allen of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gonia of Seattle. The guests were here for the Retriever Trials held last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reich (June Hershberger) were home for a few days visiting June's mother, Mrs. Alice Hershberger and her grandmother, Mrs. Lindsey. June and her husband are now living in Eugene, where Clarence is attending the University of Oregon.

Overnight guests recently at the Wilbur A. Jones home were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. McHaffey, Antioch, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newbury and daughters, Mary, Pat, Romy and Nancy, of Walnut Creek, California. The visitors came north for the Newbury-Denison wedding in Medford Saturday, September 10. Mrs. Jones is the mother of Mrs. McHaffey and Carl Newbury.

Barbecue

A social round-up time and barbecue was held by Aloha chapter, No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, Tuesday evening, to mark the first meeting after the usual two-months summer vacation.

The banquet room decorations were carried out in autumn atmosphere with bales of hay, saddles, and other farm equipment. Members were dressed as cowboys and cowgirls and the food was old-fashioned, substantial farm fare.

Following the regular business session of the chapter, a lassoing and hog-calling contest created fun for the 150 members present. The Dehlinger brothers won the former contest, and the hog-calling trophy was awarded to Mrs. W. L. Frain.

The committee in charge of the dining "u" was Bob Dehlinger, Stella Dehlinger, Harold Dehlinger, Dorothy Dehlinger, Grace Fairclough, Arthur Dickson, Viola Dickson, W. L. Frain, Effie Frain, Vera Clemens, W. Hackler, Vera Hackler, Paul Mathews, Ethel Mathews, Melvina Nitschelm, Riva Oldham, Edna Jones.

An Italian supper was served to several friends of Mr. and Mrs. Henri Conradi of Homedale road last night before the football game. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Al Backes, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Kennett, Mrs. Martha McCollum, Miss Bernice Britt, and Mr. Clay Bellisle.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Neli Lindbergh has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lindbergh. Neli will wed Harold E. Briscoe of Greeley, Colo., in October. Harold is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Briscoe, and Mr. Clay Bellisle.

WED RECENTLY at the Klamath Lutheran church were Helen Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wright, and Clifton Lacy, son of Mrs. Elzie Lacy of Vancouver, Wash. From left to right are Delores Wright, sister of the bride and maid of honor, the bride and groom and the best man, Jack Marsh.

—Jones-Miller.

Soroptimist

Entertaining at the Soroptimist club meeting recently was John Carter, who was accompanied by Mrs. Don Zumwalt at the piano. His numbers were "Rolling Down to Rio" and "The Old Road", and a selection in Italian from Rigoletto.

Chairman of the day, Mrs. Lawrence Slater, introduced the special speaker, Senator Phil Hitchcock, who spoke on the Klamath air service.

Table decorations for the meeting were in keeping with the subject of the speech. Small, gliders, planes and colorful travel folders decorated the tables. Blanche Lundy was responsible for the display. The guests of the meeting were Ruth Peyton, daughter of Junior Past President Doris Peyton, Ann Patterson of the Seattle Soroptimist club, Mary Bathwell of the local Venture club, and Alice White of Portland, a sister of Mrs. Lawrence Slater.

Kathleen Thompson announced the AAUW tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Humble from 2 to 3 on Saturday.

Olive Cornett announced the Young Republican meeting Saturday evening at the Willard hotel at which Congressman Lowell Stockman and State Senator Patterson will speak.

Vivian Owens presided in the absence of President Esther Lawler who is attending a staff meeting of the committee for crippled children in Portland.

The special award of the day went to Alice White.

Pinocle Party

Mrs. Dacie Hoover was hostess Tuesday for a meeting of the Three R club. After refreshments were served, the group played pinocle. High prize went to Mrs. Francis Killian, second to Mrs. Chloe Pride, and special prize to Mrs. Edna Penney.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Francis Killian on Harlan Drive.

It is possible for the human eye, unaided, to see about 2000 stars at one time.

DAR Dinner

Arrangements are being completed for the dinner honoring Mrs. Archie W. McKeown, Hood River, state regent of the Oregon DAR, who will pay her official visit to Rulalona chapter. Daughters of the American Revolution, Saturday, September 24.

The dinner will be at 6:30 o'clock in the evening, at the home of Mrs. M. E. Cooper, 1822 McInnes street. Serving on the dinner committee are Mrs. Hugh Estes, Mrs. S. B. Evans, Mrs. Harry Dickerson, and Mrs. Roland E. Wright.

Following the dinner the state regent will talk to the members about activities of the organization and plans for the coming year. Music for the evening will be arranged by Mrs. L. C. Hornby who plans an old-fashioned sing around the organ in the rumphus room of the Cooper home.

Mrs. Harry Dickerson, chapter regent, asks all members planning to attend to phone Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, 7347 for reservations by Thursday September 22.

Hair, Hats, Luncheon Highlight Week

The Klamath Women's Library club opened its current season with a smorgasbord luncheon and afternoon program at Reames Country club on Monday, September 12.

