Church Vows Read Saturday

TULELAKE—In one of the prettiest weddings of the summer, Mary Patricia Warring, daughter of Mrs. Lillie M. Warring and the late Mr. Warring, became the bride Saturday afternoon, September 3 of Kenneth James Williams, Crescent City. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Williams of the coast city.

The double ring ceremony was read at two o'clock by Rev. Hugh Bronson in the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church before two hundred relatives and friends of the young couple.

Arrangements of Croft lilies and ferns brought by the groom's parents were used at the altar and about the church, with many tall white tapers.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Sybil Hjort sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" with Mrs. E. Webb Staunton at the piano. Mrs. Staunton also played the traditional wedding marches.

The tapers were lighted before arrival of the wedding party by the ushers, Robert Wakefield, Crescent City, and Marion Palmer, Tulelake.

Patsy was escorted up the aisle by an uncle, Earl Warring, Tucson, Arizona. She was given in marriage by her mother.

For her wedding she chose an afternoon frock of aqua crepe and gold hat. Her other accessories were brown and she carried an arm bouquet of yellow rose buds and yellow daisies.

Bernice Hartley, maid of honor, wore a dressmaker suit in the new wine shade and carried an arm bouquet of pink rose buds. Her accessories were dark.

Alvin E. Williams, Crescent City, was best man for his brother.

Mrs. Warring wore a slate blue dressmaker suit and corsage of red and white roses for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother, Mrs. Williams, chose a rose pink afternoon frock. Her corsage was the same as Mrs. Warring's.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. The bride and groom cut the first piece of their three-tiered white and yellow wedding cake which later was served by Mrs. Harry Lynch.

Pouring at the beautifully appointed table, centered with an arrangement of gladioli, were Mrs. Olney Rudd and Mrs. Viola Nelson, both of Tulelake.

Assisting at the guest book was Pati O'Connor. Mrs. C. C. Spears was in charge of the guest table.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Williams left immediately following the reception for a trip up the Oregon coast to Portland. They will return to the University of Oregon, Eugene, in time for opening of the fall term. Mr. Williams is a member of the college faculty. Mrs. Williams will complete her work for her master's degree.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Morts, Auburn, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Ring and Linda, Tacoma, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Lorrance, Fall River Mills, grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Williams, Crescent City, parents of the groom, Clara H. Williams, Julia Williams, Virginia Williams, Crescent City.

Lillian Grey Belnap, Cottage Grove, Ore., Mrs. Lillian Mann, Klamath Falls, Mary Lou O'Connor, Kathleen O'Connor and Pati O'Connor, Klamath Falls, Mrs. Conrad Carlson, Yakima, Wash., Mrs. Margaret Connell, Jackson, Calif., Alvin E. Williams and Robert Wakefield, Crescent City.

August Rites

Evelyn Lenore King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. King, became the bride of Richard Heitsmith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Heitsmith, August 4 in an 8 p. m. ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

For the wedding the bride wore a beige suit with navy blue accessories. A corsage of red rosebuds was at her shoulder.

Maid of honor was Lavonne Haney. Best man was Don McAuliffe.

Rev. Keith Fields of the Bible Baptist church read the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate family and close friends.

After a honeymoon to various Oregon spots, the two are at home in this city.
