

CVA Survey To Be Lead By Sparkman

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—Senator Sparkman (D-Ala.) has been named to conduct senate public works committee hearings in the Pacific Northwest on legislation to create a Columbia valley administration.

Chairman Chavez (D-NM) of the full committee plans to go to Europe with the senate appropriations committee. He designated Sparkman to hold the CVA sessions.

Senator Magnuson (D-Wash.) said today he had conferred with Sparkman on a tentative schedule.

If congress adjourns by October 15, Magnuson said, the committee plans its first Pacific Northwest session the first week in November. He emphasized the tentative plan hinges on when congress quits.

Meeting Points
Testimony probably would be heard in the Spokane, Walla Walla and Seattle areas of Washington, in the Portland, Ore., area and possibly at Salem, Ore., and some other point in that state, Magnuson said. Then sessions would be held at Boise, Ida., and at some place in Montana.

Magnuson, who has proposed adding to the house rivers and harbors and flood control authorization bill all of the Columbia basin projects in the coordinated report of the army engineers and reclamation bureau, said it might be necessary to trim his request.

He said if he finds the public works committee is opposed to adopting the entire program, he would pick out a half a dozen of the most important projects in Washington, Oregon, and Idaho and ask their authorization.

FILBERT PRICES

DUNDEE, Ore., Sept. 20 (AP)—Prices for this year's filberts will be only a cent below last year's, a Northwest Nut Growers' association spokesman said yesterday. J. E. Trunk, general manager, said the opening prices would be from 18½ to 22 cents a pound on Barcelona and Brixnuta, and 18-21½ on Du Chilly types.

Tree Don't Know What Time It Is

BAKER, Sept. 20 (AP)—Winter may be nearly here but one Baker apple tree doesn't know it.

Apparently mixed up in its seasons, even after several nights of killing frost, an apple tree in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Callahan today is producing blossoms right along with the apples.

The blossoms were discovered by the Callahan daughters, Anita, 10, and Sally, 7, who promptly picked some for an exhibit.

Dog Guzzlers 'Siwashed' In Prestwich

PRESTWICH, England, Sept. 20 (AP)—With bloodshot eyes and trembling paws the drinking dogs of Prestwich scuttled into their favorite saloons today. They got a shock. Their drinks are cut off.

Dr. C. H. T. Wade, the city health officer, said the wave of tipping by dogs at the local pubs has got to stop.

"They have dirty habits," he said, "and most pubs only rinse the glasses."

Alderman A. L. Williams of the health committee agreed.

"We don't say our dogs are drunkards," he told a reporter, "but too many of them are drinking beer from the same glasses used by other patrons."

Bernard Hadfield, proprietor of Ostrich, said most of the drinking dogs he knew were moderate about it — half a pint or so a night. But he said he had seen at least one who'd had a drop too much.

"Mind you," said Hadfield, "he may have been new to it, but he certainly staggered home."

Mill Pond Fencing Move In Lebanon

LEBANON, Sept. 20 (AP)—Residents here are supporting a movement to have lumber mill log ponds within the city fenced for the safety of children.

A petition to be submitted to the city council and the mayor asks the enforcement of existing ordinances on public nuisances. It began circulating after the drowning of two-year-old Dana Jensen. The boy drowned last Wednesday in a logging company pond.

William Warden, local American Legion post officer, said the petition has the backing of veterans in the city.