One hundred and forty guests and members were greeted at the door by a receiving line and hospitality committee composed of Mrs. Dean Osborn, club president; Mrs. Loren Palmerston, president of the women's auxiliary of Reames; Mrs. Earl Redman, garden club president; Mrs. John Ashley, Mrs. Charles Larkin, Mrs. C. J. Cox, Mrs. C. Lundy, Mrs. Jack Schulze, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. E. M. Raymond, Mrs. Robert Hooker, Mrs. Lloyd Young, Mrs. Carl Steinseifer and Mrs. Elbert Stiles.

Autumn flowers in glowing colors filled every corner of the room and the long tables were decorated with streamers of orange, brown and yellow crepe paper interspersed with huge colorful zinnia blossoms. Mrs. E. M. Raymond and Mrs. Arthur Reinhardt arranged the decorations.

The musical program, planned by Mrs. Don Zumwalt, featured two youthful Klamath Falls artists. Patsy Ruth Miller played "Indian Love Call" and "Egyptian Ballet" on the accordion, and John Carter sang "Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride" and "Hills of Home."

"New Fall Hats for Your Collection" was the subject of a presentation by Mrs. M. E. Nicodemus, Steve Peters, president of the Klamath unit of the Oregon Beauticians association; and Mrs. Margaret Kiplinger, president of the Southern Oregon district of the Beauticians association. Mrs. Nicodemus gave a short history of hats, showing how they were designed around hair styles and displaying several of the latest models. Short, casual hair styles were approved by Mrs. Kiplinger and Mr. Peters for any occasion.

Mrs. Osborn introduced her board and committee members for the coming year. Mrs. Oscar Kittredge is vice president, Mrs. Lawrence Bertram, second vice president, Mrs. Howard Kirchan, secretary, and Mrs. Howard Stroud, treasurer.

A special word of appreciation was given to Mrs. Matt Finnigan, who was in charge of providing transportation to the luncheon for those who needed it.

Permanent committee members introduced were Mrs. A. O. Roenicke and her program committee of Mrs. O. K. Puckett, Mrs. C. J. Cox, Mrs. L. A. Murphy, Mrs. Delos Mills and Mrs. Charles Houston. Music will be arranged by Mrs. Don Zumwalt.

The membership committee, which is a new addition, is composed of Mrs. F. W. Peak, Mrs. Albert Zenger and Mrs. P. A. Boyd. Mrs. John Love Call and "Egyptian Ballet" on the accordion, and John Carter sang "Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride" and "Hills of Home."

Another new addition is the budget committee which consists of Mrs. Charles Larkin, Mrs. C. J. Cox, and Mrs. A. O. Roenicke. Calling will be handled by Mrs. Arthur Compton. Mrs. Robert Porter is the Camp Fire Girls representative, while Mrs. George Clark is the Girl Scout representative. Scrapbook chairman is Mrs. Karl Cunningham, and Youth Conservation is headed by Mrs. Charles Larkin.

The Benefit Bridge party will be headed by Mrs. George Coudrey as bridge chairman and Mrs. J. M. Hilton as tea chairman.

Mrs. Ray Oldenburg as children's case benefit chairman gave a brief report on the tonsilectomies that have been done for needy families with the help of the club.

Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Anneli Uherek, who was Mrs. O. K. Puckett's guest, and Mrs. Neal Stewart, guest of Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, and the program committee.

The next meeting will be October 10, and the program scheduled is a talk by Mrs. Uherek entitled, "Toward Better Human Relationships." Mrs. Uherek, a student of L. A. Murphy, Mrs. Delos Mills and Mrs. Charles Houston. Music will to the ladies!

By Louise Reinhardt

Klamath Falls, Sept. 17 . . . Thank you one and all for making our annual sale such a colossal success. Our friends know that they can depend on genuine values, but we were hardly expecting the crowds that took advantage of low, low prices we offered. From now on in you can all expect to find the very most for your money no matter what your gift needs are. Our Holiday merchandise will please you both as to price and quality, and everything has a new look that will surprise you. A deposit will hold items, or budget terms may be arranged. Be sure to see our selection of Christmas cards for imprinting, and place your order early, so you won't have to take second choice. Next Saturday, the 24th, will be the date of the annual AAUW Fellowship tea. Mrs. Clarence Humble has generously opened her gracious home at 1320 Pacific Terrace, for the occasion, which is one of the early Fall's very nicest social events. All ladies are welcome to come and enjoy the tea, as well as contribute to the fund which enables some outstanding graduate student to pursue her subject further.

One more important announcement . . . The Lions Club fun frolic, slated for the Pelican theater on Sept. 27, 28, and 29, is going to be the funniest, happiest, singiest show you have ever imagined. You won't want to miss it. We have tickets, at Reinhardt's, 519 Main, and they may also be purchased at the box office of the Pine Tree theater. The proceeds go to buy glasses for needy children. Mighty worth while.
